Mrs. John H. Babb, East Hillside road, contributes two excellent pickle recipes this week. The cherry conserve recipe with fresh apple and apples was requested.

CHERRY DILL PICKLES

Select pickles of uniform size, scrub well with brush and cold water, drain and dry. Pack in jars, using 1 small piece of garlic and 1 bulb bottom and top of jar, and a pinch of powdered alum and sprig of dill to each jar. Fill to top with boiling hot solution as follows:

1 qt. cider vinegar.
2 qts. water.
1 cup salt.
Heat at once.

BREAD AND BUTTER PICKLES

Slice 24 large cucumbers and 12 large onions. Put in salt water for 3 hours, then drain. Bring to a boil 2 qts. white vinegar, 3 lb. white mustard seed, 2 lb. celery seed and 4 cups sugar, adding a small amount of turmeric to color. Add the sliced pickles and onions and cook gently for a few minutes until glossy. Pack in jars, fill to top with liquid and seal.

CHERRY CONSERVE

Put fresh pineapple through a food chopper and measure three cups. Add 2 cups finely diced apples and 4 qts. of pitted sour cherries. Mix with 8 cups of sugar. Let the mixture stand overnight, then cook over a hot fire until thick. Add ½ lb. chopped walnut meats and pour into hot sterilized jars. Seal. Nuts may be omitted if desired.

Avert Near-Drowning at Wauconda Friday

A near-drowning was averted at Bangs Lake in Wauconda Friday afternoon when volunteer firemen and a physician revived Adam Bittner Jr., 18 years old, of Church street and Railroad avenue, Morton Grove, after he had been under water for a short period.

Bittner had been swimming under water considerable of the time and his actions caused the attention of his companion, Chris Tulupan, 19, of 8126 Claremont avenue, Chicago, until Bittner's body was found floating unconscious.

Tulupan brought the body to shore and the volunteer crew was called. One of the respirator and adrenalin revived the youth, who was allowed to return home the same day.
