

16 January 1969

Grace Circle met with Rebecca Circle and a film was shown by Revs. Olson and Baumeister on 'The Church in the World', after which a discussion was led by the ministers.

The two Circles then separated for their business meetings.

Our treasurer reported that $70.20 had been turned over to WSCS toward our pledge.

Our Circle is to hostess the March meeting of WSCS to which the Woman's Society of Salem church has been invited.

The program for our March meeting will be given by Dottie Blickle and Pat Rockwood will take the May meeting.

Devotions will be led by Dottie Blickle in April.

Following devotions, led by Phyllis Truehauf, the meeting adjourned.

20 February 1969

Grace Circle met at the church, with our new chairman, Pat Rockwood, presiding.

Devotions were led by Phyllis Truehauf during which we presented our gifts representing the week of self denial. Assisting in this program were Jean Obenhouse and Dotty Blickle.

The business meeting followed. Dottie Blickle, who is in charge of the April program, said we will visit the Countryside School for Retarded Children, meeting at the church as usual at 9:30 and going from there.

A petition was passed around ^{for signature} urging the Barrington Village Board to protest the IBM installation at Libertyville.

Phyllis Truehauf asked for volunteers to assist her in the program for the April meeting of WSCS, which is to be held on Maundy Thurs.

A motion passed that we would give our Sunshine Fund collection of the morning to the ~~Blanket Fund~~ Church World Service blanket fund.

Plans were made for the March luncheon of WSCS at which our circle will serve and the women of the Salem church will be guests, after which the meeting adjourned.

17 April 1969

Twelve members of Circle 9 met at the church and went from there to visit the Countryside School for the Handicapped. At noon we met at the home of Jean Obenhouse where we had lunch and played bridge during the afternoon. A very short business meeting was conducted by Chairman Pat Rockwood following lunch. Each of us was assigned a group of church members to call to remind them of the rummage sale. There was no treasurer's report.

The joint meeting of the Rebecca and Grace Circles was called to order on November 20, 1969 by Mrs. Rieke. Rev. Baumeister spoke on the problems of youth, stressing the need to keep the lines of communication open. An interesting and informative discussion followed.

At the conclusion of the program, the circles separated to hold their respective business meetings. Before Mrs. Rieke introduced the business meeting, Mrs. Freehauf gave our devotions which was a pledge service. The following announcements were made:

The Lake Bluff Christmas Branch will be held on Dec.

8th at the Oak Park Meth. Church.

The Elgin Christmas party will also be held on Dec. 8th and additional presents are needed.

The Macey-Newberry Bazaar will be on Dec. 12th and Mrs. Nelson asks that all gifts be at the church by the 9th for wrapping.

We were reminded that our December circle meeting will be held at Mrs. Wagners on Dec. 11th and a cookie exchange has been suggested.

The following members were present:

Mrs. Zapp

Mrs. Borne

Mrs. Barnes

Mrs. Fruehauf

Mrs. Rockwood

Mrs. Rieke

Mrs. Rieke was the hostess.

Respectfully submitted,
