Rev. Martin Holz was installed pastor of the Plum Grove German Evangelical church last Sunday. Revs. Hattendorf and J. C. Hoffmeister installed him and the St. Paul's church choir sang. After the ceremonies a public reception was held at the parsonage and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Robertson avenue in the subdivision has been curbed on both sides from Plum Grove avenue west to Peter Knowe's place. The street is being nicely graveled and it will make one of the nicest spots in Palatine when completed. Peter Knowe furnished the labor for constructing the curbing and the property owners furnished the material.

Wm. Grunau of Barrington has been in town the past week writing up policies for the Old Reliable Woodmen Accident Insurance Co. He did considerable business while here, although the company is practically unknown to our people. Arlington Heights is his field for next week. Mr. Grunau has written a large number of policies and the people of Barrington, some of whom have been in it for years, know that the company is as strong as any doing business in the United States.

Palatine is likely to lose its school tax from the Chicago & Northwestern railway. It seems that this company has objected in court to the tax on the grounds that no record of authority to the president and secretary to levy such tax is shown on the secretary's books. This is true, but the board did authorize the levy and, of course, the president and secretary were the proper persons to levy same. Many other towns are defendants in suits of the same kind and this corporation will save a big amount thereby. We doubt if the railroad company will come out ahead in the long run. It is very easy for villages to order the company to place flagman at crossings, which is a big expense to the company.

Barrington's Suburb.

Chicago Highlands is the name by which the new village located north of this place will be known. It is being promoted by a syndicate of Eastern capitalists who propose to make it a manufacturing center. At least that inducement is held out to prospective purchasers of corner lots, blocks, etc. On blue prints the new village makes a good appearance and the factory buildings are quite extensive. There will be all the metropolitan advantages, if plans are carried out. Streets are being graded and a railway station located at what is known as Buck's crossing. It is said that building operations will be carried forward in the near future. The south boundary line of the proposed village touches Barrington near the junction of the C. & N. W. and E. J. & E. railways, and facilities for shipping will be as good as could be secured anywhere on the greater Outer Belt Line of Chicago. The location is a beautiful one, every acre of the 1500 comprising the site being choice for residence purposes.

will be received for a remedy that is equal to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. For particulars ask Chas. E. Churchill.

Barrington With the Opposition.

The delegation of our citizens selected to attend the meeting of anti-annexationists held at Chicago last Saturday, made their report at a meeting held in the village hall Monday evening. Henry Boehmer called the assembly to order and Frank Robertson, a member of the committee, read a report of the proceedings of the conference held at Chicago. The following are the main paragraphs of the report:

Your committee was recognized and participated in the work of the association. Twenty-three townships were represented by delegates and many citizens not delegates were in attendance. A constitution was adopted which provides that the object of the organization shall be to defend home government, and use all honorable means to defeat any legislation which may have for its object the abolition of town or home governments in the townships in Cook county outside the present limits of the city of Chicago; to promote such legislation and other ways and means to maintain the present townships as organized and defeat any encroachment by the city of Chicago.

Each town by its delegates represented concurred in the motion to pay pro rata any expense incurred in carrying forward the work of opposition to a Greater Chicago. Barrington was given prominence by the election of Dr. C. H. Kendall as first vice-president.

The Civic Federation, the organization behind the Greater Chicago movement, was represented and its delegates heard by the conference. They asked that the township association appoint a committee to confer with them and the executive committee was empowered to act for the association.

Permanent organization was completed by the election of the following officers, to serve one year: President, W. C. Thieman of Wheeling. First Vice-president, C. H. Kendall of Barrington. Second vice-president, E. F. Wilson of Worth. Third vice-president, August Steiner of Thornton. Secretary, J. C. Ahrensfield of Maine. Treasurer, F. H. Joss, Leyden. Executive committee—H. S. Maynard of Northfield; F. J. Griefell, Proviso; C. H. Patten, Palatine; W. J. McEl-downey, Bloom; E. S. Taylor, Evanston. The next meeting of the association is called to meet at Chicago, August 25, at 10 a. m., and regular meetings will be held on the last Saturday of each month.

The report was adopted. There was considerable discussion as to how the matter of expense should be met. It was the prevailing opinion that the taxpayers in the outside limits of the township should be made conversant with the matter, and it was finally decided that the committee have power to call a mass meeting and take such action as may be deemed necessary.

If as stated by some "the people of this township were ignorant of the matter", it is not the fault of the committee nor Town Clerk Powers. The notice of meeting was published and the newspapers have given the question considerable discussion and all should be familiar with it. It is the primary meetings to appoint committees to attend to just such matters as this that are seldom attended by those paying the largest tax. They allow the minority to carry forward the work without a protest, but when the annual town meeting is in session a flood of objections is let loose. The interests of the township is the individual business of every taxpayer. If you will not look after it someone else will do so. The time to object is now—not after your representatives have acted to the best of their judgment of what they think you want.

STEAMER WATT SINKS.

Collides with the Maruba in Detroit River.

The most disastrous collision of the season occurred between the steamer James Watt of the Rockefeller fleet and the steamer Maruba of the Federal Steel company in the Detroit river at Grassy Island. The Watt was sunk and the Maruba was barely saved from the same fate. The latter ship had a large hole punched in her bow, and was badly wrecked. The Watt was bound down with iron ore. The Maruba was coming up the river without cargo. Neither ship was insured, as it is against the Rockefeller system to carry any insurance. The sunken boat is one of the largest on the lakes, being 425 feet long by 48 feet beam. The job of getting her afloat will tax the ability of the best lake wreckers.

Great Distress at Cape Nome.

The official reports of Capt. Tuttle of the revenue cutter Bear, dated July 6, at Nome City, and of Capt. Roberts of the revenue cutter Manning, dated July 14, at Dutch Harbor, have been received at the treasury department. They contain details of the arduous work of the revenue cutters in relieving distress along the Alaskan coast. Capt. Tuttle says: "It is estimated that there are within a radius taking the United States postoffice at Nome as a center) of ten miles, 25,000 people. Most of them are living in tents either on the beach orundra. The sanitary condition of the portion of the city where houses have been erected is simply frightful. Typhoid fever is raging and smallpox steadily gaining. All possible efforts are being made to stamp out the smallpox, but with so many thousands of tents scattered over miles of territory, it is impossible for the health authorities to keep track of all cases. Gen. Randall is commanding with a firm hand, and having troops at his disposal will maintain order until such time as civil government is organized. I understand the natives all along the Siberian coast are suffering from influenza and pneumonia and not disposed to trade for reindeer at present."

Passing of George Dixon.

"It's no use trying to go on, Tom; this arm feels as if it were dead," George Dixon, the great little colored fighter, told Tom O'Rourke, his faithful manager, at the end of the sixth round of his fight with Tommy Sullivan at the Coney Island boxing arena Tuesday night. O'Rourke picked up the arm that was then hanging lifeless by the side of the fighter, and as he pressed his fingers into the flesh Dixon uttered a cry of pain. Then the bell sounded for the beginning of the seventh round, but Dixon did not even look up. One of the seconds in the corner tossed a big towel into the center of the ring and the passing of George Dixon had been announced. A physician was called hastily and it was found at once that the fighter had suffered a compound fracture of the left arm between the wrist and the elbow, one of the bones being badly splintered.

Increase of 2,010 Pensioners.

The forthcoming annual report of the commissioner of pensions, Mr. Evans, will show a grand total of 993,528 pensioners on the rolls on July 1 last, an increase of 2,010 for the year. The figures on which the report will be based are now complete and ready for incorporation in the report. They show that on July 1, 1899, there were 991,519 pensioners on the rolls. During the year 40,645 original pensions were granted and 4,699 names were restored to the rolls. To offset these 43,334 names were dropped from the rolls during the year, including 35,869 by reason of deaths, 909 by remarriages of pensioners and 6,616 for other causes, leaving the total number on the roll at the first of this month 993,528.

Attack on Negro Laborers.

The importation of a large number of negroes into Donivan, Mo., by the Bagwell Timber company of St. Louis, nearly precipitated a race war. No negroes are allowed to live in the town and on their arrival the citizens undertook to drive them out. Several colored men were handled roughly and a number of white men and negroes were injured. Sheriff Merrill came to the rescue and an armed posse is guarding the colored laborers. The citizens are determined the negroes shall not be allowed to remain and further trouble is expected.

In Honor of Indians.

To commemorate the enduring friendship of the Catawaba Indians for the whites and to honor the men of that tribe who in 1861 entered the Confederate army and fought for the South, a monument was dedicated at Fort Mill, S. C. An Indian brave, chiseled from marble stands upon a granite pedestal, his bow bent and arrow on string. On the base are inscriptions recounting the services of the Indians in the civil war; the names of those who fought and those who fell. Many of the Indians were slave holders.

ITALY'S KING IS SLAIN.

An Anarchist Assassin Shoots Him Through the Heart.

THREE SHOTS ARE FIRED.

The King Falls Back and Dies in a Few Minutes—His Majesty Had Been Distributing Prizes at a Gymnastic Competition—Was Being Cheered by the Populace When Attacked.

King Humbert of Italy has been assassinated. He was shot at Monza, Italy, Sunday evening by a man named Angelo Bressi and died in a few minutes.

The king had been attending a distribution of prizes in connection with a gymnastic competition. He had just entered his carriage, with his aid-de-camp, amid the cheers of the crowd, new queen, was the Princess Helena, one of the seven daughters of Prince Nicholas, the ruler of the little principality of Montenegro. She was born in the royal palace in Cetinje in 1873.

Humbert's Daily Life.

From early youth Humbert subjected himself to the severest personal regulations, and for whatever he can be blamed he can never be said to have failed in any duty because of his love of luxury or his disinclination for physical fatigue or discomfort. He was always, winter and summer, up and at work at 5 o'clock in the morning. He performed everything, down to the smallest personal duty, for himself with military exactness and was as punctual in all engagements as a business man whose time is precious and who realizes the importance of not keeping other men of affairs waiting. Unless there was some accident or some unavoidable delay over which he had no control, or unless he was accompanied by the queen, who is notoriously behind time, Humbert ap-the most inconvenient and least pretentious of the royal residences of Europe, was the home of the king's family. It is a series of long, plain, narrow buildings, ranged about a courtyard on the top of the Quirinal hill. Externally it is without any pretensions to architectural effect; it is plain and even ugly. The greater portion of the place is taken up by state apartments. These occupy three sides of the palace. The king was a Catholic, of course, but not a specially devout one. He went to mass once a year. The queen is the devout member of the royal family, and for her sake the pope, after having long withheld his consent, permitted mass to be said at the quirinal in a little room which her majesty has set apart for daily worship. The state apartments monopolize so much space that there is very little room left wherein the king and queen might have even that small share of privacy which falls to the lot of monarchs. Indeed, the king had but two rooms, his bedroom (with connecting dressing-rooms) and his study, while the queen has but three. Add to these the private dining-room, and there are only six rooms the royal family can call its own.

New King a Student.

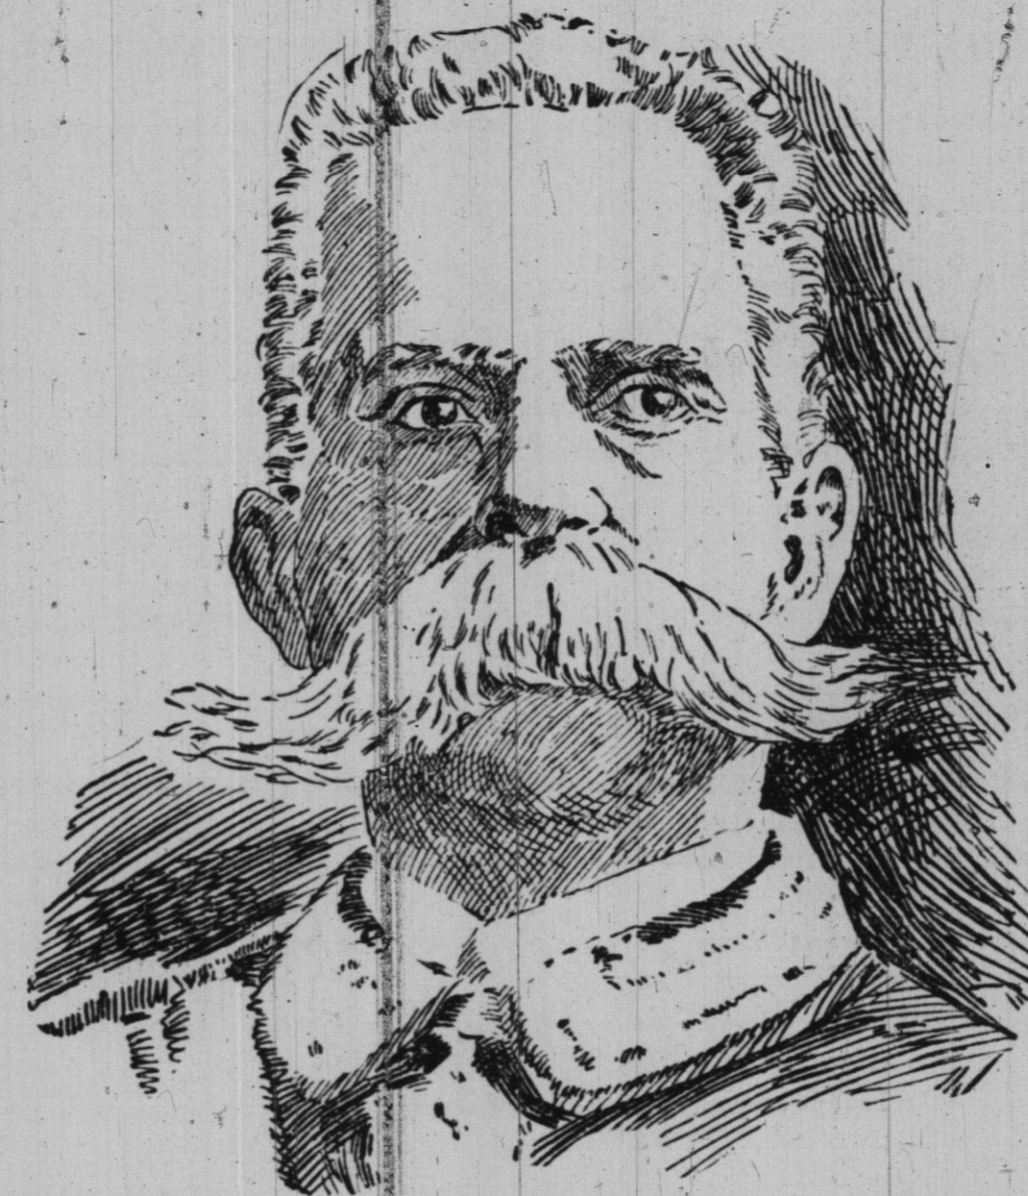

The new king of Italy, Victor Emmanuel, prince of Naples, is about 5 feet tall. He has always been afflicted with disease. He walks with a limp and can barely mount a horse without assistance. He was born Nov. 11, 1869, and is not quite 31 years old. He is a great student, especially of electricity. He has the greatest admiration for Edison, and two years ago talked of visiting this country to see the American wizard at work in his own laboratory. The new king is splendidly educated. His first governess was an English woman, from whom he learned to speak English as perfectly as Italian and with whom he used to drive in a royal carriage every day to Villa Barghese, courteously responding with his little hand to the salute of the military and of the loyal population. From the earliest years of his life his mother ruled the young prince very strictly, wishing his education to be thorough and complete. His father, then Prince Humbert, and his grandfather, Victor Emmanuel, were, however, more indulgent with him. Prince Victor was placed at an early age under the tuition of Colonel Osie, a severe and enlightened officer who, besides being a thorough soldier, is a distinguished Latin and Greek scholar.

Citizens Fight Burglars.

Citizens at midnight engaged in a street fight with a gang of robbers who had attempted to rob the bank of Richmond, Kan. Several shots were exchanged and it is thought one robber was wounded. Bloodhounds have been put on their trail. The robbers had blown the safe door into the street and the noise of the explosion brought a crowd to the scene. No money was secured.

May Be Father's Crime.

While going home from Lampasas, Texas, to his farm in company with his father, Winifred Shipp, a young man, was shot and killed. A coroner's jury today made an investigation, and on the evidence adduced William B. Shipp, the father of the boy, was arrested and jailed on a charge of murder.

HUMBERT, KING OF ITALY, VICTIM OF AN ASSASSIN'S BULLET.

when he was struck by three revolver shots fired in quick succession. One pierced the heart of his majesty, who fell back and expired.

The assassin was immediately arrested and was with some difficulty saved from the fury of the populace. He gave his name as Angelo Bressi, describing himself as of Prato, in Tuscany.

Assassin Saved from Lynching.

The murderer cynically avowed the crime.

The prize distribution took place about 10 o'clock.

The news of the terrible assassination of King Humbert did not arrive at Rome until after midnight. Sig. Saracco, the premier, immediately summoned a meeting of the cabinet, and the ministers will start at the earliest possible moment for Monza.

The prince and princess of Naples were on board the Yela, yachting in the Levant.

Angelo Bressi, the assassin of King Humbert, according to a special dispatch from Rome, is an anarchist.

Life of King Humbert.

King Humbert I. of Italy is the fourth Humbert, or Umberto, in descent from the dukes of Savoy. He was born at Turin March 14, 1844, the oldest son of Victor Emmanuel, king of Italy, and Marie Adelaide, daughter of the Austrian Archduke Ramei, viceroy of Lombardi. He was married in 1868 to his cousin, Margaret of Savoy, by whom he had one son, Prince Victor Emmanuel, who is married to Princess Helene of Montenegro.

Humbert I succeeded to the throne of Italy on the death of Victor Emmanuel Jan. 6, 1878, and he plunged at once into the tempestuous affairs of the kingdom with a zest that promised individual greatness that has not been fulfilled.

His brother, Amadeo, the ex-king of Spain, lives at the old homestead palace in Turin. His eldest sister is the wife of Prince Napoleon and his youngest sister is the mother of the king of Portugal, who translated Shakespeare into Portuguese.

Italy's New King and Queen.

Vittorio Emmanuele Ferdinando Maria Gennaro, who succeeds his father to the throne of Italy, was the only son of King Humbert. He was born Nov. 11, 1869, and has the reputation of being a liberal, scholarly and soldierly man. He is a general in the Italian army and a patron of art and literature. He is a chevalier of the Order of the Golden Fleece and a Knight of the Garter. His wife, Italy's fanatical warfare on the Christians and foreigners. She may be the next "Old Woman of China."

Capt. Healy Insane.
Captain Michael Healy, of the United States revenue cutter service, in command of the handsome cutter Hugh McCulloch, was brought to Port Townsend, Wash., the other day in that vessel from the north hopelessly insane and dangerous to himself and those with whom he comes in contact. He is in the marine hospital there now in a straight jacket, having become so violent that this was the only means of restraining him. Captain Michael Healy is 63 years of age, and has followed the sea ever since his sixteenth year. He entered the service of the United States government in March, 1865, and has continued on active duty therein ever since, except for an interim of four years, from June, 1896, to May, 1900, during which time he was suspended on half pay.

She Didn't See George.
Chicago is the home of the only centenarian in the United States who never saw George Washington. Miss Mary Yardley of No. 710 Monroe street is the distinguished woman, who has passed her one hundred and fifth birthday anniversary, and who solemnly declares that she never saw the first president of the United States. Miss Yardley was born in Philadelphia Jan. 10, 1795, and she has therefore enjoyed the distinction of living in three centuries. Once some one started the story that when she was 3 years old her mother held her up so that she could see George Washington as he passed in a parade, but Miss Yardley sternly denies the statement. She is a woman of great common sense, and she says that in her early days the children were kept at home quite as much as they are in this century.

Col. Dickman.
In Lieut.-Col. Joseph P. Dickman of the 26th U. S. infantry, Maj.-Gen. Chaffee secures for his staff one of the best officers in the U. S. army. Col. Dickman, previous to his appointment as major and later lieutenant colonel in the 26th, was captain in the 8th cavalry. He is a native of Ohio and was appointed to West Point from Dayton. As a student in the military school he displayed marked capacity, was very popular, and was graduated well up in the class of 1881. Having been reared on a farm, and being an expert rider, his bent was toward the cavalry branch of the service, to which he was assigned. Before hostilities broke out between the United States and Spain Dickman served in the west, and down on the Texas border where, in 1893, with 20 men, he succeeded in rounding up two notorious revolutionary leaders on Baluarte creek, in Texas. This he did after a long and hazardous night march, surrounding a house full of desperate characters and taking his men without firing a shot.

Mrs. Palmer's Gems.
Mrs. Potter Palmer, who is at present in Paris, has been made the victim of a robbery, the $17,000 diamond necklace which attracted so much attention during the world's fair being among the treasures made away with. The theft was committed while she was absent from her apartments in the Champs Elysees, and although the Paris police have been notified, no trace of the missing gems have been found. The missing necklace was considered one of the finest in the United States and was purchased in Paris about ten years ago. It is described as containing in the center one large diamond of exceptional purity, while two smaller gems act as guards on each side. Over a score of smaller diamonds compose the remainder of the sparkling string.

City Supplies Milk.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has gone into the dairy business. The city has bought a farm three miles beyond the city limits and has there established the headquarters of the city milk department. The work is under the charge of a trained nurse, Miss Ruth Jones. She gets up every morning at 5 o'clock and superintends the milking of the cows. She sees in the first place that each of the milkmen carefully washes his hands before he begins work. Then each cow is covered with a sheet in order to prevent dust or hair from falling into the pail. Before being used the sheets are sprinkled with disinfectants. The milk is put up in clean glass bottles, and after being sterilized is sent in to the city milk depots, where it is sold at the rate of a cent a bottle.

Opposition to the Workhouse.
There is a movement in England against the workhouse. Those who oppose it say there is no reason for its existence. They say there are three classes of dependent persons who do not belong to it—children who should be boarded out, imbeciles who should be in asylums, and tramps or others unwilling to work, who belong in jails.

Would Not Marry a Noble.
Among the many fair ones who resort to Newport this season none will be more sought after than Miss May Goelet, the 20-year-old daughter of the famous merchant of New York, recently deceased. Her debut in society will be made at Ochre Court, the palatial summer home of the Goellets, and those who have had the pleasure of her acquaintance unite in pronouncing her the loveliest of the debutantes of many years past. She has just refused the Liscum's Successor.

Lieutenant Colonel C. A. Coolidge, who has been assigned to the command of the Ninth United States Infantry, now in China, vice Colonel Liscum, who was killed at Tien-Tsin, has been an officer for thirty-six years in the He served in the Seventh Infantry, civil war, in various wars with the Indians, and in the war with Spain. Upon his return from Cuba he was assigned with the Seventh at Fort Sheridan, and was then sent to the Philippines, where he joined the Ninth. He is a brave soldier and bears scars of severe wounds. Mrs. Coolidge is at present living at Fort Sheridan.

Woman As Coroner.
Miss Lillian E. Hall, of Winfield, Kan., is probably the only woman in the world to hold the office of coroner. She entered upon the discharge of her duties last week. Miss Hall was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Cowley County's coroner by Governor Stanley. The only experience she ever had in the coroner's office was that of stenographer. She is 26 years old and is one of the most popular young women of Winfield. Her education has been limited to the common schools of Cowley County.

Kites Soar to Save Life.
Dr. F. W. F. Riehl of Alameda, Cal., has designed a kite which, he claims, will save many human beings from perishing at sea and prove invaluable aids to the life-saving crews along our coasts. Dr. Riehl served as an officer in the German army during two wars and is highly recommended both by his government and the officers with whom he was associated. He has been in this country a number of years. He claims to have got his kite-flying idea from reading the great storm scene in Dickens' "David Copperfield." The graphic description of the drowning of Ham and Steerforth, while the multitude stood helplessly by, so impressed the doctor that he wondered if kites could not be used in such a terrible emergency. To wonder with him was to try, as he has done successfully on more than one occasion in both Germany and America. A few days ago he gave an exhibition at the ocean beach at Alameda. After swimming out through the surf about 400 yards he lay motionless on his back and let the kite tow him ashore again.

RIOTING AT NEW ORLEANS.

Bloody Battles in the Crescent City.

SEVERAL NEGROES ARE KILLED

Whites Among the Wounded—Lawless Elements Gain Control—City Under Martial Law—Police Accused of Failure to Do Their Duty.

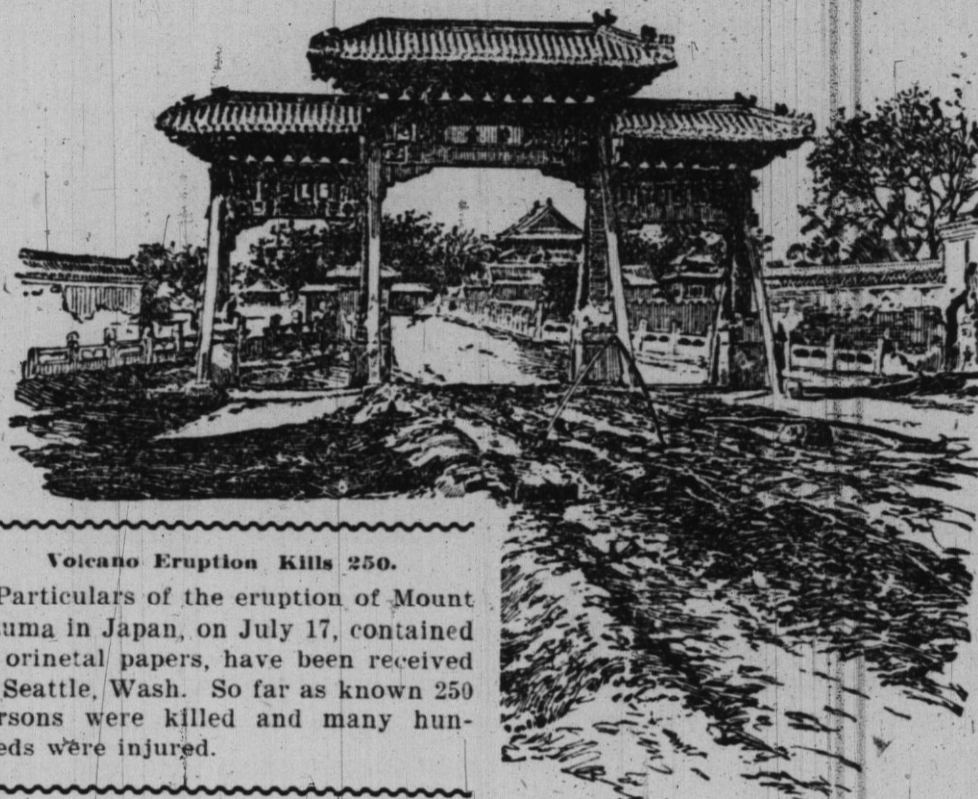

New Orleans was at the mercy of armed mobs made up of hoodlums who assaulted negroes on sight and shot them down like dogs Thursday night. The men composing the mobs were deaf to pity and used pistols and clubs at every opportunity. That their work was partially checked was the result of the prompt action of Gov. Heard and Mayor Capdevielle. The dead: Unknown negro, beaten and shot to death. The fatally wounded: Baptiste Gileal, aged 75 years, shot in the right side of the thorax; James Nel-

Militia in Charge.
Militiamen, artillerymen and cavalry and 1,500 heavily armed citizens under the command of Col. Elmer E. Wood, a Spanish-American war veteran, took charge, and attempted to maintain order, but are unable to entirely control the situation. Scores of inoffensive negroes were slain or terribly beaten and additional reports of similar outrages are coming in constantly. The police force has been discredited and the strong arm of the law placed in the hands of a military officer. Even Chief of Police Gaster has shared the fate of his men, for Mayor Capdevielle has lost confidence in him. The mob, or mobs, for there were more than one, were made up of hoodlums and the toughest element among the white population of the city.

Nearly All Intoxicated.
It is estimated that fully 90 per cent of the members were intoxicated. It son, skull fractured at base and numerous contusions and lacerated scalp wounds; Lewis Taylor, shot in right arm, left arm, right buttock, and wounds from clubs on the head; Thomas Sanders, stabbed in the side, scalp wound and pistol shot wound on right knee; Charles Washington, found in a box car on Illinois Central tracks cut to ribbons; Nathan Brown, found in a box car on Illinois Central tracks stabbed through lungs and cut in many places; Alexander Ruffin, Pullman car porter, shot in left shoulder, arm broken and badly beaten about head. Ruffin is a Chicago negro. The injured: Esther Fields, washerwoman, several gashes on head and badly bruised; Lewis Edwards, driver, badly cut and beaten; George Morris, watchman, shot in head, leg and back, badly beaten; may die; Dan Wite, gunshot wound in left hand; William Armstrong, gunshot wound left thigh; badly beaten.

Whites Also Injured.
The foregoing is a list of the negroes, so far as it is possible to secure the names, who met injury. Probably a score of darkies have also been assaulted and are having their wounds treated at home. During the disturbances the following white men were accidentally wounded: Frank Shepherd, gunshot wound in right arm; was a howling mob of fiends and could easily have been controlled by a handful of determined police, but there were no determined police to be found. Dozens of negroes attacked by the mobs appealed to the bluecoats for protection in vain. The sympathies of the police were with the mobs and several instances are reported where the police actually encouraged the rioters in their bloody and barbarous work. Not a single arrest was made by the police.

The colored desperado Robert Charles, slayer of Policemen Day and Lamb, was smoked out of hiding in New Orleans Friday night and shot to pieces, but not until he had killed three persons, fatally wounded four, and less seriously wounded several others. Some doubt cast on identity of desperado. Two other negroes killed.

Friday's dead:
Gabriel Porteous, sergeant of police; John F. Lally, corporal of police; Andy Van Kurem, keeper of the police pail; Alfred J. B. Bloomfield, a boy; Robert Charles, a negro desperado; unknown negro.

Fatally wounded:
Frank H. Evans, ex-policeman; John Banville, citizen; A. S. Leclerc, citizen; H. H. Batt, citizen. Twenty thousand people witnessed the rioting.

Manifesto to People of Italy.
In the absence of the new king of Italy the ministry has issued in his name a manifesto to the nation, as follows: "King Victor Emanuel III., in ascending the throne, has to perform the painful duty of announcing to the country the awful calamity which has violently cut short the valuable life of King Humbert. The nation, wounded in its sincere affection for the august dead, and in a sincere feeling of devotion and adhesion to the dynasty, while execrating the cruel crime, will be plunged into profound grief for the venerated memory of a good, brave, and magnanimous king, the pride of his people and the worthy perpetrator of the traditions of the house of Savoy, by rallying with unshakable loyalty around his august successor. Italians will prove by their deeds that their institutions do not die."

Found Starving in a Park.
News has been received at St. Paul, Minn., that C. C. F. With his mother he was doing the National park, and Thursday afternoon he disappeared. Soldiers found him after a long search.

Swazey Got Over a Million.
It is impossible at this time to determine the extent of the cattle operations of E. L. Swazey, of Kansas City, who, it is charged, is on the way to South America to avoid his creditors. Of a total of $1,600,000 worth of his paper said to be afloat $1,300,000 has been located. Two banks are already claiming the same herd of cattle in Hemphill, Tex., and it is alleged that banks in Kansas City, Springfield, Mass., Philadelphia and Lancaster, Pa., and St. Joseph, Mo., are losers because they were willing to accept Mr. Swazey's representations without question. It is believed Swazey was financially embarrassed when he left Kansas City. A member of the firm says that he had overdrawn his account with Ladd, Penny & Swazey to the extent of $2,000. Nothing further has been learned as to his present whereabouts.

Four Girls Drown in Bathing.
Four young women from Philadelphia were drowned at Ocean City, N. J., Tuesday. Only two of a group of six who went bathing in the surf some distance from the daily throng of bathers were saved. Those who lost their lives were: Virginia Lowe, 20 years old, of Germantown; Elsie Lowe, 18 years old, sister of Virginia Lowe; Jennie Lonsdale, 19 years old, of Wynemore, Chestnut Hill; Birdie Lonsdale, 23 years old, sister of Jennie Lonsdale. The four girls went to Ocean City recently and were not used to sea bathing.

The Fate of the Ministers.

So conflicting and contradictory are the dispatches that come from China that it is quite impossible to form an intelligent idea of the exact situation in the orient, though apparently a state of anarchy exists in Peking and throughout northern China generally. Among such foreigners as still remain there panic prevails, and imminent peril confronts them, and the armed forces of the Europeans, Japanese and Americans thus far on Chinese soil appear to be utterly insufficient to check the disorders or protect the lives and property interests of their countrymen.

The apparently well authenticated reports of the massacre of the members of the foreign legations at the Chinese capital have in effect been denied by high officials of the imperial government, who state with much positiveness that the envoys were alive and under the protection of the Chinese authorities at a date two days subsequent to that on which they were reported to have been slain. Whether this is a ruse to gain time or a true statement is a question. The Chinese are not above such a subterfuge.

A few days later a message was presented to the state department at Washington by Minister Wu purporting to come from Minister Conger, stating that the latter was then in the British legation, and adding: "Under continued shot and shell from Chinese troops. Quick relief only can prevent general massacre." The dispatch is undated, but it is believed to have been filed at Peking as late as July 18. It is sincerely to be hoped that the dispatch is authentic and that Mr. Conger and the other ministers are still alive, but there is yet doubt in the public mind, which must be cleared up by information coming through other than Chinese channels.

The immediately imperative duty of the foreign powers would seem to be to force a passage from the coast to Peking and learn exactly what has happened there. If there still be ground for a lingering hope that the ministers are alive, no time should be lost in rescuing them. The world should know speedily and definitely their fate from other than Chinese sources. Taking the situation as it appears, the impulse is toward blind anger, demanding vengeance swift and terrible. It is an impulse neither safe nor intelligent, nor is it just until the whole case is authoritatively stated. There has been blindness enough in dealing with China, and the blindness of righteous rage will in its effect be no better than that of the greed that has too largely prevailed among most all of the nations except our own. It is not in the spirit of revenge that western civilization should extend to China its punitive arm, but if the tragedy of Peking be verified it must, by united and prompt action on the part of the powers, inflict such great and signal penalty and example as to impress indelibly and forever upon the oriental mind the power, majesty and stern justice of that civilization.

Statistics of the Railroads.

According to the report of the interstate commerce commission the number of people employed by the railroads of the United States is 928,924, an increase of 54,466 over the year preceding that covered by the report. The last census gave the number of persons in gainful occupations at 20,000,000, and this would mean that about one person in every 24 is dependent for support on the railroads. The number of railroad employees is three times the number of miners, ten times the number of lawyers, two-thirds the number of domestic servants, nearly equal the number of bookkeepers and clerks in all other trades and industries and 50 per cent more than the total number of merchants and shopkeepers.

The commissioners' report puts the total railway mileage in the United States at 252,364. This is more than half the railway mileage of the world, according to the figures recently given by Engineering for the other countries.

The capital of the railways is placed at $11,033,945,808, which is more than the total amount of the money in the world or about six times the amount of the currency in circulation in the United States.

A striking and not altogether pleasing feature is the number of persons killed and wounded during the year covered by the report, the killed in railway accidents numbering 7,123 and the injured 44,621. This is more than were killed and wounded in the battles of Gettysburg, Spotsylvania and the Wilderness—the three most sanguinary battles of the civil war. Most of those killed and injured were employees, the number of passengers killed being 239 and injured 3,442, or one passenger killed for every 2,189,023 carried and one injured for every 151,798 carried. These latter figures emphasize the necessity of the adoption by the railroad companies of further and better facilities for the protection of life and limb of their employees. Many devices for the safety of railroad men have been lately invented and found to be practicable, but the companies generally seem disinclined to adopt them.

One of the uses of war is the coining of new words, which embellish, if they do not enrich, the vocabulary. The war with Spain gave us many new and expressive words, and the Boer-British war supplied still more. Now comes the Chinese imbroglio, which is likely to furnish further vehicles of expression. One of the first of these is the word "shanghai" (v. t.) and its conjugations "shanghaied" (imp. and p. p.) and "shanghaiing" (p. pr. and vb. n.), used in connection with war news reports. It is very nearly the antithesis of the verb "censor." While to censor the news is to suppress or eliminate damaging, sensational, alarming and imaginative statements, to "shanghai" means to falsify, to exploit, to enlarge upon, to amplify and to yellow journalize the news. Thus information from Shanghai is pretty apt to be "shanghaied" or at least to have a strong tinge of "shanghaiing." The verb "shanghai" has long been in use, meaning in nautical parlance "to intoxicate and ship a person as a sailor while in this condition," but the sensational dispatches from the Chinese city of that name give it a new and broader significance.

The Finnish senate has addressed a memorial to the czar declaring its inability to promulgate the imperial rescript regarding the Russian language in Finland, the limitation of the right of public meeting and granting the right of Russians to carry on trades prohibited to the Finns. The czar seems to have decided upon the absolute denationalization of Finland, and the protests of the people will doubtless be unavailing. Their brave struggle to maintain their liberties, however, must excite the sympathy and admiration of all friends of constitutional government.

Here is another example of art for art's sake. In his new novel, "The Reign of Law," James Lane Allen allows one of his characters to purchase a book by Darwin two years before it was published. In explanation the author says in substance: That's nothing. The man had to have the book then for the art of the story.

The tipping system has been officially recognized by the comptroller of the treasury, who held in a recent ruling that the expense account of an official traveling on government duty may include tips to sleeping car porters. It is not stated, however, how much may be charged up to "expenses" for this purpose.

General Cronje, who is now held in captivity on the island of St. Helena, is said to be developing into a regular golf enthusiast. Is the sturdy old Boer commander getting Anglicized?

Some people call the man who shot the rapids at Niagara a fool. He can return the compliment when they begin to buy tickets to the museums to see him.

One of the notable and much advertised features of the Buffalo fair next year will be Niagara falls. No doubt the exposition managers will allow it to remain as a permanent attraction.

China will begin to fully realize the gravity of the situation when the Missouri mule puts in an appearance there. He is now headed in that direction, and nothing can stop him.

Major Esterhazy, the first prize scoundrel in the Dreyfus case, is again in Paris. Possibly he may be aspiring to a place among the monstrosity exhibits at the exposition.

Fish Stories.

When a man enters the field as a narrator of fish stories he should do so with a determination to tell a good one. The owner of a setter dog or the follower of Isaac Walton has no reputation (for veracity) to lose. The usual assembly occupied the sidewalk near the post office Monday evening. The Chinese situation and politics were dull topics. But talking about fish stories. One delegate volunteered the following: "A fellow fishing over on Fox river caught a perch that weighed one pound, along in the summer of '95. He fastened a sleigh bell to its tail and flung him back in the river. Two years after some folks were fishing in the same place and caught that same perch. It weighed six pounds and the bell was still hitched to his tail."

That's what we pronounce a feeble attempt at exaggeration. We know of a bass, weight 7 ounces, being taken from Rock river in 1892. A small tin whistle was attached to its gills by a piece of fish line. Last summer that same bass was captured again and the whistle had developed into a foghorn but the bass still weighed 7 ounces.

 DEAR SIRS—I feel it my duty to write to you and let you know how much good your medicine has done for me. Twenty-three years ago I was taken with some kind of stomach trouble and I tried everything I heard of. They did me but little good. Three years ago neuralgia set in on me and I got so poor and weak that I could hardly walk—couldn't work any. My husband received a book through the mail, advertising your medicine, and he sent our little boy to the drug store to get one of your ten-cent bottles. I began to use it. It is strange to say, but it's the truth, the second dose I took gave me lots of relief. I kept on using it till I used it nearly a year and now I am nearly as strong as I used to be and can do any kind of work. I recommend it to all, for it seems to me it would cure anybody. I have gotten several to use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and they all say it has done them so much good. God bless Dr. Caldwell and his medicine for doing me so much good.
 Yours with respect,
MRS. ISABELL WHEELER.

The Simplest and Best

ANYONE who will stop to think for an instant cannot help but admit that the less parts used in any machine the less trouble and expense will be noticeable to the operator and owner. It must be admitted that in Simplicity is the Essence of Perfection.

The Jones Lever Binder

has but 16 pieces in the knottor alone while on other machines the parts used for a like purpose are from 28 to as high as 50 pieces. It is the simplest, lightest draft and longest lived mower made. It is made of steel and malleable iron for long wear and requires less expense for repairs than other machines.

THE JONES CHAIN MOWER

Is the leading grass cutting machine of the world. A glance will convince anyone that such is a fact. We invite you to call and examine the Jones Lever Binder and Jones Chain Mower.

SCHULTZ & FOREMAN, Barrington.

Truth Must be Admitted.

Anyone who knows anything about sewing machines will admit that the WHITE SEWING MACHINE is strictly up-to-date in improvements and never fails to give satisfaction wherever used. It is well-built, light running and reasonable in price.

We will add to our already fine stock next week a handsome line of DRESS GOODS IN PERCALES, LAWNS and GINGHAMS and invite the public to call and view a stock that is fashionable and at the same time reasonable in price. It would be well while making your trip to our store to look over our stock of FRESH GROCERIES, which cannot be surpassed anywhere. No doubt before your departure you will at least take home a package of the celebrated "Clipper" coffee, of which we have had such an immense call for the past few weeks. An opal hand-painted dish is given free with each package.

The King Clay Cigar—sold by us has proved to be the smokers' favorite on account of its high qualities. If you want a good smoke try it.

HALF-RATE EXCURSIONS TO UTAH.

While there are tourist rates to Salt Lake City and Ogden and return in effect every day, a special opportunity is afforded to visit the world's greatest sanitarium and health and pleasure resort through a series of cheap excursions to leave Chicago and St. Louis, August 7th and 21st. These excursions leave Omaha, St. Joseph, Kansas City, etc., on August 8th and 22d. These dates are subject to change if found advisable. No place in the universe presents such a complement of attractions as Salt Lake City. It is the place of the great Mormon Temple and Tabernacle, the seat of ecclesiastical authority of the Saints and the home of their prophet. It is quaint, curious, and picturesque in environment. The summer climate is incomparable. There are cool mountain and lake resorts near by, the greatest of which is Saltair Beach on Great Salt Lake. Here you can float upon the surface of the water almost a mile above sea level. Within the limits of the city are Warm Sulphur and Hot Springs, parks, drives and beautiful canyons. Furthermore, the trip to Utah by way of Denver and Colorado Springs over the Rio Grande Western Railway in connection with either the Denver & Rio Grande or Colorado Midland railroads is one of unequalled splendor. The scenery is the most magnificent in America. Send two cents postage for copy of "Salt Lake City—the City of the Saints," to Geo. W. Heintz, General Passenger Agent Rio Grande Western Railway, Salt Lake City.

O—C

When a preparation has an advertised reputation that is world-wide, it means that preparation is meritorious. If you go into a store to buy an article that has achieved universal popularity like Cascarets Candy Cathartic for example, you feel it has the endorsement of the world. The judgment of the people is infallible because it is impersonal. The retailer who wants to sell you "something else" in place of the article you ask for, has an ax to grind. Don't it stand to reason? He's trying to sell something that is not what he represents it to be. Why? Because he expects to derive an extra profit out of your credulity. Are you easy? Don't you see through his little game? The man who will try and sell you a substitute for CASCARETS is a fraud. Beware of him! He is trying to steal the honestly earned benefits of a reputation which another business man has paid for, and if his conscience will allow him to go so far, he will go farther. If he cheats his customer in one way, he will in another and it is not safe to do business with him. Beware of the CASCARET substitute. Remember CASCARETS are never sold in bulk but in metal boxes with the long tailed "C" on every box and each tablet stamped C. C. C.

CROPS IN NEBRASKA.

There is a broad smile on the face of nearly every farmer in Nebraska, because of the satisfactory crop conditions in that remarkable state. In the northwest drouth has seriously injured the wheat yield. In the south again there has been more or less damage, but in Nebraska they have had seasonable, heavy rains, and not too much of them.

A full crop of oats and wheat will, from present indications, be followed by a bumper crop of corn. During the past week heavy rains all over the state have put this crop in fine condition, and it may break the record.

The expectation is that great numbers of people will go to Nebraska this fall, when the cheap harvest excursion rates are in effect, to investigate the country and confirm by actual experience the stories of prosperity so often heard. The tendency is on the part of renters, everywhere in the east, to seek homes beyond the Missouri river, where land is cheap and so very productive.

Darkness in Ocean Depths.

When the sun is pouring down its rays upon the ocean at noonday none of them penetrate to a depth of over 200 feet. Could a diver descend below that depth he would find himself shrouded in darkness, as profound as though he were immersed in a sea of ink.

RECREATION AND HEALTH.

Both Can Be Secured at the Indiana Mineral Springs, Indiana.

Like the young man in springtime, whose fancy "lightly turns to thoughts of love," when summertime comes we all turn our thoughts to the consideration of the important question of where we shall go for rest, recreation and health.

There are all kinds of health and pleasure resorts throughout this broad land of ours, some of them, unfortunately, anything but what their names imply, and apparently operated for no other purpose than to relieve the invalid and pleasure seeker, financially. So much so is this the case that it is indeed gratifying to the one seeking rest and recuperation from the cares of the business and social world, as well as the pain racked invalid, who is fortunate enough to discover a place where to use a popular expression, he "gets his money's worth."

One of the most interesting, picturesque and delightful places in this country is unquestionably the resort known as the Magno Mud and Lithia Water Cure, located at Indiana Mineral Springs, Indiana. Here come the overworked business man, the worn out devotee of society and the professional man on the verge of nervous prostration, as well as the sufferer from rheumatism, kidney and skin diseases for which the baths are especially beneficial. The place is also largely patronized by those who only seek pleasure and recreation, its location making it particularly adapted for this purpose. There are many romantic and beautiful spots and places of interest in the vicinity and it would be hard to find a section of country containing so many beautiful drives. The country is very hilly, but the roads are all graveled and kept in good condition. This is one of the things that makes the place especially attractive to those afflicted with rheumatism, as driving is about the only outdoor pleasure one crippled with rheumatism can indulge in. Some of the cures effected are really marvelous and many who have gone to the Magno Mud Cure as a last resort have returned home within a few weeks filled with renewed health and strength.

The accommodations, service, table and attendance is all that can be desired and the rates very reasonable indeed. The Springs is under the able management of Major H. L. Kramer and a postal card inquiry addressed to him will bring complete detailed information as well as a copy of the "Mudavia Magazine," a unique and interesting publication.

"Graft" Senate Pages.

"Graft" is the proper name for all senate pages, especially if their real name is not known, or does not come to the mind instantly. It came about in this way: One of the first pages ever appointed by the senate was Grafton D. Henson. For a while Grafton was the only page in the senate chamber, and the calls for "Graft" as he was called, were very numerous and at times urgent. As new pages came into the senate from time to time the name Graft was given them and used until their names were so well known that they could be remembered.

Japanese Collections Destroyed.

Captain Brinkley, the leading authority on all things Japanese, has sustained a heavy loss through fire. The whole of his library, his works of art and manuscripts of more than twenty years' collection have been entirely destroyed.

Knowing the merits of the preparations of the J. & C. Maguire Medicine Company of St. Louis, Mo., we take pleasure in stating to the public that they have succeeded in furnishing the Army and Navy. Established in 1841 they have steadily grown in favor with the public, not having one failure to report in fifty-nine years. Their Benne Plant, Cundurango, etc., have become household words. They are now sold by all druggists. Ask for booklet free, and if you ever get the Diarrhea, Dysentery, or Cholera-Morbus, give Benne Plant a trial, and you will be convinced. Every article made by the Maguire Medicine Company is guaranteed to do what is claimed for it.

COLORADO EXCURSIONS

At Low Rates Via the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad.

Visitors to the Farmers' National Congress, which meets at Colorado Springs August 21 to 31, 1900, will have a good opportunity to view the scenery of Colorado traveling via the Denver & Rio Grande railroad. The Rio Grande road, called the "Scenic Line of the World," will sell tickets from Denver, Colorado Springs or Pueblo to all points in Colorado at one-half the usual fare for the round trip. These tickets will be on sale August 28. Some are good for return within ten days and some are good for 30 days. On some of the trips stop-overs will be allowed.

On August 30 and 31 tickets will be sold to Salt Lake City and return at $20, good ten days in each direction; stop-overs allowed; final limit, thirty days.

A special excursion to the Royal Gorge will leave Colorado Springs on August 26 at 8 a. m. and arrive on the return at about 5 p. m. This trip will afford an opportunity to view Pueblo, "The Pittsburgh of the West," and Florence, in the center of the oil and gas fields of Colorado.

The D. & R. G. has some thirty-five or forty tours called "circle" trips among the mountains, one of which is the famous 1,000 mile tour passing La Veta Pass, Poncha Pass, Toltec Gorge, Durango-Dolores Canon, Rice, Lizard Head Pass or Las Animas Canon, Silverton, Ouray-Cimmaron Canon, Black Canon, Marshall Pass and the Royal Gorge. Another noted tour is from Denver to Grand Junction and return, going via the narrow gauge line, climbing Marshall Pass and winding through Black Canon of the Gunnison, returning over the broad gauge through Glenwood Springs and the Grand River Canon, over Tennessee Pass, through Leadville and the Royal Gorge.

The shorter "circle" trips are all full of interest and wonderful scenery. Words cannot adequately describe the Colorado mountain scenery—it must be seen to be realized, and the more one sees it and gazes upon it the more wonderful and beautiful it becomes.

The famous Manitou Springs are only five miles from Colorado Springs. From Manitou starts the "Cog road" to the top of Pike's Peak, 14,147 feet above sea level. In the immediate vicinity of Colorado Springs and Manitou the Cheyenne Canons, Grand Caverns, Cave of the Winds, Rainbow and Minnehaha Falls, The Seven Falls, Ute Pass and the Garden of the Gods.

Tickets will be on sale via all lines from Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul and all points east of the Missouri river, on August 18 and 19 at one fare, plus $2, for round trip. Stop-overs allowed on going trip after reaching Denver, Colorado Springs, or Pueblo until Sept. 1. Tickets may be purchased to read going one route and returning another west of the Missouri river, and will be good for return passage until Sept. 3. Special tourist tickets, round trips, half fare, plus $2. Tickets good to Oct. 31. Sold Aug. 1st, 7th and 21st.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

Notre Dame, Indiana.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of St. Mary's Academy which appears in another column of this paper. The 46th year opens September 4th, 1900. We do not need to expatiate upon the scholastic advantages of St. Mary's for the catalogue of the school shows the scope of work included in its curriculum, which is of the same high standard as that of Vassar and Bryn Mawr, and is carried out faithfully in the class rooms. We simply emphasize the spirit of earnest devotion which makes every teacher at St. Mary's loyally strive to develop each young girl attendant there into the truest, noblest, and most intelligent womanhood. Every advantage of equipment in the class rooms, laboratories and study rooms, every care in the matter of food and clothing, and exceptional excellence of climatic conditions—all of these features are found at St. Mary's, in the perfection of development only to be obtained by the consecration of devoted lives to educational Christian work, in a spot favored by the Lord.—The Fine Arts Journal.

It Was a Great Picnic.

Tuesday was the day chosen for the scholars, teachers and friends of the Salem church Sunday school to enjoy their annual picnic. The weather man furnished just such a day as they petitioned for. Early in the day the little ones, and the adult members of the church and school assembled at the house of worship and soon joined by the big band of the M. W. A. camp which had been engaged to furnish music for the day.

At ten o'clock parade formed and headed by the band traversed the principal streets to the beautiful grounds of the Evangelical association near the village. A large float platform carried the little ones who waved the National colors and displayed their happiness as only little ones can. The older ones followed in carriages, wagons, on foot, and any way to get there. Arriving at the grounds all entered into the amusements of the day.

The attendance was large and the program a varied one. The band was a great feature of the day's pleasure. The festivities did not end with the daylight. Long after Old Sol had hid behind the western horizon the merry makers held forth. It was the most successful picnic ever held by the attendants of the Salem Evangelical church.

The Better Man.

The mere fact that a man wears a fraternal society badge is not proof positive that he is free from imperfections, says the Harvard Herald. He may have his faults, but the man who loves his family enough to join an insurance order in order to guard their future from want is a better man than he who cares nothing for the future of those dependent upon him and lives careless of what may be in store for them.

A most enjoyable occasion was the surprise party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Gottschalk Tuesday evening. A number of friends, about forty, took possession of the Gottschalk home and passed an evening of pleasure. There was amusements and dancing, and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

There was a very pretty home wedding at Lake Zurich on Thursday. It was at the beautiful home, named "Nestlerest," of Mrs. Clark. The contracting parties were Russel H. Hubbell of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Pauline Bishop of Chicago. Dr. J. B. Robinson of Barrington was the administrator, using the charming service of the Episcopal church. There is something poetical and refreshing with most weddings, but this couple start on the journey under peculiarly happy and agreeable auspices. May their lives be one sweet song.

Dum Vivimus Vivamus.

The above is the motto of the B. S. & A. C. an organization composed of the leading young men of our village. It is an organization which has done much to cement social and fraternal ties.

It was in the fall of 1897 that the young men of this village concluded that some action was necessary to unite them in social union. Consequently the matter was agitated and December 19 a meeting was called to devise a plan. The outcome was the organization of the B. S. & A. C. The first regular meeting was held December 27, twenty gentlemen making up the charter membership and electing the following officers: Frank Robertson, president; C. F. Meyer, vice-president; Chas. Beinholt, secretary; Carr Ernst, asst. secretary; Miles T. Lamey treasurer.

The object of the organization is the providing of means of diversion and entertainment for its members and the promotion of a social and fraternal spirit among them.

The new organization at once gained popularity. Club rooms were secured and soon furnished in a manner that would do credit to a club of metropolitan dwellers. Tapestry carpets, antique oak furniture, engravings, electric lights and fans and the best of everything to make the place home-like and attractive. In the main parlor may be found a library containing a well-selected assortment of reading matter. A room equipped with the latest athletic goods, and a cabinet supplied with chess, cribbage, checker and other boards. Then there is a cozy little banquet room, but this is not a part of the Club's enjoyment.

Rules of government allow of no games for money forfeit, no ungentlemanly conduct, and intoxicants have never been allowed. The rules are strictly enforced.

In this attractively furnished home of the Club may be found any evening the young men of town engaged in pouring over the latest magazines, in friendly debate, punching the bag or delving into the mysteries of a game of cribbage, while occasionally one is heard to speak familiarly of kings, queens, and such.

The Club is prosperous and has an active membership of 35. It is just what is needed to curb a spirit of restlessness that is bound to come to the young man deprived of social advantages enjoyed by his city cousin. It has a mission to perform and carrying it forward under the following officers: President, D. F. Lamey; Vice-president, Henry Killen; Secretary, Henry Meyer; Asst. Secretary, John Sizer; Treasurer, Miles T. Lamey, and G. R. Hawley and Lawrence Donlea an executive committee who act with the president.

The entire membership is now working as a committee for the success of their annual picnic which will take place at Lake Zurich, Saturday Aug. 18. The royal Bengal tiger, and his cage, lately presented to the Club, will not attend the annual outing, it being deemed unwise to remove him from the jungle.

Narrow Escape.

The many friends of Miss Clara Deikman, a former resident of this village, now residing at Lake Forest, will regret to learn that she is suffering from the effects of injuries received by being struck by a fast train at Lake Forest Thursday noon, July 26. One hip and several ribs were broken. It is a miracle that the lady was not killed. Barrington friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Lake County Fair.

The 47th annual Fair and Exposition of the Lake County Agricultural Society will be held at Libertyville, Sept. 11, 12, 13 and 14. The premium list is a liberal one and should attract a good line of exhibits. As is common with the county fairs of late years the speed program is made a prominent feature and the $2,200 offered in purses will bring to the Libertyville course a string of good horses. The management have planned the 47th exhibition to outdo all those held in the past and are putting forth extra expense to please the people.
