Church League to Resume Play After Two-Week Lay-Off

Earnie Anderson Is High Man With 42 Points and Capulli Second

Eagerly awaiting the signal to start firing at the basket again, the local church league cagers will resume play, Monday night, after a three-week lay-off because of the Town Warning meetings. In the first game Monday, Salem will clash with St. Anne while the wind-up will bring together the Baptist and St. Matthew quintets.

With the second round of play just begun, the Methodist team with a record of five wins and a single loss, looks like the team to beat for the league title. Right at Methodist's heels and with the best chance to upset the leaders are Salem with a standing of four victories and one defeat, and Baptist with three wins in five starts.

Earnie Anderson, Salem center, was the leading point scorer during the first round which ended recently. He made 45 points in the five games for an average of nine points a contest. Close behind him were Dave Capulli, St. Anne and Ralph Bierman, Salem, with 42 and 41 points respectively. Following are the 10 top point makers in the first round:

	FG	FT	Tot.
E. Anderson, Salem	18	9	45
Dave Capulli, St. Anne	16	10	42
R. Bierman, Salem	17	7	41
C. Conn, Methodist	15	6	36
O. Williams, Baptist	12	10	34
V. Klopfenstein, Meth.	14	4	32
K. Rice, Baptist	11	7	29
R. Wallace, Baptist	13	3	29
W. Wichman, St. M.	10	8	28
Sucky, St. Matthew	11	5	27

Five seniors were eligible for the semester honor roll at Ela township high school to lead the other classes, according to an announcement made by Principal J. L. Clements last week.

Following is the honor roll list: Herbert Gehrke, Spencer Loomis, Matda Bauer, Betty Bergen and Marion Schwerman, seniors; Justin Crawford, Virginia King and Marion Mohr, sophomores; Marion Keisler and Eleanor Gehrke, freshmen.

Girl Scout Notes

The scouts and leaders of troop 2 are all very pleased over the fact that Miss Virginia Cardwell will again return to the troop as one of its lieutenants. Miss Cardwell worked with the group last year. Scouts who are interested in horseback riding will be glad to learn that Miss Cardwell, who is one of the outstanding riders in Barrington, will instruct them in that sport this spring, making it possible for several girls to earn their "Horsewoman" badge.

Miss Jane Cummings, who is connected with the Children's theatre of the Chicago Junior League, will work with scouts this month who are seeking the "stagecraft" badge. Miss Cummings will also direct the play which many members of the troop of near Lake Zurich have planned for in the year.

Scouts who are not in the play will have a chance to work for their "winter sports" badge with Miss Bonnie Jean Clark. This includes learning the fundamental principles of both skating and skiing.

Jeanette Collins and Carol Gardner are working on the American Red Cross first aid course which is being given in the village two evenings a week. On completion of the course they will be presented with their "first aid" badges.
