Dramatic Club Play on Stage This Week

The ghosts of three men will walk when the dramatic club of Barrington high school presents "Three Live Ghosts," a mystery-comedy in three acts Friday and Saturday evenings, March 19 and 20, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The setting is London fast-the year 1917. The plot of the play is concerned with three men who are officially reported as killed in the war by their government. For good reasons they must remain dead, a situation which leads to many humorous and embarrassing circumstances, as one by one they find they wish to do things they cannot, as it would reveal their true identity.

Miss L. S. Freeman is directing the play. Music between acts will be furnished by the high school orchestra.

Committee Named for Hobbie Show

Committees for the first annual Community Hobby show have been appointed by Albert Wilkins, general chairman.

The show will be held Saturday, April 3, from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9:30 p. m. in the school building. Proceeds from ticket sales will go into the high school orchestra fund.

The committees include: Mrs. Elden Gleske in charge of student activities, assisted by Mrs. Howard Harnden and Miss Louise Latta for grammar school. Mrs. Gordon Cameron and Willard Watson for junior high and Mrs. Albert Wilkins and T. O. Hosford for high school; A. Bateman, construction work; Rev. H. L. Eagle, arrangement of adult exhibits; Mrs. Ralph Bennitt, program; Wright Catlow, ticket sale; Mrs. Howard Bristol-zer, telephone publicity; K. K. Lilen, assistant general chairman.
