Electric Lighting Company's Proposition to Pump Water to Come up at Next Regular Meeting.

WANT FREE WATER AND TAXES.

If Village Would Rebate Municipal Taxes and Furnish Water Free for a Term of Years, Representative of Syndicate Thinks Barrington will Get a Starch Factory.

The attendance at the adjourned meeting of the Village Board held on Monday evening was unusually large and great interest was manifested in the probability of the contract being let to the Barrington Electric Lighting company for the pumping of the water for the use of the village.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by President Boehmer and all members were present, with the exception of Trustee Willmarth.

The first order of business was the report of the Citizens' committee appointed at the previous meeting to investigate the proposition of the Electric Light company for the pumping of the water, which was as follows:

"Your committee respectfully report and recommend that they find it to the best interest of the Village that a contract be made with the Barrington Electric Co. to pump the supply of water for this Village for a term of years at the rate of $75 per month for a maximum volume of water up to 18,000,000 gallons per year and at a rate of 5 cents per 1,000 gallons above such maximum amount; provided, the Village does not have to employ an extra man to supervise the water system. They further recommend that the Electric Light Co. be permitted to occupy the unused portion of the engine and boiler rooms in the basement of the Village hall for the purpose of placing their motor and pump or pumps and connecting with the present supply pipes and well pipes by suitable valve connections to be so arranged that the pumps of the Village can be so connected by reversing the valve connections. Respectfully submitted, B. H. Sadt, chairman; M. C. McIntosh, secretary of the committee."

President Boehmer invited discussion of the Board and citizens present on the report of the committee. Trustee Richardson desired to know who the Barrington Electric company is. In answer to this A. L. Robertson, representing the Electric Light company, stated that the company was composed of John Robertson, John C. Plagge, Henry Boehmer and himself. Trustee Peck thought that it would be better for the Village to pay for the water by meter rate. The Electric Light company made the price for pumping in this way as follows: Any amount up to 30,000 gallons daily 7½ cents per 1,000 gallons; 40,000 gallons, 6½ cents; 50,000 gallons, 6 cents and for any amount over that, 5 cents per 1,000 gallons. After some discussion the matter was disposed of by motion of Trustee Peck, which was seconded by Trustee Richardson, to defer action on the report of the committee until the next regular meeting of the Board. Motion carried.

President Boehmer stated that Mr. Miller desired to address the Board in reference to a starch factory, the promoters of which are seeking a location. Mr. Miller made a few remarks showing the advantage of the location of such a factory to the citizens of Barrington. He said that the officials of the Chicago & North-Western R'y. requested him to see what inducements would be extended by the people of Barrington. He thought that if we would rebate all municipal taxes for a term of years and furnish them with water necessary for the running of the plant that they possibly could be induced to locate here. The syndicate which he represents would gladly grant them, without doubt, such other concessions as would be necessary to get them to locate on their property within this village. The factory would employ 200 hands at the start and would certainly be a great benefit to the business interests of Barrington. A committee of seven citizens was appointed by the president to cooperate with Mr. Miller in making an effort to secure the location of the factory here. The following are the persons to comprise the committee: H. K. Brockway, C. F. Meyer, Dr. C. H. Kendall, L. F. Schroeder, G. H. Comstock, George Wagner, P. A. Hawley. There being no further business, the Board adjourned on motion of Trustee Peters.

G. A. R. Entertainment.

The historical entertainment given under the auspices of Barrington Post No. 275, G. A. R., at the M. E. church Wednesday evening proved to be a grand success. The edifice was filled to the doors and many were turned away. The entertainment was presented by the children of the public school and consisted of songs, marches and drills, representing the various historical events and showing the marvelous growth of our country.

The curtain arose at 7:30 o'clock and the first scene showed the thirteen original colonies. Six Indians represented the Red race, six Puritans representing our forefathers and four Negroes in bondage representing slavery. After a few appropriate songs the other states of the Union entered the play in their order of admission as states in the Union. Later on the Southern states seceded, separating themselves from the loyal states. Between the seceding and loyal states, five Confederate and five Union soldiers marched in and took their positions, representing the North and the South. After appropriate songs for that period the seceding states came back in the Union. Four marines brought in our late required possessions—Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines. During this part Miss Gladys Lines sang "The Battleship Maine" in a very sweet manner which was very creditable.

The tableaux representing the Union at the present time was fine. The songs by Misses Alma and Mae Strickfaden and Misses Alta Powers and Nelta Strickfaden are deserving of special mention. The Negro quartet, composed of Misses Esther Kampert and Lydia Sadt and Herbert Plagge and Ben Schroeder made a hit. After this part of the program Mr. Miller showed several moving pictures which were well received.

Much credit for the success of the entertainment is due to Sanford Peck, Mr. Miller and the teachers of the public school who drilled the children. The proceeds of the evening amounted to $45.

The historical part of the program was presented at the M. E. church again last evening for the benefit of the school library. The balance of the program was changed somewhat, the moving pictures being left out and many new features were added.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger of la grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all dangers will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. S. Olms, Palatine; A. L. Waller, Barrington.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of Seip & Bollenbach has this (February 4, 1899) day dissolved partnership by mutual consent, Gustav Bollenbach retiring from the firm. The business will hereafter be conducted by H. Seip at the old stand. All parties owing the firm will please settle at once.

For LaGrippe.

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash Ave., corner Jackson St., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by A. S. Olms, Palatine; A. L. Waller, Barrington.

WEDDING BELLS.

Kampert-Peterson.

Miss Emma Kampert and Mr. Chas. O. Peterson of Arlington Heights were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Salem church by Rev. A. Strickfaden Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The groom is a fine young man and his friends are numerous. He is in business for himself at Arlington Heights. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Hannah Kampert and is a refined lady with many excellent traits of character and a long list of friends.

After the ceremony had been performed the newly married couple repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, where an elaborate wedding dinner was served. All the good things that the culinary art could produce were placed before the guests.

The young couple left on the 5 o'clock train for Arlington Heights, where the groom already has their new home in readiness.

Landwer-Schaefer.

Miss Martha Landwer and Mr. Charles Schaefer were married at the home of Rev. A. Strickfaden, pastor of the Salem church, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Landwer, and is a young lady of winning personality. She is much admired by a large circle of friends. Mr. Schaefer is a gentleman well and favorably known, being manly and honorable in all his dealings.

After the nuptial vows had been exchanged the contracting parties repaired to the home of the groom's parents, who reside near here, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Only immediate relatives were present.

The young couple started on a wedding trip to Iowa. On their return they will reside in Barrington.

Martha Washington Social.

The Thursday club gave a Martha Washington social at the home of Mrs. Thomas Dolan Thursday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flags, potted plants and cut flowers. A short program consisting of vocal and instrumental music was rendered. Mrs. Wm. Howarth read a very interesting paper on "Early Colonial Times." A presidential contest was one of the features of the afternoon's entertainment. The prizes were won by Mrs. A. E. Hawley and Mrs. James Sizer. A colonial tea was served on small tables in the parlors, which was heartily enjoyed. The ladies were dressed in costumes appropriate to the occasion and Mrs. C. F. Meyer represented Lady Washington.

Each one present was given a pretty hatchet as a souvenir. The affair was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Those present were:

Nearly Everybody Knows

That a poor harness is dear at any price. My business is strictly confined to the manufacturing of Harnesses and the sale of Horse Goods. My constant attention given in the handling of Leather Goods for a number of years has some significance in the selection of materials. You couldn't expect a man who has spent most of his life in a grocery store to be as good a judge of steel as a blacksmith, who has made a life study of that particular material.

I select personally all Leather used and the manufacturing of it into Harnesses is done by me or under my direction. I make Harnesses at as low a price as anyone.

FRANCE IS GREATLY EXCITED

The Death of President Faure Creates All Sorts of Rumors in Our Sister Republic.

Emile Loubet has been elected president of the French republic to succeed Faure, he having received 480 votes. The result was forecast by leaders of both parties, inasmuch as the republicans had a good majority and were united on their president of the senate.

New York, Special.—Now that the first emotion and surprise caused by the sudden death of Felix Faure have passed away, there is, contrary to all expectation, not the slightest trace of agitation or of political excitement on the part of the public, says a Paris dispatch to the Tribune. Even the sadness that characterized the crowds at the news of the death of President Carnot is absent. The apparent indifference of Parisians at the loss of the president of the French republic strikes many close observers with amazement and is interpreted by the Bonapartists and the royalists as an indication that the people are tired of a republic and would welcome a change in the regime.

Such is the view most emphatically expressed by Paul de Cassagnac, who in a conversation in the lobby of the chamber of deputies remarked to the Tribune's correspondent: "The unseemly haste of the republicans to elect a new president is a sure sign of the apprehensions caused by the attitude of the people toward pretenders. The demonstration that has nightly been taking place at the Nouveau theater in the patriotic drama 'Roi de Rome,' may soon be transferred to the streets of Paris. A plebiscite would prove that the French people and the French army are united and true to Napoleonic traditions."

When asked whether he considered the moment ripe for Prince Victor to act and place himself at the head of his followers, M. Cassagnac replied: "That is more than I can say, at all events, until we know whom the republicans will choose for their president."

Particulars of Faure's Death.

The president expired in the Elysee and had only been seriously ill for three hours. When the end came M. Faure was surrounded by the members of his family, his secretaries and Premier Dupuy.

The news spread like wildfire, causing intense commotion on the boulevards. If there is a coup d'etat providence seems to have arranged the opportunity. That was the opinion on every lip, and little short of a miracle can prevent the contingency being utilized by the enemies of the republic.

Within ninety minutes after the announcement of President Faure's death the bulk of the prominent military of-cers of Paris, including Gen. Zurlinden, the military governor, had gathered at the Cercle Militaire in the Avenue de l'Opera, where the utmost excitement prevailed, and active consultations between military chiefs immediately began.

The generals were evidently convinced their hour had come and were preparing to take timely measures to protect their interests. Belief on the boulevards is that Prince Louis Napoleon has the best chance among the pretenders, the only unfavorable circumstance being the 112 hours it will take him to reach the frontier, whereas the duke of Orleans, who is in Italy, could reach Modane in a day and so be on hand to enter France at the first signal from his supporters.

The anti-Dreyfusites are jubilant at Faure's death, which they regard as a supernatural interposition in their favor. The revisionists are correspondingly depressed.

GENERAL ZURLINDEN: CAN HE MAKE A COUP D'ETAT?

Under the present exceptionally exciting conditions anything may be expected to happen. Much depends upon what Gen. Zurlinden, military governor of Paris, as head of the military element, may decide to do.

By a curious coincidence M. Dupuy occupied the same position which he held when President Carnot was assassinated on June 24, 1894.

Besides the public buildings many private houses display flags at half-mast.

Emperor William of Germany has telegraphed his condolences with Mme. Faure and has directed the German ambassador here, Count von Munster-Lodenburg, to place a wreath on the president's coffin and to announce that his majesty is sending a special mission to represent him at the funeral.

Just Before Death.

The president was working with M. le Gall, chef de cabinet, when, about 5 o'clock, he complained that he felt ill. He did not attach much importance to it, and went out for an hour's drive, hoping the indisposition would pass off. Instead, it became worse, and on his return to the Elysee M. le Gall noticed a marked and alarming change in his face. He was evidently very ill, and M. le Gall had to give him his arm to lead him to a sofa.

Mme. Faure was immediately informed. The president was taken to his room and messengers were hastily sent to fetch the nearest physician. It was not long until Dr. Launelongue and Dr. Potin arrived, but after a very brief examination they declared that there was nothing to be done.

There had been a rush of blood to the brain and the president was past human aid.

The cure of the Madeleine was summoned to administer the last sacraments, but the messenger failed to find him, and a young priest passing along the Faubourg St. Honore was called in to administer extreme unction.

The president became insensible and remained unconscious for at least an hour before death. At 10:10 all was over.

Frederic Coudert's Tribute.

New York, Special.—Frederick R. Coudert, recognized as the head of the French element in America, when told of the death of President Faure, was visibly affected by the news. Recovering himself with an effort, he said: "Nothing more unfortunate for France could have happened at this juncture. This sad catastrophe plunges the French nation into chaos. The crisis is acute and imminent. Indeed, were the military party headed by Gen. Boulanger at the present moment there would, I believe, be a revolution in progress at the present minute. Happily for France, there is no military idol with influence enough to lead such a movement."

Pope Deeply Impressed.

Rome, Cable.—Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary, communicated the death of President Faure to the pope. The pontiff, who was deeply impressed, said: "Poor France suffers one misfortune after another. What terrible consequences may follow." The pope celebrated mass for the repose of the soul of the late President Faure.

An Honest Senator.

"I met a man a short time ago who says you paid him for his vote." "Well, sir," answered Senator Sorghum, drawing himself up, "I should defy him to say otherwise. There is no man who dares insinuate that I attempted to cheat him out of his money under those circumstances."—Washington Star.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

Week's Proceedings in the House and Senate.

TO PAY SPAIN THE $20,000,000.

Mr. Cannon, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, introduces the Measure—Nicaraguan Canal Project Wins a Victory in the Senate.

Thursday, Feb. 16.

In the house Mr. Hepburn of Iowa, the champion of the Nicaragua canal bill, moved to recommit it with instructions to report it back with the canal bill incorporated in it. The motion was declared out of order by the speaker, whereupon Mr. Hepburn appealed, and Mr. Payne of New York moved to lay the appeal on the table. Upon the latter motion the vote was taken, and the result was 97 yeas and 67 nays.

The army reorganization bill was reported to the senate. The personnel bill was taken up, but no effort made to proceed with its consideration. The military appropriation bill was under consideration during the greater part of the afternoon, but was not disposed of, finally.

Friday, Feb. 17.

In the house Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriations, introduced a bill to make the appropriation of $20,000,000 needed to carry out the treaty of peace with Spain which was ruled out of the sundry civil appropriation bill Thursday. Mr. Maxwell introduced a bill empowering the president to negotiate a treaty with Nicaragua and Costa Rica for the purpose of constructing a canal across the isthmus of Nicaragua, and $500,000 is placed at his disposal for the purpose of negotiating the treaty. The sundry civil bill was passed without division.

The Nicaragua canal project achieved a victory in the senate in having the Hepburn bill added to the river and harbor bill by the senate committee on commerce. Senator Burpee from the committee on education and labor reported the eight-hour bill without recommendation.

Saturday, Feb. 18.

In the senate the postoffice appropriation bill was taken up. The bill was amended by extending the franking privilege as now fixed by law to the Hawaiian islands. The discussion of various unimportant amendments occupied the time of the senate, till 4 o'clock, when the bill went over till Monday. Before resuming consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill the senate passed several minor measures.

After a number of private bills had been disposed of by unanimous consent the house, in committee of the whole, proceeded with the consideration of the naval appropriation bill. The discussion was not concluded when, at 2 o'clock, business was suspended and the house listened to eulogies upon the late Stephen A. Northway, a representative from the nineteenth district of Ohio.

Monday, Feb. 20.

The bill appropriating $20,000,000 to carry out the terms of the treaty of peace with Spain passed the house by a vote of 215 to 34. The negative vote was cast by thirty-one democrats, two populists and one silverite. The senate bill, with amendments, was passed, authorizing a settlement of the claim by states for expenditures in enlisting and equipping soldiers in the war with Spain.

The postoffice appropriation bill was under discussion in the senate. Agreement was reached to vote on the bill and amendments at 2 o'clock next day. The army bill was made the unfinished business. This action disposed finally of the anti-scalping bill of the present session.

NATION GETS $123,000,000.

Results of Agreement on Pacific Railroad Obligations.

An agreement entered into between the government and the railroad assures beyond the slightest doubt the full payment of the debt of the Central Pacific and the Western Pacific railroads, aggregating $58,812,715.48. The treasury will immediately receive about $12,000,000 by the sale of the first four notes maturing under this agreement.

Honor for Gen. Bragg.

Veterans of the civil war in Wisconsin and neighboring states and prominent citizens, lawyers and statesmen all over the Union united in extending congratulations to Gen. Edward Stuyvesant Bragg on the seventy-second anniversary of the "little general's" natal day.

The Rebate Is Invalid.

The United States Supreme court held invalid that section of the Wilson tariff act providing for paying manufacturers a rebate of the tax on alcohol used in arts and manufactures.

Mrs. Zachariah Chandler Dead.

Mrs. Zachariah Chandler, widow of the famous Michigan statesman, died at Detroit.

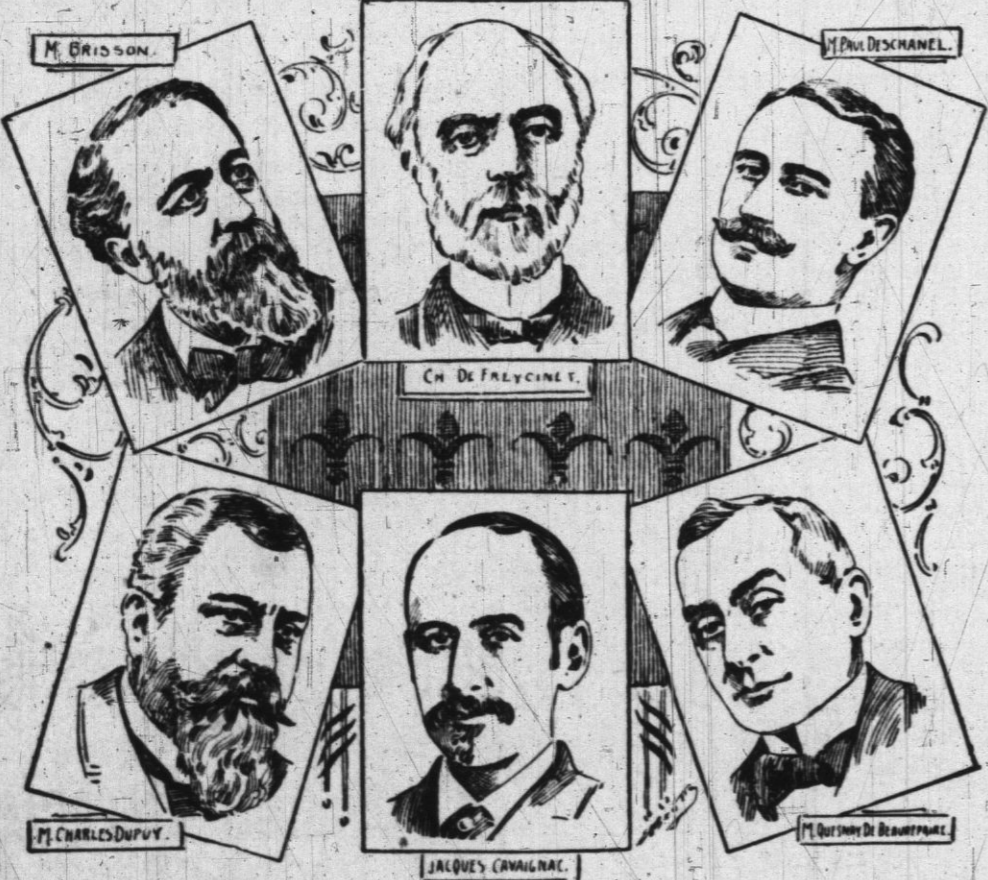

JANE B. CREIGHTON, FOUNDER OF THE WHITE CROSS.

Mrs. Jane B. Creighton, the founder and president of the White Cross Association, is one of the leading women of Portland, Ore., and one of the most charming and philanthropic spirits on the coast. Her purpose in organizing the White Cross was to send nurses to the Philippine Islands on the same plan as that used by the Red Cross. The new organization is national and has been recently given official recognition by the government. Besides looking out for the soldiers in the islands the ladies of the White Cross will care for the families of the sick or wounded heroes at home. This is an added function to those of the Red Cross. The new organization will ultimately unite in one grand society the order of the Knights of Pythias, the Masons, Oddfellows, labor unions and Woodmen, the Federal unions and the Elks. Mrs. Creighton has associated with her in the attempt to realize this tremendous good work, Mrs. Nelson A. Miles, Mrs. Dickinson, wife of Commander Dickinson; Miss Middleton, daughter of the commodore, and several ladies and gentlemen connected directly or indirectly with the government. A training school will soon be established at Washington and the White Cross bids fair to rival its famous prototype. Its badge is a small white cross set in a red field, bordered by a circle of blue.

FRENCHMEN MADE CONSPICUOUS BY THE PRESENT CRISIS.

M. de Freycinet ordered the troops confined to barracks. The Figaro attributes the death of M. Faure to a sudden violent attack of angina pectoris.

All the sovereigns have sent condolences on the death of President Faure.
