

Said Koss says  $\frac{7}{12}$  <sup>1959</sup> when he was in Schelle Westphalia Germany he found in the church records of that very small town that all your Logenschulte and Landwer families were from that very small town and there they were thought to be all related. The following families come from Schelle:

Landwer
Logenschulte
Bauman
1. Drenmelkamp
Elfring (du Au. Elfrink)
Meiners
Wilmes and Wilmers
Gieske
Sodt
Niemeier
Lichtarke (originally)
Reese (2 names)
Freife
Kbinger
(Clunge - au)
Brinker
Stoffe
Langenhein

From the town of Sonneborn in Tippe-det Wald or in near by Griessen, - Hanover came these families:

Reese	Graben Kort
Wienecke	Krop
Kampert	Hobain
Pieke	Bochmer
Homuth

On the east of the bridge on old Plum Grove Rd. So.
of Palatine on south end of Thies farm (Chai falls) we found a few cross stone markers. Some were broken and used as stepping stones across the creek to the west end of creek.

History of Palatine records these:
