AMERICAN LEGION

DEPARTMENT OF ILLINOIS

WHAT IS A VETERAN

HE'S A MAN who looks the world in the eye, and who feels an extra heartbeat when the Flag goes by. He's a man who steps a little faster when he hears a military band.

He comes from all assorted races, sizes and shapes,

He's big, small, short and tall.

He's the "DOUGHBOY" of World War 1, the "G.I." of World War 11, Korea and Vietnam.

He is a Sailor, Soldier, Flyer, and Marine.

He is Artillery, Infantry, Medic, Chemical Engineer, Armored, Ordnance, and Corpsman.

He is Republican, Democrat and Independent.

He is plumber, doctor, salesman, mechanic, farmer, banker.

He is catholic, protestant, jew. He is rich and poor and in-between.

He's a man who loves peace because he knows the cost of War.

He is a good citizen and a man who knows the price of freedom.

He knows that eternal vigilance and preparedness are necessary if freedom is to be preserved.

He likes the majesty of American mountains, the tranquility of America's valleys and the bustle of America's cities.

He is proud of his American heritage, alert to his American present and confident of his American future.

He likes the legends of America's great - the Washingtons, the Jeffersons, the Lincolns, the Roosevelts, the Trumans, the Robert E. Lees, the Stonewall Jacksons, the Pattons, the Esinhowers, the Mac Arthurs, and all the proud patriots who have marched through America's history books.

He has bivouaced at Valley Forge, charged the hills at Gettysberg, faced the fire at San Juan Hill, stormed the sands at Guadalcanal, sloughed through the Marne, swarmed ashore at Omaha Beach, waded in the cold mud of Korea and the steamy jungles of Vietnam.

In the very rear of his secret heart there is always a tinge of sorrow, a souvenir of sadness for lost and departed comrades.

He's the first class fighting man, a citizen and a member of history's most exclusive fraternity.

Aiding him in his duties as a fighting man are the Waves, the Wacs, the Lady Marines, and those Angels of Mercy, the Nurses. God Bless them. They too are Veterans.
