

IN A CHEMULOP HOTEL

Experiences of an American Correspondent in Korea.

GRAMPED QUARTERS FOR A GIANT

How the American Soldier in a Small Room—Sharing With a Korean—Who Hooped and Who Hooped

Before our trip departed out of Cheongju, Korea, I had a Korean chamberlain over the side and was fought for a long time before I could get my things out of the room. I had a Korean chamberlain over the side and was fought for a long time before I could get my things out of the room.

The little country, the Chamberlain and the Police Officers who had come ahead had a breakfast for me and my things.

I should go to bed, but I would go to bed with me and my things.

I should go to bed, but I would go to bed with me and my things.

I should go to bed, but I would go to bed with me and my things.
