

NECESSITY
State's Attorney Denies Explains the Need of Such Legislation.

PRESENT ACT
Illinois Lack Provision for Punishment of Men Who Debauch Voters.

Illinois Constitution Provides that the Gov. shall be Elected every 4th Year.

In his speech at Bloomington Mr. Denney illustrated to a vast audience why the necessity of a better law is so great.

Illinois has no law which punishes a man who debauches voters. The present time there is nothing in the law which would stop a man from doing so.
