Church Attendance Sets Record of 757 at Morning Worship

A new high mark was established on Palm Sunday in the loyalty attendance campaign sponsored by four Barrington churches when 757 persons assembled in their respective churches for morning worship services.

Each church showed substantial gains in percentage of members in attendance over previous week. St. Salem Evangelical, with 67 per cent of its members present, increased its standing 12.5 per cent.

Methodist Episcopal gained 9.4 per cent, Baptist 13.4 per cent, and St. Paul 10.2 per cent.

The campaign is being conducted to stimulate interest in attendance, ministers of the four cooperating churches urging persons to attend some church for the morning worship service. It will be continued until May 7.

Percentage of members attending each church Sunday are as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Baptist | 48 per cent |
| Methodist | 43.7 per cent |
| Salem | 62 per cent |
| St. Paul | 51 per cent |
