

Second First Aid Contest Is Won by Troop 15

In a closely fought first aid contest at Maine township high school last week, troop 15 sponsored by the Lincoln school P.O.A. of Nine Courts, secured the right to represent section 3 in the semi-finals of the Midwest first aid contest, of English Service in Chicago.

The sectional contest was held at the Elkhart teams represent (Highland Park), the Evanston council, the Oak Park council and the Northwest suburban council.

The first aid team of troop 15, which is trained by Robert D. Grubb, assistant scoutmaster of the troop, represented the Northwest suburban council for the sixth time and this is the second time that they have won the section meet. On Saturday afternoon, April 8, at the LaSalle hotel in Chicago, they will compete with teams from all sections of eastern Iowa (Clinton, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin) for the privilege of competing in the finals at the same venue.

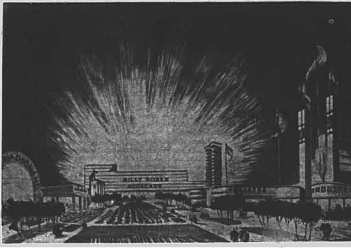

The sectional meet was conducted under the direction of judges from the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross authorized corps with H. E. Robb as chief judge. The other judges were: Alvin Helm, Robert Page, A. C. Kalkin and Alfred J. Hagan.

A. J. Beckman of Park Ridge served as chief recorder and was assisted by Paul Della of the North Branch council. Howard Ahn of the Evanston council and C. O. Johnston of the Oak Park council.

John L. Bell of Barrington, president of the Northwest suburban council, gave the welcoming message and introduced the visiting teams and also presented the trophy and certificate of participation to the team.

Members of the winning teams were as follows: Paul Wertz, Frank Nowlitz, William Alexander, Roy Moore and Howard Wertz, alternate.

Here Is A Vision of The New Great Lakes Exposition

ALL NEW AND GREATER is the 1927 Great Lakes Exposition opening on May 29 for 101 days at Cleveland. The smartest conception of a small section of the 100-acre new Exposition shows "Radioactive," "Automobile," "The Hall of Progress," and the "World Industries Building." An idea of the vast scope of the Great Lakes Exposition and its complete arrangement may be gathered from the previous view of a 100-acre corner.

St. Paul Has Reunion Program

Rev. Eugene of Long Grove spoke at a crowded church Sunday evening when the St. Paul congregation observed its annual confirmation reunion. William Meister of East Main street, who had been a member of the confirmation class 60 years ago, was present at the gathering and addressed the group.

A social hour in the church parlors followed the service.

A. M. Helekson, 67, Dies in Wisconsin

Mrs. H. S. Kimball, 714 E. Main street, returned Tuesday from Dubuque, Wis., where she had attended funeral services for her cousin, A. M. Helekson, a former resident of Barrington.

Mr. Helekson, who was 67 years old, died suddenly Friday following a heart attack. Mrs. Helekson and six children survive him. He was a resident of Barrington in 1924 and 1921.

Use of the Compound

The French people were not accustomed to the use of a compound 600 years before Christ, nor were they acquainted with its functions. The Chinese, however, are said to have understood the use of the compound 1300 years before Christ.

Veteran Employee of State Hospital Killed in Crash

Mrs. Emma Cook, an employee of the Klein State hospital for the Insane 22 years, died Saturday from injuries received in an automobile collision at the intersection of routes 54 and 59 late Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Cook, who was riding with her husband J. E. Cook and Mrs. Solter Knapp, also employee of the hospital, suffered a crushing chest injury, several broken ribs and severe shock when the car driven by her husband collided with one driven by Charles Lovell, a Chicagoan.

Lone Bandit Robs St. Charles Shop

A lone bandit held up the Hotel Baker Coffee shop in St. Charles Thursday evening, about 8:30, and after forcing the cashier to turn over approximately $150 in cash, escaped from a St. Charles policeman as officers fired shots at his speeding car. The bandit's car soon mistook police and no further trace was found of it although authorities of nearby towns were asked to be on the lookout.
