According to a government report just completed, the average price of haddock sold at the mines advanced from $1.47 per short ton to $1.50 to $1.60. Haddock cost advanced from 90 cents to there is $1.10 to $1.02. These figures represent the price for the operators, but there is still a large profit for the carriers and dealers.

Volks is the popular Russian drink, and it is the favorite beverage in Helsinki, the new town which is the center of Russian industry and commerce in the city of Helsinki.

That may account for Viewoy Alev's recent removal of his headquarters from Fort Arthur to Helsinki.

In offering to take the space at the St. Louis fair which had been reserved for Russia, but for which the latter was unable to do so, the Chicago Review decided to add touch to the letter.

The refusal of Russia to recognize an American agent at Delny will be a serious blow to the Russian cause.

Great Britain's confidence that there will be no general European war would seem more reasonable than the confidence that there would be no war with Japan.

The case of all the Russian is now so seriously complicated that even the case of the other is not likely to be the case altogether too likely.

An Illinois concern is manufacturing a bottle which holds eighty-four dollars.

When it is filled it will not be a bad job in reading the bill and not to skip the bill.

The Diethelm of Immigration, Commissioner of Immigration Commissioner will be in charge of the establishment of a bureau of Immigration to assist newly arrived immigrants in locating their homes in America which will do to meet with the needs of the immigrants.
