BHS Broncho and Pony Cagers Defeat Ela Quints in Twin Bill Friday

Batavia Vikings Will Travel Here Saturday Night

Bronchos Nose Out 35-34 Win Over Ela; Ponies Take 29-18 Tilt

The Barrington Broncho and Pony basketball teams won their second twin bill of the conference schedule Friday night by trimming the Blue and White Ela cagers in two games, the Ponies getting off easily by a 29 to 18 score while the Bronchos were fortunate in winning their tilt by a 35 to 34 tally. Previously they had beaten Leyden in a twin bill.

Watson and Wilkins paced the heavyweights with the former getting six baskets while Wilkins got three baskets and six free throws. Schroeder was the sparkling cog the Ela offensive and counted for 13 of the 34 points. Knipe and H. Gleason counted for eight each.

The Bronchos will meet the Batavia Vikings, strong Little Seven conference quintet, here Saturday evening. Batavia is in third place in the conference of five river schools and prospects of a strongly-contested battle here Saturday are bright.

In the Pony game all the local boys saw action against the weakened Ela outfit. Illness, ineligibility and injuries had depleted Coach Rieck's squad of its leading scorers.

The score of the Pony game was tied at six-all at the end of the first quarter but in the second period the Blites could only get one points, a free throw by Schmeleles, and in the third quarter they only got two points, both on free throws by Jacobson and Harkness. In the meantime Barrington was collecting seven points in the second quarter and eight markers in the third, to lead 21 to 8. Ela outpointed the locals nine to eight in the final period for a score of 18 to 29.

Meiners led the Ponies with eight points. Harkness collected six points to lead the Ela squad.

The Bronchos took the scoring advantage early in their game with the Ela heavyweights and managed to keep it throughout, although they were hard-pressed in the final minutes to keep from being nosed out.

The score at the end of the first quarter was nine to seven in favor of Barrington and the BHS cagers kept it at 16 to 14 at the half. Ela lost part of its drive in the third quarter, partly due to the fact that Knipe left the game via the personal foul route. Barrington was leading 29 to 23 at the end of that period and Ela started a belated drive in the fourth that just fell short of a victory.

Basket by Grabenkort and Shepard managed to keep Barrington in the running during the final period. Both the above mentioned players got all the points during that period, Grabenkort getting two free throws in addition to make up a total of six points. Gleason, Anderson and Schroeder peppered the basket for Ela in a desperate effort to finish out in front. The Blites got 23 points in this period, falling short by one of getting a tie.

Methodists Regain Lead by Defeating Baptists Monday

St. Paul Furnishes Upset By Trounding Salem 22-12 Monday Night

Methodist's fast-traveling cagers once again took over undisputed first place in the local church basketball league by gaining a 35 to 23 decision over Baptist, Monday night, for their sixth victory of the season. This Methodist got ample revenge for its only defeat, administered earlier in the campaign by the same Baptist team.

It was St. Paul, however, who came through with the surprise of the evening, coupling a well-earned 22 to 12 triumph over Salem which knocked the losers out of first place. This defeat dropped Salem to the runner-up spot with five wins and two losses.

Baptist out-scored Methodist 19 to 15 in the first half but the eventual winners packed too much stuff in the next two periods making 26 points to their opponents four, to complete a decisive Methodist victory. Center Bricker of Methodist put on a one-man scoring show by sinking 10 of the eight baskets during the game.

In the other contest Salem had an 8 to 6 lead at the intermission but couldn't hold down the driving St. Paul men who dumped in 16 points to their opponents four in the second half. Anderson and Bierman, high scoring Salem players, were held to a single free throw apiece by the Paul.

Games for next Monday night bring together St. Paul vs. St. Anne in the first tilt and Methodist vs. St. Matthew in the wind-up game.
