Announces Plans for Inter-Church Group

Plans were announced this week by the Rev. George F. Ellerbrake for the first meeting of persons interested in forming an adult inter-church drama group in Barrington. It was felt that the desire for some time of a number of people to form such a group which would both study and produce, while dramas. Rev. Ellerbrake stated.

The first meeting will be held next week Friday, Sept. 29, at 8 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ellerbrake, 232 E. Main street. All persons interested in hearing the plans which will be formulated have been invited to be present. No age limits are announced since interests in dramatic activities are common to people of all ages. If the organization of a drama group should result from this meeting it is expected that the membership will represent a rather wide age range: young people just out of high school, through the "middle years" and even into the "older years."

The meeting is called by Rev. Ellerbrake as a member of the drama committee of the Chicago Church Federation. He was also instrumental in the organization of the Cathedral Players of Thornton township who gave a performance of "The Tinker" at the Barrington school auditorium last January. The Cathedral Players are the first inter-denominational drama group to be formed under the auspices of the Chicago Church Federation.
