President—F. E. Hawley 96.
Village Trustees—John Hatje, 91; John Collen, 96, Wm. Grunau, 94.

Village Clerk—Miles T. Lamey, 97 votes.

BARRINGTON CENTER.
Rather lengthy April showers we're having.

O. D. Richardson of Elgin was a pleasant caller on Sunday.

Mrs. Tom Kee and children of Elgin are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Miller this week.

Lost—Between the M. E. Church and Mayor Grote's place, a piece of land about five feet square; right in the road, appears to have gone down. Where are our road commissioners? This place is dangerous and should be attended to.

Miss Nora Houghteling of Barrington, visited friends here last week.

Miss Anna Tinker of Elgin spent Saturday and Sunday with her cousins, Misses Laura and Addie Church.

Died—At her home in DeSuet, Dakota, Mrs. Chas. Dunklee, on Friday, April 13th. She was an old resident of this place, removing to Dakota about eight years ago.

JEWEL.
SPRING LAKE.

W. H. Heath visited Elgin Monday. Spring Lake was well represented at Algonquin last Friday and Saturday evening in attending the Godfrey Theatrical troupe, and all came away very much pleased. May they come again.

The Modern Woodmen of this section turned out en masse Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Helm of Algonquin.

Messrs. J. and A. Deworak attended the Woodmen's meeting in Dundee Monday evening.

If Way Back was the young man that drives that bobtailed horse he would put some rubbers on our axles so the wheels would not make so much noise, or else we would go home before everybody went to bed. Take our advice, Fred, and fix your wagon.

What is the matter with Spring Lake when there are three young gentlemen to one young lady? We started out last Sunday afternoon to find a young lady to go to church with us in the evening, but they were scarcer than hens teeth, so we had to take up with a gentleman in the same boat as ourselves. Girls, we never thought it was so hard to make a mash. [Buy one of Herman Swemm's elegant new road wagons, Way Back, and you will have three girls to one fellow. He sells them at $35 and $38. Go and see them.—Ed.]

Clayt, Anton says he has a good recipe to make that mustache grow. You had better try it.

Forn Bros. delivered a fine Holstein bull to Algonquin parties Tuesday.

Farmers have very nearly completed sowing their small grain.

School meeting Saturday evening should be well attended as it is quite a serious question to keep up our school to its present high standard.

Dame rumor has it that there was to have been a surprise party in the neighborhood last Wednesday, but the rain kept the young folks at home.

A reception was tendered the new members of the Epworth League last Monday evening. The parlors of the M. E. Church presented a cheerful scene about 8 o'clock, when President E. W. Ward called the happy assemblage to order and an entertaining programme was rendered.

The quartette, consisting of Mrs. H. T. Pixley, Mrs. Hartman and Mr. Fred Lines and Mr. Hiser, sang some choice selections. The solos by Mrs. Pixley, Miss Carrie E. Kingsley and Mrs. Hartman deserved the applause that followed. Miss Alvina Myers read a splendid selection entitled "Patsy," which was listened to with keen interest. After a few remarks by Rev. Mr. Ward the meeting was turned into a social. The officers of the society exerted themselves to make everybody feel at home, and they succeeded, too.

Reed will not sue Crisp for an infringement of his patent.

Station is the name of a street that runs by the News office. The mud never is cleaned up.

If Breckinridge don't get back into Congress he need not be idle. There are half a dozen dime museums in Chicago that will hire him.

Speaker Crisp with good fixed rules can take life easy, go a fishing, and be happy. He has lost a great deal of time and much wind by not surrendering earlier.

The New York World says editorially: "Senator Hill owns Governor Flower." But the World did not assert that President Cleveland owned Senator Hill. What a happy party it is, anyway!

The quickest way to reach a vote in Congress would be to make a rule compelling every Senator or Congressman to be in his place and listen to every speech of a regular "eight-hour" day's work.

Gov. Tillman's dispensary law in South Carolina has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. The law has caused several riots between state constables and citizens, at which blood has flowed.

Gov. Waite's appointees in Denver, Colo., took possession of their respective offices, all the old members of the police and fire boards giving in to the governor and turning over their offices peacefully. This ends the trouble in Colorado.

The mysterious South Bend, Ind., postoffice robberies have at last been solved. Letter Carrier Boone has confessed to them. He would burn up the money orders. His peculations amounts way up in the thousands.

In John Jacob Astor's new novel he rides a comet, tells of his great sport on Jupiter, and performs all kinds of odd antics, but in New York he doesn't offer to move that new stable he is building close to a church and among fine residences near by. John Jacob seems to think New Yorkers should be proud of the fumes of an Astor stable.

The war in Brazil is ended, the European war scare has fizzled out and the Breckinridge-Pollard case is ended, and the newspapers of Chicago seem to be "short" on sensation. Last Saturday they devoted two pages to "Is Altgelt Dying?" Of course. Every day that passes brings him a day nearer to life's journey. He is as much human as the editor of the Herald or Inter-Ocean.

ILLINOIS CONFERENCE OF THE EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

NAPERVILLE, Ill., April 12.—[Special Correspondence for the Barrington News.]—The Illinois Conference of the Evangelical Association met in the Zion Church at Naperville to-day to hold their 50th annual session.

At 9 a. m. Bishop Wm. Horn of Cleveland, Ohio, opened the meeting with the usual devotional exercises, after which he delivered a very able and timely address to Conference. Bishop J. J. Esher of Chicago being present was also called on by the chairman to speak. He spoke very touchingly concerning his connection with this Conference from the very beginning, he having been the first applicant at the first session of this Conference for license.

After the usual examination of the ministers the standing committees were appointed. Seven young men were licensed to preach, and to seven of the brethren deacon orders were voted.

The election and stationing of the Presiding Elders resulted as follows: Wm. Schmus, Chicago District; Wm. Neitz, Freeport-Mendota District; J. Wellaur, Peoria District, and Wm. Goessele, Naperville District.

After a masterly address by Rev. T. C. Meckel on the subject of mission the session of the first day adjourned.

Among the visiting ministers present were: Rev. S. P. Spreng, editor of the Evangelical Messenger; Rev. C. A. Thomas, publishing agent; Rev. T. C. Meckel, corresponding secretary of the Missionary Society; Rev. J. G. Lamb, presiding elder of Cleveland District, Ohio Conference; all of Cleveland, Ohio.

FRIDAY.

The meeting was opened with devotional exercises. It was decided that the annual Conference shall be held on the second Thursday in April, 1895, in the Sheffield Avenue Church, Chicago.

W. B. Billing, P. C. Koch and F. Beucher, were voted the orders of Elder.

Rev. C. A. Thomas of Cleveland, Ohio, addressed Conference in the interest of our publishing house. The afternoon was mostly spent in receiving committee reports.

Rev. S. P. Spreng preached in the evening in the German language to a large congregation. Text: St. Matth. 5:8.

SATURDAY.

After the usual devotional exercises the report of committees was again resumed, which took up the entire forenoon. The Conference appropriations were about $8000.

The Conference finances are upon good basis, and the ministers have been well paid. Bishop J. J. Esher is again present and gives valuable information and advice.

Rev. S. P. Spreng, editor of the Evangelische Messenger, addressed Conference in a very eloquent manner in behalf of the paper which he edits.

A banquet was given in the evening to the members of Conference and visiting friends in the College under the auspices of the Young People's Alliance. A special train was run from Chicago which brought nearly 200 people, among whom were notably the choirs of the Noble St. and Twelfth St. churches of Chicago. Both added greatly to the success of the evenings programme. The orators of the evening were Bishop Wm. Horn, Rev. H. A. Kramer, Rev. C. A. Thomas and Mr. J. J. Arnold of the First National Bank of Chicago. The College Quartette rendered two very fine selections.

SUNDAY.

Sunday being a beautiful day the people from near and far wended their way to Naperville. The church was filled to its utmost capacity. An overflow meeting was held in the College chapel, which was also well filled. Rev. S. P. Spreng breaking the bread of life. The Bishop preached in the power of the Spirit, taking for his text St. Matth. 28:18-20. In the afternoon the ordination service was held. Ten brethren were ordained. This service was followed by a missionary meeting led by Bishop Esher, at which $26.83 was secured. Communion services were held in the evening, in which 293 participated.

MONDAY.

Conference opened by devotional exercises at 8.30 o'clock by Bishop Horn. Committees reported and the reports were adopted after their consideration.

It was resolved to organize a national fire insurance association for the churches and parsonages. The following were elected as a Board of Directors for three years: Revs. J. C. Kiest, Wm. Goessele, W. Schmus, Geo. Husser, G. C. Knobel, W. H. Messerschmitt, H. Hintze.

Rev. J. B. Elfrink was re-elected Conference treasurer for the ensuing year.

CUCBA STATION

Spring is here at last. The dance at Cary was well attended from Cuba. They report having a good time. How is fishing boys? Mrs. E. Riley made a business call on Mrs. C. Kraus. We had the pleasure of seeing J. Donlea pass through Cuba, on a freight train Wednesday. We are glad to hear that Bertha Langenham will soon be able to resume her labor again. Mr. Kraus made a business trip to Chicago Monday. Time to plant potatoes. Bob, what is the matter with your girl? Mrs. Meyer made Mrs. C. Kraus a call Wednesday. Four very rough boys made a great disturbance in the town of Cuba a short time ago. They went to E. Riley's and kept the family up until after 12 o'clock. The clothes they had on were a trifle too large. Nice looking boys, don't you think so Bob? Look out for a wedding in the near future. What's the matter with Cooney? Are you dried up? Or did you scrub the saloon with beer. Muggins.
