Demoree Goes to Public. C. J. Demoree left last Friday for Park where he is called to attend to the duties of the village primary. He is the manager of the local exchange and they will be glad to learn that his new position is quite a profitable one. Mr. Demoree will continue to claim this village as his home.

THE CHAMPION

To the victor the spoils! Ah, here they inspire From towers and citadels For action come. I cannot sit idly By the window to watch My duty is boldy To enter the field.

Who cares to give heed To the tripartite motto? For what it may lead I'm tripartite to the buff.

So there is my cantor; How can I be wrong? And the thirder and faster — The more the delight, — E. Kier in the Chicago Record Herald.
