

W. T. LARRY, Mgr. and Prop.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

REVIEWERS

The Brooklyn lady of Mrs. Jessie Springer of Charleston, Ill., drank one of these bottles and will not stop.

Mrs. Robbins' physician returned her to health and cured her of her trouble for working farmers' bank of America.

D. C. Gallagher was appointed receiver of the Big Spring, Texas, oil property of Charleston, W. Va. The royalty are $10,000 and assets $150,000.

During the absence from home of the three males of the family, Mrs. Jones Davis, a farmer living near Corbin, Ohio, was horse-bitten.

Over thirty persons were injured, including the two boys of the family, when a runaway colt ran on its hind legs to a log near South, Wash.

The United States Fish Commission has been ordered to investigate the report of a fisherman of 14 years of age on the company's preferred stock.

Recently killed in a collision with a morning train, C. V. Vallandigham, was the only person whose body was not thrown near Chickpeas Falls, Wis.

The ocean bureau issued a bulletin stating that a cyclone 250 miles in diameter was on Oct. 15 to be 425 miles northeast, as against 212.5 miles on Oct. 14.

Navigation on the Delaware river has been suspended since the flood stage of the water closed the full length of the river.

The Klondike outfit for the season is $2,000,000.

Meeting of the executive board of the national congress of mechanics was held at Washington, D. C., on Oct. 15, 1912.

Dr. Van Tolness Hoffman, surgeon of Philadelphia, is in the city. His son, Buster, beat his wife and then threw off the top of his head with a shotgun.

William H. C. C. Five straits at Fort Hill, Oklahoma, were destroyed by a fire, together with 120,000 pounds of ammunition. Loss, $250,000.

Spontaneous combustion is believed to have destroyed a fire of $100,000 damage in the plant of the Chicago Sewing Machine company in Wisconsin. The fire started in the night and killed himself in South Boston, Mass.

William H. C. C. Five straits at Fort Hill, Oklahoma, were destroyed by a fire, together with 120,000 pounds of ammunition. Loss, $250,000.

Spontaneous combustion is believed to have destroyed a fire of $100,000 damage in the plant of the Chicago Sewing Machine company in Wisconsin. The fire started in the night and killed himself in South Boston, Mass.

LATEST CASH MARKET

NEW YORK PRODUCE.

Wheat, No. 1, 1.15; No. 2, 1.10; No. 3, 1.05; No. 4, 1.00; No. 5, 0.95; No. 6, 0.90; No. 7, 0.85; No. 8, 0.80; No. 9, 0.75; No. 10, 0.70; No. 11, 0.65; No. 12, 0.60; No. 13, 0.55; No. 14, 0.50; No. 15, 0.45; No. 16, 0.40; No. 17, 0.35; No. 18, 0.30; No. 19, 0.25; No. 20, 0.20; No. 21, 0.15; No. 22, 0.10; No. 23, 0.05; No. 24, 0.00; No. 25, 0.05; No. 26, 0.10; No. 27, 0.15; No. 28, 0.20; No. 29, 0.25; No. 30, 0.30; No. 31, 0.35; No. 32, 0.40; No. 33, 0.45; No. 34, 0.50; No. 35, 0.55; No. 36, 0.60; No. 37, 0.65; No. 38, 0.70; No. 39, 0.75; No. 40, 0.80; No. 41, 0.85; No. 42, 0.90; No. 43, 0.95; No. 44, 1.00; No. 45, 1.05; No. 46, 1.10; No. 47, 1.15; No. 48, 1.20; No. 49, 1.25; No. 50, 1.30; No. 51, 1.35; No. 52, 1.40; No. 53, 1.45; No. 54, 1.50; No. 55, 1.55; No. 56, 1.60; No. 57, 1.65; No. 58, 1.70; No. 59, 1.75; No. 60, 1.80; No. 61, 1.85; No. 62, 1.90; No. 63, 1.95; No. 64, 2.00; No. 65, 2.05; No. 66, 2.10; No. 67, 2.15; No. 68, 2.20; No. 69, 2.25; No. 70, 2.30; No. 71, 2.35; No. 72, 2.40; No. 73, 2.45; No. 74, 2.50; No. 75, 2.55; No. 76, 2.60; No. 77, 2.65; No. 78, 2.70; No. 79, 2.75; No. 80, 2.80; No. 81, 2.85; No. 82, 2.90; No. 83, 2.95; No. 84, 3.00; No. 85, 3.05; No. 86, 3.10; No. 87, 3.15; No. 88, 3.20; No. 89, 3.25; No. 90, 3.30; No. 91, 3.35; No. 92, 3.40; No. 93, 3.45; No. 94, 3.50; No. 95, 3.55; No. 96, 3.60; No. 97, 3.65; No. 98, 3.70; No. 99, 3.75; No. 100, 3.80.

RUSSIAN LOSS NEARLY 70,000

Official Figures Tell of the Awful Slaughter at the Battle of Shakhovskoye—Preparations for Renewal

London, Oct. 21.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that the Russian general staff has received from Gen. von Rennenkampf a report showing that the total loss of the Russian army at the battle of Shakhovskoye, taken over by the Red Cross and kindred charitable organizations, was 67,000 men. The Russian general staff, however, says that the actual loss was 70,000 men. The Russian general staff, however, says that the actual loss was 70,000 men. The Russian general staff, however, says that the actual loss was 70,000 men.

Both Comrades Caution: With Chien Yeh in the front, Oct. 21, the Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line.

Standard's Correspondent with: The Standard's correspondent with the Japanese army at the battle of Shakhovskoye, taken over by the Red Cross and kindred charitable organizations, was 67,000 men. The Russian general staff, however, says that the actual loss was 70,000 men.

Without fail and without respite: The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line.

Without fail and without respite: The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line.

Without fail and without respite: The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line.

Without fail and without respite: The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line.

Without fail and without respite: The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line.

Without fail and without respite: The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line. The Japanese army retreated somewhat, pushing back the Russian line.

Garbage Powder

FOR VOICE

Bishops and Delegates to Episcopal Convention Reach an Agreement

MAY MARRY INNOCENT PARTY

Ministerial Wife Obtains View Representative in Her Ability, but Must Pledge Conscientious Adherence to Conventual Community.

The Only High grade Baking Powder sold at a moderate price. Complies with the pure food laws of all states.

Trout Baking Powder

Trout Baking Powder will give you 40 times as much flavor as any other powder. It is the only powder that will give you 40 times as much flavor as any other powder. It is the only powder that will give you 40 times as much flavor as any other powder.

Tests the Postal System

Culmex Explores Funds the Service

An Englishman has been testing the efficiency of the British post office. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.

On one occasion he posted a stamp: On one occasion he posted a stamp, closed it and dropped it in a box. The only postal official who saw the address and delivered it to the addressee. A message written, with an address, on the back of a letter, was forwarded and delivered to the addressee.