Honor Farm Bureau Members of 20 Years Continuous Service

As a part of the 20th anniversary of the American Farm Bureau, recognition in various ways is being given to farmers who have held unbroken membership in their respective county Farm Bureaus. A search of the Cook county Farm Bureau records reveals that 132 persons have held continuous memberships in the organization.

"We recognize that these veteran Farm Bureau members who have believed in the organization from the beginning and who have supported the Cook county Farm Bureau through thick and thin have been the backbone of the organization," stated President Harvey Adair. "We think that it is altogether fitting and proper that these men should have recognition at this time for their continuous loyal support."

Township committeemen are distributing recognition buttons to members in the following townships:

Barrington township — H. F. Hoffman, G. Schifferer and Paul Volz.

Hanover township—William J. Mueller and Herman Hecht.

Palatine township—Otto Bittner, Henry Brockman, R. Laudenberger, Emil Schroeder, George Schroeder, William C. Brockman, Herman J. Moehling, Daniel Bergman and William Fruend.

Schaumburg township — Louis F. Merge, E. F. Lichtenfelt, William H. Freise, John Freise, Edwin J. Freise, Henry Freise, E. H. Wille, E. H. Bergman, Theis Bros., Fred W. Pfingsten, H. F. Heine and Ben Meyer.
