Campfire Girls and Girl Scouts to Hold Troop Song Contest

One hundred and twenty-five girl scouts and campfire girls will participate in an inter-troop sing to be held in scout cabin Thursday, Mar. 2, at 4 p. m. Song leaders elected by their individual groups are as follows: Girl scout troop 1, Phyllis Bjornberg; scout troop No. 2, Polly Ann Brooke; Campfire group Wetsachik, Talahile, Alice Jean Mountain; Otyokwa group, Mary Carrillo.

Groups will be judged on two songs and a trophy will be awarded the winning team. The remaining time will be spent in community singing and members of the councils of the two groups will be the guests.

The purpose of the inter-troop sing is to promote a better understanding of music, teamwork and good sportsmanship, it was learned. Miss Bonnie Jean Clark and Mrs. E. H. Kingery are leaders of the girl scout troop and Mrs. Stanley Corr directs the campfire girls.

Church School for Adults Is Started

An important addition to the religious education program of the First Methodist church of Barrington will be the church school class for men and women, announced this week by the Rev. George T. Nesmith, minister, and Herbert Bricker, general superintendent of the church school.

It will be taught, under a new arrangement, by co-teachers, the Rev. Dr. Minor A. Kellogg of 204 W. Coolidge avenue and Mrs. Morrill.

Doctor Morrill is one of the secretaries of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church at 740 Rush street, Chicago.

Infantile Paralysis Drive Nets $53.22

The local committee for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc., this week forwarded to John J. Kelly, 111 N. Genesee street, Waukegan, a check for $53.22, covering receipts from a dime collection taken in this community during the week of January 30 to February 4 to aid in the fight against infantile paralysis. The total dime collection was $56.90, and expenses for buttons, posters, cans, and postage were $3.68. L. H. Paddock, chairman, R. F. Koehler Sr. and John J. Trestik directed the drive.

Because of the Barrington Town Warming program in progress that week, no special event was planned this year, but all dimes in the contribution at the town warming meeting on January 30 were enlisted in the "March of Dimes" campaign, the Town Warming committee turning over a check for $11.40, which is included in the above total.
