Miss Naomi Tate
Walt R. Hoffman

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Salem church Saturday afternoon when Miss Naomi Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tate, 205 W. Lake street, became the bride of Raymond Hoffman of Elgin. Rev. W. A. Stauffer officiated using the impressive single ring service.

Floor baskets of white snapdragons against a background of palms and ferns formed an artistic setting for the exchange of vows.

As the guests were being seated, an organ prelude, "I Love You Truly" and "Because" was played by Miss Florence Thies. Mrs. Walter Cannon then sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "O Promise Me."

At the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his brother, Harold Hoffman, who served as best man. Mrs. Ray Tate attended the bride. Miss Tate was beautiful in a white satin gown. Her veil fell gracefully from a lace cap and she carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Tate wore light blue crepe and a wreath of pink sweet peas. She carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Walter Hoffman and Earl Anderson of Elgin, George Forenc of Fox River Grove, and Ray Tate, a brother of the bride, served as ushers.

Following the service, a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Members of the immediate families of the bridal couple and close friends were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman are spending this week on a motor trip to Washington, D. C. and on their return will make their home in Elgin.

Bergner-Snyder
Wedding Saturday

Coronatus C. Snyder of Barrington and Miss Anna Elizabeth Bergner of Highland Park were united in marriage Saturday morning at a pretty and impressive service in St. James church of Highwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Hartmann served as attendants.

The bride was lovely in a cream brocaded satin gown that was worn by the groom's mother on her wedding day 42 years ago. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers. Soft organ music added to the quiet service.

Following the exchange of vows the bridal party went to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald in Highland Park where the wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snyder in Carbon Dale and on their return will be at home at 520 North avenue in Barrington.
