LACK OF AMUSEMENTS

the sermon delivered last Sunday ng by Rev. G. E. Lockhart at the Bantist church to the Modern dmen lodge. It is full of splendie advice to the men of the lodge and attention is especially called to this pastor's remarks on the lack of ment in Barrington for the young er Lockhart attributes some o the wrong doings of our headstrons to the lack of proper and re fined fun. Young people must have res and if a town offers nothing in the way of amosement, then truly ds mischief for idle time The restor advocates the teaching of classic dances, full of exereles and grace while of course he sett a speel alectric theatre inve plays, a park, a public playand with cympastic equipment, a public library, and so on. All these pleasures hold nothing of the danger of "buggy-riding" and late walks.

There is money enough here being about these things and when such are provided, perhaps the breath of scandal will not so often blow upon
