$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

FARMERS SIGNING UP

Yesterday Contract Day at Bowman.—Dairymen Accept Quotation.—Price Will Average as Last Year.

Offering the same average price as was paid under the contract scheme last year, the Bowman Dairy company, yesterday opened contract books for the summer milk supply. The same milk price offered by the company is ten and five-sixths cents under the price that the directors of the Milk Producers' association at their session on March 2 decided 'shld be offered.

While the average price offered by the Bowman people is the same as last year, there is one difference. The price for April milk has been reduced considerably, while the prices paid for the July and August supply have been increased proportionately. Officials of the company stated that this change was made to induce farmers to produce more milk during July and August when the milk supply is the scarcest of the year.

Although the contract prices are much lower than the Milk Producers' association decided to ask, the company was no hesitancy on the part of the farmers in signing up. They all seemed well satisfied with the prices that the company was offering and as far as could be learned there was not a single holdout at any factory in this vicinity.

The quotations are:

| | Contract prices | Suggested prices |
|---|---|---|
| April | $1.30 | $1.40 |
| May | 1.10 | 1.20 |
| June | 1.00 | 1.05 |
| July | 1.30 | 1.40 |
| August | 1.45 | 1.50 |
| September | 1.45 | 1.50 |
| Average | $1.24 | $1.32½ |

Although the farmers in this vicinity are loyal supporters of the Milk Producers' association they did not protest against the prices offered by the Bowman people. Some of the members of them have signed up. Superintendent Frick states.

Tells of Ancient Paper.

The recent discussion of some historical society on newspapers of Illinois reads on page 217:

"Lake Zurich, Lake County, "Lake Zurich Banner, 1856: Edited and published by Lewis Palmer." It was "devoted to manhood without distinction of sex, color, nation or condition." Palmer considered himself a minister of bank and ran the paper to expound his principles. He was afterward sent to an insane asylum.

Dr. Barber will fit your glasses so you are easy and comfortable. His prices are as low as can be found with good work.—Adv.

REAL ESTATE SHOW

Majority of Chicago's Suburbs Have Signed Up.—What May be Seen There.

With the sale of space for the coming real estate show well under way, many persons are asking the management of the company, "what can I see at a real estate and building show?"

President John H. Robertson said: "Everything that pertains to building furnishing and decorating the home will have a place in the exhibition. Illustrations will be shown twenty housewives economy. Men will be taught how to save money and how to buy a home. Subdivision and farm lands are to be put before the people in such a way that it will stimulate the home-owning idea. This, in a nutshell, is the reason and the basis upon which the promoters of the exhibition have taken the initiative to do something that will be far more interesting, novel and instructive than anything that has ever been attempted before in Chicago.

"The visitor to the Coliseum can see a small house constructed and furnished in the most up-to-date style, with all the latest labor-saving appliances. In one corner there will be a cottage furnished in simple style for people of moderate means. All styles and conditions of men and women will find things to interest them. There are to be ideal dwellings for housewives, kitchens, bath-rooms, cellars, playrooms, libraries and dens. It will well be possible to buy mortgages and all kinds of real estate investments at this show and a representative will be in charge of the various exhibits to explain everything fully to the visitors.

"The exhibition will be unique in numerous that is almost impossible to be given time to describe them fully. Everything about the home, everything that interests men and women will be shown and explained in its place at the exhibition. There will even be an exhibition where trained nurses will be in attendance. Babies should be cared for, which will without a doubt attract the attention of all mothers."

While the majority of the suburbs in the vicinity of Chicago have signed up for space for the show, which takes place later in the year, a few suburbs of towns are somewhat slow in applying for their booths. Unless these towns do so, space will be lost to them, unless it be unable to secure any space at all, as there is a great demand for it by exhibitors.

EXPLOSIONS ALARM.

Residents Shaken by Powder Mill Explosion.—Little Damage Done.

The shocks of the explosions of the powder mills at Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin, at 7 o'clock yesterday evening were distinctly, alarming many residents. The flames were also seen by a number of people.

Several automobile parties visited the scene of the explosion.

RAPS COUNTY SCHOOLS

Barrington Township County Schools Worst of All.—Hygienic Conditions and Furnishings Inadequate.

Indifference, parsimony and laziness in Cook county country districts has prevented the advancement of education to such an extent that the forward movement has left the rural schools and the rural communities have been the victims of Big Ten Whisky sleep, according to Dr. A. F. Nightingale, former superintendent of schools, in his biennial report issued this week.

Dr. Nightingale and his assistants made a canvass of the county schools and tabulated their faults and vitiates. The faults are numerous, the vitiates are few, according to the report, which contains a description of the educational peculiarities of each of the 172 rural schools in Cook county.

"The superintendent raps Barrington and Palatine township schools particularly hard. The Bucklyn school on the Dundee road, district number seven, is described as follows: "Frame building forty years old. Windows cannot be opened. Unsafe to use. Furniture furnished by the teacher. The room has a "heater," but it is not jacketed, and consequently the heat is the windows only. There is no well and the drinking water is brought in a pail from a nearby farm."

He says of district number 10, in same township, the Palatine township ship line: "A soft wood floor scrubbed once a year, and the teacher, who does the work, complains of cramps. The floor is swept 'every other night' and the teacher swears that 'once in a week' There are a few library books and seven pictures, purchased from the teacher's pocket-book."

And district number 11, in the south west corner of Barrington, "Conditions militate against the progress of this school. The building, frame, is about forty years old. The outhouse does not draw well. One picture furnished by the school. There is a water pail, drinking cup, two brooms, two mops, two soap and towels, no towel rack, no soap dish, no dipper. Floor scrubbed once a year."

In A Hurry—Telephone.

The telephone is indispensable in particularly evident in emergency situations. Fire, burglary, sickness, accidents, delays, hurried departures, business transactions, fire, burglary—all come in this category.

Time, money, convenience—often life itself—depend on immediate communication.

You may be in sight or a thousand miles away, it matters not. The local or long distance telephone can be used in either situation.—Chicago Telephone Company.

Care of Umbrella.

Do not open an umbrella to dry it. Set it to stand on its turtle. Either method is destructive to this useful article, the former because the ribs will be warped by being bent by the stick, so that the next, tight rolling will be impossible in a short time; and the second because the water resting about the top will rot the covering. Stand the umbrella, closed, but not rolled, on the handle downward, then when the silk is perfectly dry, roll it with a cloth to restore the glossy.

PRIMARIES THIS WEEK.

Ela and Barrington Township Primaries Held This Week.—Will be Quiet.

Tomorrow afternoon, at the hours of two to seven o'clock, the Barrington township primary election will be held at the village hall. As will be seen by the specimen ballot published elsewhere in this issue there are but four offices to be filled and there is no opposition in any instance, thus but slight interest is being taken, and it is expected that the vote polled will be small.

In Ela township there are likewise four offices to be filled, and in two cases there are two candidates for one office, so interest is stirred up a little bit. The Ela primary will be held at Lake Zurich Saturday, and the polls will be open from seven a. m. to five p. m. The specimen ballot is published in another page in this issue.

The voting will be under the Australian system at each primary.
