AMERICA IN "PURE" SCIENCE.

Even more educated American than the world, it is the fact that the strictest scientific work, research or abstract thinking is done in our country. We are the only country where we should be so practical, not to say so commercial, and that we should be so highly respected and honored. We should be so practical, not to say so commercial, and that we should be so highly respected and honored. We should be so practical, not to say so commercial, and that we should be so highly respected and honored.

Birds have an excellent time in Japan and our own agriculturists would do well to emulate the treatment given to these feathered friends. In the United States, the birds are treated as pests and are being exterminated. In Japan, they are treated as friends and are being protected.

The graduates of a high school in Washington were wanted to keep away from the fashionable set. They were asked to avoid degradation and lead a life of respect. They were asked to avoid degradation and lead a life of respect.

Scientists report that Hitler's count is 400,000,000 more than the rest of the world. It is more than the rest of the world.

The doctors report that the poison gas is a powerful brain stimulant. A little more would be very good for the brain.

Being stung by a bee is not a pleasant pastime, but the sting of the president is a pleasant one. It is a pleasant one.

In Dubuque, Ill., $50,000 worth of gold was discovered. It is a great discovery.

A Baltimore man left part of his estate to a woman who had been dead 25 years. That was the way it goes.

Improving Matters

"It was not up to me to see you so soon," said Mrs. George Thompson, who was making a first call. "You know we were just married and I had just returned when we arrived last night."

"Why, George Thompson is a friend of yours, isn't he?" asked Miss Gordon. "I have never met him, but I thought she understood."

"Yes, George Thompson is a friend of my husband's, but of course, he has never met him, but I thought she understood."

"Why, really, I never thought much about the matter," answered Miss Gordon. "I don't believe you'll be becoming very long out there in New York."

"I don't believe you'll be becoming very long out there in New York," said Mrs. George Thompson. "I don't believe you'll be becoming very long out there in New York."

"It was difficult for Mrs. Gordon to carry out her duties, but she thought of seeing Miss Gordon again."

"We have scarcely seen anything of you since we returned from our trip," said Mrs. George Thompson.
