Barrington Review

M. T. LAMEY, Ed. and Pub.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS

NEWS OF A WEEK IN CONDENSED FORM

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST MANNER POSSIBLE.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

Happenings That Are Making History —Information Gathered From All Quarters of the Globe and Given in a Few Lines.

Washington

Diamonds, champagne and tobacco were among the luxuries imported into the United States during 1912 in quantities far in excess of similar importations in the same month last year. In the case of champagne just twice as much came in.

* * *

The two miles of corridors and the domes of the state, war and navy buildings, Washington, are receiving their first new dress since they were originally painted in 1875, when the edifices was constructed at a cost of $3,000,000.

Domestic

More than 200 patients in the Dunning insane asylum of Chicago were fed from the building when fire was discovered in the recent extreme weather of the institution. Nurses, assisted by staff physicians, marshaled the insane patients out of the buildings, and when they saw that the fire was under control, the patients were taken back into their wards.

* * *

Throwing a spirited challenge to his opponents in the tariff issue in politics, President Taft at Hamilton, Mass., announced that he is making "tariff for politics only." He scored the "insurgent" members of the Republican party in Congress and the Democrats who combined to revise several schedules of the present tariff law the special session of congress, just closed.

* * *

An amusing tiff by which George W. Rodenstock, of Ashland, Neb., who was believed when he arrived at Atlantic City, N. J., an outcast and a dressee in rags, to be a tramp, begueathed to Mrs. Clara Bonnell Gardner, president of the Shut-in Society of New Jersey, $250,000 because she took him in and cared for him, has just been made public by Mrs. Plummer.

* * *

Insane with jealousy over the remark that she did not care to have anything to do with him, Walter Hopper, aged 16, hurled Lena Gilbert around the valet on board the steamship Puritan, in Long Island sound, hurled the shrieking woman overboard. She was drowned.

* * *

Seven persons known to be dead, many injured, and property damage of more than $1,000,000, so far as can be ascertained, is the damage wrought by a terrific storm which struck Charleston, S. C., isolating the city from the rest of the world for 24 hours.

* * *

Sauerkraut is to become not only the staff but the agency for prolonging life at Jim Massillon (O.) state hospital, provided the theory of a Chicago said physician, proves true after thorough test. The claim of the Chicago chemist is that sauerkraut will add to the years of the consumer.

* * *

A team of mules drawing a buggy with M. M. McQuerry, a farmer, his wife and two children, became frightened at a railway crossing a mile south of Bethany, Mo., and dashed in front of a passenger train. Charles McQuerry was instantly killed. Mrs. McQuerry died in a hospital.

* * *

Alfred Bayliss, state superintendent of public instruction of Illinois from 1909 to 1911 and for the last 10 years president of the Western Illinois State Normal school, died at Woodbine, Ia., where he received fatal injuries August 15 from being thrown from a horse.

* * *

The New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad has posted a reward of $2,500 for the arrest of the person who drew the spikes from its rails, wrecking an express train, killing Abram P. Brown and injuring sixty other passengers near Middlebury, Conn.

* * *

Twenty-six persons were killed and 60 injured in a panic which followed the explosion of a moving picture film in the Grand Opera house in Canonsburg, Pa. Of the dead 13 were children under fifteen years of age and seven were women.

* * *

Grief over the death of his wife led Edward Bennett, an Englishman and a graduate of Oxford university, from land, who had been a resident of Thomaston, Me., for the last six years, to murder his five children and then take his own life.

* * *

Committees of the American bar association, reported that body at its annual convention in Boston, Mass., ready for the net framing a model insurance code for the District of Columbia and for adoption by states creating a court of patent appeals. The committee on jurisprudence refused to recommend legislation aimed at the "third degree" and to give federal control over strikes making inter-state fights, and declined to consider woman suffrage.

* * *

Paul D. Beattie, cousin of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., who stands indicted for the murder of his wife, revealed on the witness stand at Chesterfield Courthouse, Va., that the accused told him 24 hours after the murder how sorry he was "he had done it," a circumstance which tends to confirm the that the witness hitherto had suppressed.

* * *

At his Brooklyn home Joseph Richards, a reputed policeman of the Coney Island station, is recovering his health after an illness of several weeks from nervous prostration. His physicians declare that his illness was brought on by having to listen to the playing of hand organs and bands at the amusement places on Coney Island.

* * *

Pearing the attending physician would cease his visits, Sylvester Jacobs, aged eight, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who suffered a crushed foot, had his mother carry him to the cellar of his home. In an old tin can was found $1.16. The doctor refused to accept the "fortune" and promised to attend the lad free.

* * *

During the automobile race for the national trophy at Elgin, Ill., which resulted in the death of Lewis Strang, Buck and Mechanician Samuel Jacobs were killed when their machine turned over and rolled over 100 yards were more or less severely hurt when the grade crossed a road.

* * *

A motion to dismiss the appeal of Charles W. Morse, the former New York banker and ice trust promoter, from the habeas corpus decision of the district court of appeals for the northern district of Georgia, has been received by the United States circuit court at New Orleans.

* * *

Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, is negotiating for the purchase of a tract of land near Lake Geneva, Greeley, Col., where, it is said, he will devote the remainder of his life to the breeding of fancy cattle and horses.

* * *

Because he was reproved for keeping late hours, Joseph Zuk, twenty-four years old, of Lyons, Ill., shot his aged father, Albert Zuk, it is charged, so seriously that he killed the elder Zuk died a few hours later.

* * *

Brandishing a butcher knife, a negro gave chase to Ruth Hoffman, aged a sixteen-year-old girl, in the vicinity of her home on the outskirts of Atlanta, Ga., and frightened her into convulsions.

* * *

Over $20,000,000 will be realized by the Chocaw and Chickasaw Indians of land sales between now and February 1, 1912.

Foreign

The inhabitants of the town of Verbicaro, Italy, becoming incensed against the work of a sanitary commission taking measures against cholera, began rioting at Cosenza, and killed two members of the Red Cross society and burned the city hall.

* * *

Labor troubles are making their appearance at many points in Germany and the general belief is that the men have become demoralized with their long conditions since the success of the British railway strike.

* * *

The question of the reinstatement of 150 trainmen who participated in quitting the ground for the threat of a bigger strike against the roads, is yet to be being settled. The 250 men who were suspended by the Liverpool Municipal Tramway struck in sympathy with the railway workers. The municipality put other men in their places.

* * *

Mrs. James, widow of the president of Amherst college, has offered $100,000 to endow Doshisha college, a mission, in Kyoto, Japan, in memory of her husband, founder of the college was a Japanese student at Amherst.

* * *

An operation was performed at the laryngological institute of Lausanne, Switzerland, by Drs. Raymond and Lenoble, on Prince Alfonso, second son of King Alphonso of Spain, for the relief of a nose and throat affection.

Sporting

Flying 1,865 miles in 28 hours and 28 minutes actual flying time, averaging 44.44 miles an hour, Harry N. Atwood completed the longest flight in the history of man's latest science, aviation, when he landed between Kansas City, Mo., finishing just nine seconds ahead of Charles Hern, who also drove a Nieuport. Hern's time for the 200 miles and 1,394 feet was 1.05:35. Hugh Hughes, driving a Morane, captured the Kane county trophy, finishing the 185 miles and 2,460 feet in 1.0:40. Morrison Heckscher, piloting an Abbott-Detroit, won the Aurora trophy, Kansas City, in a fast field of 12 entries, covered Roberts' time was 1:31:11.

JUST CAMPING, THAT'S ALL

THE BARRINGTON REVIEW
THE BARRINGTON REVIEW
THE BARRINGTON REVIEW