LAKE ZURICH.
 A small party was given Friday P. M. at the home of Wednesday evening, December 14, the occasion being the anniversary of the birth of the late Mrs. Mary Schumaker and the evening pleasantly passed playing cards.

Will Weisbach and August Palmans were in Washington Monday on legal business.

Prud Help has invested in property at Waukegan on the lake shore.

Several farms in this community have been visited by chicken thieves lately.

Work of cutting ice on the lake will commence after Christmas.

William Nickman is building an addition to his store on Main street.

Mary Schumaker is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Prud Help went to Chicago Tuesday.

C. Voelling is quite sick with appendicitis. He is now in the hospital in Waukegan.

Anna Schumaker left last week for Cary, where she expects to work for her late son Mrs. Ludolph West.

Saturday night a party of friends enjoyed themselves at a surprise party on Mr. Post.

The Christmas program at the St. Peters church will give Christmas eve, December 24 beginning promptly at 7:30.

School closes Friday for a two weeks vacation.

A new platform has been made in the St. Peters church, which greatly improves its interior appearance.

Ed Hanger of Poplar Grove visited with the Schumakers Monday.

Albert Dost and family of Palestine moved to Lake Zurich last week. Mr. Dost is now employed in the graving work south of town.

Hans Korstich of Nebraska, who is attending Elizabeth College, is spending his vacation with his uncle, Rev. Siltersmann and family.

CHRISTMAS is nearly here—but it is not too late to buy a new Piano

IF YOU HAVE NOT YET SELECTED a piano as a gift offering, it is not too late now, although you should not delay any longer. Now is your opportunity to give something which is really worth having—something which is sure to please and satisfy.

Every member of your family enjoys music and there is no season when there is more use for a good instrument than there is in winter.

You should see the pianos we have on exhibition at

H. M. BLOCKS FURNITURE CO., BARRINGTON

Here you can make a selection from the various designs in

Conover Cable Kingsbury Wellington and Inner-Player Pianos

These are instruments, any of which you can be proud to place in your home. They are made by experienced men and guaranteed by the manufacturers.

You can buy on our easy payment plan so there is no reason why you should not make your purchase now and have a fine piano in your home on Christmas day.

EXPERT TUNING—If you now have a piano, let our expert tuner and repair man give it an over-look. He is in town every month. Leave your order at our address above.
