Feline Melody.

Pirat Cat—How sweetly you sing! I never heard anything so entrancing! What was that last song? Second Cat (sentimentally)—"If I had nine thousand lives to live, I'd live them all for you."—Woman's Home Companion.

The Average Picnic.

If a man will take a hard-boiled egg, a thin ham sandwich, and a hastily fractured glass of lean lemonade out on the lawn and sit down on a rustic bench—if there is one, he will come close to making a noise similar to the average picnic.

Slow.

Mrs. Starron—I'm surprised to hear you say you're having trouble to get your money out of Mr. Starboard. He always boasted that he paid as he went. Mrs. Harden—Maybe he does, but I can't get him to go.—Stray Stories.

The Reason.

Daughter—There ain't anybody comes in for dinner today, ma. Landlady (grimly)—No, this is the day they all promised positively to pay.—Puck.

Fogs and Winds.

The movement of air is variously designated, according to its velocity, as a zephyr, breeze, wind, gale or hurricane. With fogs the designations are misty, slight, moderate or thick. A dense or thick fog, according to the weather bureau, obscures objects at a distance of 1,000 feet.

AT THE CHICAGO THEATRES

McVICKER'S.

"Madame X," Alexandre Bisson's celebrated play of emotion which has earned for itself the appellation of "the dramatic sensation of Europe and America," returns to Chicago next week, beginning an engagement at McVicker's theatre on Sunday night, April 30. Miss Dorothy Donnelly, whose portrayal of the mysterious woman who gives the play its name, electrified Chicago audiences for a period of twenty weeks when the initial presentation of the drama was made there nearly two years ago, will again be seen in that role. Associated with Miss Donnelly will be a number of the unique and extraordinary collective capability which distinguishes every acting organization sent forth by Henry W. Savage. No detail of production that made for emphasis and impressiveness in "Madame X" as originally shown has been altered or allowed in the slightest degree to fade or lessen in color, so that considered from any viewpoint, the visit of the play to McVicker's at this time may be considered, even by the most critical commentator, simply as a resumption of its previous and phenomenally successful engagement in Chicago, which was interrupted only because it was found impossible to longer delay the presentation of the play in New York. Hint for that contingency the appearance of "Madame X" at McVicker's would not be a resumption of the Chicago engagement; that engagement would not yet have been concluded, for when "Madame X" was taken from Chicago to New York, it was at the very height of its popularity and was attracting audiences of enormous proportions. In New York the Bisson drama confronted its Chicago triumph and since that time has repeated its record in every large city of the country.

Halterman-Beuchat.

A double ring wedding was that of Miss Lucile Catherine Beuchat, age 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Beuchat of Elgin, formerly of Barrington, to James Otto Halterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Halterman of 62 North Prairie street, Batavia.

They were married Saturday, April 22, at Wheaton at high noon. Following the wedding a reception was given at the bride's home seven miles west of Elgin. Mr. Halterman is a prosperous young farmer. He is the brother of Clyde Halterman, husband of Mr. and Mrs. Beuchat's younger daughter Elsie. In a pleasant language the two Halterman brothers married the two Beuchat sisters.

Church Conference.

Five villages will be represented in the church conference to be held at the Barrington Methodist church on Friday afternoon and evening, viz., North Crystal Lake, Cary, Barrington, Palatine and Arlington Heights. See per for all who desire it will be served at the church at six o'clock.

The evening train for the west, passing Barrington at about 8:30, will stop here to take on passengers for Cary and North Crystal Lake.

Sun Eclipsed Friday.

A partial eclipse of the sun will occur tomorrow morning, beginning about 8 o'clock and continuing for two minutes. The annual eclipse on October 22 will be invisible in this section, it is said.

A Big Laugh.

Pie-eating contest at Stott's hall directly after the first show Saturday night, April 29. Two prizes given—first and second.

Post Office Open on Sunday.

The post office will be open from seven to eight o'clock every Sunday morning.

H. K. BROCKWAY,
Postmaster.

M. S. Cross, D. D., a brother of Rev. W. A. Cross of Crystal Lake, died a week ago at his home in California.

To save your eyesight wear properly fitted glasses, and you can get them of Dr. Barber, at Dr Sheaver's office next Tuesday.—Adv.

To Correct Descriptions.

Tax payers in Cuba township who have purchased property during the past year are requested to furnish me with correct descriptions of their property in order that the changes in ownership may be correctly noted in the collector's book this year. This will save you considerable annoyance when paying your taxes.
