Body Not That of Albrecht.

The body of a man was found in the drainage canal at Lemont Saturday and the description tallied so well with that of Charles Albrecht who disappeared from here nearly two months ago that it was thought to be his until it was later identified as that of another man. Albrecht was a resident of Prairie View, Lake county, and had worked as a foreman on the Watson farm for sale last two years. At the time of his disappearance he was engaged in drilling a well for the village of Lake Zurich.

The search for his appearance were filed in the Lake county Circuit court last week by creditors. Monday property that he owned at Prairie View was sold to satisfy other claims.

His wife has done everything in her power to locate him being the only relative he has as his father died. Up to the present time nothing has been heard of his whereabouts.

AN INTERESTING MEETING.

Men's Club Held Instructive and Pleasing Program at Meeting Held Last Monday Evening.

The regular meeting of the Men's club was held at the Methodist church Monday evening, January 22. The auditorium was well filled with an appreciative audience which was treated to a most pleasing literary and musical program, which was furnished by the personal efforts of Professor Erman S. Smith, the talent being all local and each number was rendered with more than pleasing tack and style.

The noteworthy event of the evening was the address by Miss Julia McCormick, a high school teacher, on "What Barrington Does for Its Girls and Young Women." Among the many vital things said in regard to the training of the girls mentally, physically, and morally, she said:—"There is a most prolific field of labor here for the women's clubs in furnishing proper places for our girls to be taught, not only the arts, but the general science of home building, as sewing, cooking etc., and there are plans extant in larger towns where, for a membership fee of fifty cents, one can obtain lessons of five or ten cents per lesson, girls are being taught painting, domestic science, sewing and many other useful housekeeping necessities, besides furnishing a proper invironment for the girls." The out-door problems were also discussed, tennis, basket ball, club swinging, were very highly recommended.

Attorney H. P. Castle took up the same subject "Our Boys", and was most pronounced in his praise of the B. H. S. brass band, as being an example of a thing worth while doing for the boys. That to encourage such organizations was a step in the right direction.

The next meeting of the Men's club will be Monday night, at which time will be held the annual banquet of the club. Be sure and get on the list right, by paying your annual dues of $1.00.

"MADE IN ELGIN."

Commercial Club of Elgin Plans Unique Exhibition Boosting Local Businesses.

The Commercial club of Elgin has successfully planned to hold a "Made in Elgin Show" the last three days of next week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at the coliseum on Grove avenue, admission free. This show is for the benefit of enlightening the people of Elgin and the surrounding towns of the many manufacturing industries that are located in the city of Elgin. Each manufacturer has rented booth space and will exhibit their manufactured product, both finished and in the course of construction. There will be artistically decorated and all concerts will be played to good advantage. There will be a courteous entertainer in each booth representing the various manufacturers. Many of the exhibitors have planned to give souvenirs to visitors. There will also be a musical concert by Elgin's most famous orchestra, who will render the popular airs. The entire auditorium will display a beautiful electrical effect. This show has aroused complete enthusiasm among the citizens and residents of Elgin and surrounding towns and promises to be a great success. All visitors will find Elgin's hospitality warm and all completely off. Every man and woman should be interested in attending this show. You will find it educational and instructive, as well as entertaining. No admission will be charged. The plan is unique. The Elgin Commercial club and the manufacturers of Elgin deserve great credit for the enthusiasm they have created by their "Made in Elgin Show."

"ROBINS" NOT ROBINS.

Naturalist Declares That Birds Seen Hereabouts Resemble Our Robin.

It is said that the "robins" which have been seen in this part of the country are not robins at all. Let the naturalist tell it:

"Now it is just the time when the pine-grosbeak or pine-robin is driven by stress of winter from the Arctic or near Arctic forests, migrates south to this country. He is a little smaller than the robin. The head, neck, forepart of the breast and rump are bright red. The back is grayish or blackish brown and the lower parts are light gray.

"He easily personates the migratory thrush—our robin—but he has a much larger and stronger beak with which he shears off the frozen mountain ash and other berries of our parks and gardens, and I believe he masquerades as the finch-family annually."

Ela Company's Thriving Condition.

At the annual meeting of the Ela Township Mutual Fire Insurance company recently held at Lake Zurich the reports of the officers showed how that the company is in a thriving condition. Officers for the ensuing year were: William Schaede, president; Henry Berghorn; treasurer, L. C. Whitney; secretary, F. J. Berghorn; directors; Henry Steel, Louis Ernsting, C. C. Vogt, Fritz Boeger, John Eggers and J. F. Hollister. The officers of the company are also members of the board of directors.

Wants to Buy Horses.

Schmidt & Company, advertising themselves as a large southern concern of horse buyers, announce that they will be at Schaumburg brother's livery all day tomorrow for the purpose of dealing with any one having horses of any kind to sell. Their advertisement appears on page three.

Lamey & Company sell window glass in all sizes. They carry the most complete stock in town.

CLUBS AND LODGES.

Interesting News Concerning Barrington's Many Social Organizations.

The Thursday club met today at Miss Eva Castle's. Miss Castle gave a paper on the subject "The Women of Shakespeare."

The local Woman's Relief Corps and Grand Army of the Republic held joint installation services at their hall last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Carrie Kendall played all of the old war-time pieces for them to march by. H. H. Hubbard assisted by Comrade Rose of Chicago installed the officers of the G. A. R. Mrs. William Grunau installed the officers of the W. R. C. Refreshments were served and a pleasant afternoon passed by those who attended the meeting.

The Epworth league business meeting will be held next Tuesday, January 30, at the home of Miss Grace Freeman.

The Portia club meets Thursday evening, February first, at Mrs. Emil Meier's for social evening.

Men's Club Banquet.

The Men's club banquet for this year is to occur on February 22. This is Washington's birthday and yet the banquet will be in honor of Lincoln, whose birthday is the 12th of February. The reason for putting the banquet on the 22nd instead of the 12th is that this later date was taken for one of the numbers of the high school entertainment series. So they are planning for a repeating of last year's success and will be sufficiently interested to attend. The banquet will be open to gentlemen and ladies and the attendance will not be limited to the Men's club entirely, but will be open to all who want to come. Be sure and get on hand. The plates for the dinner will be fifty cents apiece and the number is attendance will be limited to one hundred on account of room. The time for the banquet will be 6:45 p. m.

The program for the evening will consist of music, vocal and instrumental, and brief addresses by persons to whom topics have been assigned and who have accepted. The program provides for some humor by a popular humorist, an original poem written for this occasion by the Barrington poet laureate, a recitation and an inspirational song with chorus for the whole company. It is the intention of the committees in charge to make the coming occasion equal in every way, if not superior, to any that has been had.

The printed program will soon be in the hands of club members so that they can see for themselves what they may expect.

Hartjen Claims Settled.

A final settlement with the creditors of George Hartjen a former resident of Cuba township was made at the Barrington bank Tuesday.

At a meeting of the creditors held September 11, 1911, Mr. Hartjen turned over all his personal property and real estate for a consideration of $1,000 to E. W. Riley, who was selected as the representative of the creditors. E. Keating of Huntley, W. B. Wagner of Cary and William Peters of this village were selected as a committee to confer with the trustee in the selling of the property. G. W. Stunner was chosen for attorney. The personal property was sold at auction and netted $37.15 and the village of Barrington, Hartjen and interest on mortgage on farm.

The farm containing 120 acres was sold to David Wilmer for $12,000, each making the total assets $12,037.21. After the payment of secured claims amounting to $6,275 there was left $5,164.21 to be distributed to unsecured creditors which gives them a dividend of about 86 per cent.

The creditors should have reason to be thankful to the committee and E. W. Riley as trustee for the careful handling and disposal of the property getting as they did every dollar that it was worth. The dividend was larger than was generally expected by the creditors.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers of real estate in this vicinity have been recorded recently:

Anna Meyer and husband et al to G. W. Spunner, 220 acres in sections 32, Fremont township and in section 5, Ela township, $16,000.

Mary E. Geddis to H. W. Drew wd., $4,810.00. Part W. ½, section 24, Cuba township.

Frederick J. Landwer to Rosie K. Fritz, lot 18, blk 3, Landwer's add., Barrington $100.

Elgin Butter Market.

The price of butter dropped to 27 cents a pound on the Elgin board of trade Monday. This is a decrease of three cents a pound.
