Two days up to Xmas Sale Begins

WE want to sell all goods of a special Christmas character before Christmas. The ones of which we have quantities so large that we can't reasonably expect to sell them before next Friday night, we shall reduce the price to meet the demand. It is a day of the year when we know that people will buy more than ever before. Christmas arrivals begin early in the morning and the sale will be open early in the afternoon. The sale will close on the evening.

The Christmas shopper who is looking for a really nice present either for dear friend, or always ready to use in any other case, will find something of great value in our jewelry department. We have a large selection of gifts, and the price—something that will be highly appreciated. We will be glad to show you the goods, and within the means of the ordinary one. From my extensive stock of

Watches, Chains,
Fobs, Chains,
Rings, Pins, Cut Glass,

Annual Delivery's Meeting.
A holiday and perhaps the leading feature of the convention of Illinois State Delivery's association to be held in Elgin January 16, 17, 18, and 19 will be a demonstration of the Terrebonne process.
The aim of this investigation is to determine the relative merits of this subject will doubtless establish the position occupied by the delivery on this subject. Several reports have been prepared and presented and it is expected that the selection of the over the aim will be to get estimates that are not outward of the season. The meeting by the association the demonstration will be entirely free of charge and the aim being solely to show to delivery the situation just as it exists.
The meeting will probably take place on Thursday, the closing day of the convention.

With the opening of the convention Monday night will have the main feature an address by Dean Russell of Wisconsin University of this question of animal tuberculosis and the Dean is recognized authority on the question.
An address will be given by Dr. Thomas College of Agriculture, University of Illinois will be the same subject.
It is also to be noted that this question will be the feature of the convention.

The part of the program, especially arranged for buttermakers, will other measures will consist of practice work in better judging and cream testing. Liberal cash prizes will be given in both these contests. The buttermaker members of the association are also to have the privilege of being present when the butter is scored and to compare the results of their process in their work.
The working will be done Tuesday morning, as far as possible, and if not completed then will be resumed Monday morning.

Already a number of full bred fairly animals offered for exhibition around the county available. It is believed for that purpose. There will be a number of exhibits of butter which will be the feature of the Wednesday afternoon program.

Speed From North Coast.
How an exciting oratory in his family was presented is told by A. H.
McDonald of Kewanee, N. Y. in P. D. No. 8. "My sister had an amazing," he writes, "was very talkative and public, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all reports from the doctor. King's New Discovery was tried, and to completely cured her, that she has been tried with a cough since. It is the best medicine I ever saw or heard of."

AT THE CUBANO THEATRE

WEBER'S
The week beginning Sunday, December 28, Weber's theatre, Chicago, offers a modern melodrama in four acts and many scenes, "The Oa-ber's Christmas," a play bristling with heart-lessons—touching in every line —that will appeal and soothe the most hardened heart.
Mr. Noble, an accomplished actor, who has achieved himself in the hearts of a host of patrons of Weber's theatre, will play the part of the reformed convict. A play that can be enjoyed by all—class, wholesome and intelligent.

The scenery has been prepared to the minutest detail and a splendid production will be shown as every professionist will be amazed.
Thirteen thousand feet of latest motion pictures will be shown as every professionist will be amazed. Admission, 10 to 20 cents matinee; 15 to 20 cents night. Come early to see this new play. It will use one of the prettiest playhouses in Chicago.
A good stage floor to meet three full hours of amusements and be highly entertained for ten cents.

MAJESTIC.

There Melton's famous actor has been in Chicago as "A Gentleman from Massachusetts," will appear at the Majestic next week as the headliner in a great holiday play. One of the most interesting work on the American stage today. Since the opening of theater, he has successfully been a journalist, actor, show producer, publisher and lecturer. He will be correspondent and world traveler.
He is in an actor, photographer, publisher and lecturer that he is best known in the East. He was the founder of that beautiful publication "The Burr Melton's Monthly." As a photographer, he has been in the stage since 1890 to pursue, he soon became possibly the best known in the country, but while at the height of his success, the opportunity to accompany President Taft as official photographer on his famous Philippine trip five years ago prevented him.

Mr. Melton will play "The Hand-man" a lovely Wyoming drama, full of life and interest. Since his beautiful singing comedies, always a bright particular musical feature of the bill, introducing a number of new pieces. A big musical act will "The Courtiers," one of Hall's most ambitious efforts. It includes a dozen instrumentalists, and opera singers, handily combined and presented with beautiful scenery. One of the most delightful acts on the bill will be the little opera, "Ricker," a social favorite whose readings and dialect songs have won for a universal popularity with children and grown-ups. The Harrow Lamentation will play a new military drama called "Tartan" which was prepared for by Margaret Mabel, actress of "Baby Mine." Al Jason the fan-maker will be another feature of the bill, together with Marcellus Hunt, Clark A. Ferguson, the Hallow, and other enterprising acts.
