Jewels Have Spring Jubilee

"The Jewels" and their partners had a spring jubilee dinner party in the Crystal ballroom of the Edgewater Beach hotel Saturday evening. Dinner was served at small tables for eight and "Doc" Davis led group singing. E. J. Harris, retiring president of the Jewels, welcomed the new officers.

Those installed into office were Malcolm Cash, president; John Weber, vice president; Alice Washe, secretary; Verna Brandt, assistant secretary; Harold Homuth, treasurer; Myrtle Conrad and Alvin Jure, members at large.

Music for dancing was provided by Joe Miller's "Northwesterners" and novelty acts were introduced from the Marine dining room of the hotel. Punch was served throughout the evening. About 250 persons attended the party.

"The Jewels" is an organization of all employes of Jewel Tea Co., Inc., which is in charge of social, athletic and philanthropic activities.

Miss Lucille Sheesley Is Honored

Miss Lucille Sheesley was honored Saturday evening at a delightful prenuptial party given by Miss June Ketel and Mrs. Clark Sheesley at the Ketel home, 442 N. Cook street. Games were enjoyed and at the close of the social hour, a delicious two-course luncheon was served at a large table centered with a wedding ring and wedding bells. The spring colors, green and yellow, were used in the attractive decorations.

Miss Sheesley will become the bride of George Wakefield of Waterman in June. She received her degree in home economics at the University of Illinois last June and is a member of the high school faculty at Long Point this year.

Mr. Wakefield, also of the University of Illinois, received his master's degree last June and is a member of the high school faculty at Palestine.

Miss Alice Geddes Is Honored
