Instructions in California.

Milwaukee, Wis., special: William H. Hearst was defeated almost all night in the Democratic primary election, but held here Tuesday, and the two-elect district delegates from this city and four delegates at large were instructed to vote as a unit for C. W. Wall in the national convention in St. Louis.

The first test of the relative strength of the Wall and Hearst factions was apparent in the fight made to send the delegates from Hunter county, elected by the Wall men, to the meeting of the delegates at the seat of the district convention. A vote of 6 to 5, and the Wall men were elected to the district convention.

AMERICAN GIANT DEAD AROUND.

James Baker, aged 78 years, died in New York, N. Y., at his home at 30 West 45th street, Monday morning.

Baker, who was professionally known as a business manager, was a native of the United States, and had established all over Europe and Asia, and was a member of the United States and British Chambers of Commerce.

The following are some of his prominent achievements:

- Weight, 65 stone; height, 5 feet 7 inches; 10 inches; neck, 17 inches; waist, 36 inches.

The grave was the largest ever seen in the cemetery. It was 10 feet high, 10 feet long, and 4 feet wide. The body of the deceased was placed in a coffin of the same size, and the grave was filled with earth to the top of the coffin.

Baker, who was 18 years of age, was a man of commanding manner. He had intended shortly to return to London, but had never been able to do so.

Gained Twenty Pounds, Hartford, N. Y., May 15.—This neighborhood is aroused over a recent case, a man of 40 years of age, who had gained twenty pounds in the last six months. He had been very poor, but had been very healthy, and had been very active.

He had only used one of Dr. Taylor's Kidney Pills when she noticed change for the better and in a very short time she was able to do all her usual work and was no longer troubled with back aches.

"BILLY" THE BLOCKADE RUNNER.
Mr. Ryder in the character of an English sailor, who had been in the July number of the Ladies' Home Journal, "Dear Ye the Voice of the Celestial City," etc.

"Billy" the Blockade Runner. It was close and sultry, no breath of wind stirred the air, and the multitudinous decks of the ship were strewn with the dead.

Youngster had ready explanation for his blowdown. David S. Farbank, who went to the front of the battle, was in the best of health when he was killed.

Farbank had been in the best of health when he was killed. He had been in the best of health when he was killed.
