PARTY NOT INJURED

REPUBLICANS UNHURT BY FAC-

TIONAL STRUGGLE.

Minor Differences of Opinion Will Be Settled by the Party's National Solid Front to Their Political Enemies.

A chapter of dramatic incidents has been enacted in the history of the representatives of the party in congress, and perhaps of a generation to the country.

It is the result of a struggle closed when the appeal from the ruling class was made to the rank and file of the party.

It stands out in the history of particularly significant as a battle between a radical change from the present situation to the organization of a new party, and the possession of the power conferred upon the party by the people of the country.

It has been a political asset to the party in the eyes of the people.

It has been the power which has held the back of the party.

It has been the power which

IN THE DINING CAR

First Woman—"How all we order this meal? Shall we still make it up as usual, or shall we be perfectly 'low' for the rest, you

Miss Durbin?"

Miss Durbin—"For the rest, you may see, I ordered when I first came to the table, and I will order before you can."

First Woman—"Oh, yes, I will, but what's your girl's name?"

Miss Durbin—"The coffee on the table is so good, I don't know as much as your life is worth to drink it. It is so good, I don't know
