

Barrington Bears Strengthen Lineup

The Barrington Bears baseball team is presenting a revamped lineup of players this week and from the observations made Tuesday night when they walloped Algonquin Ovals by a 14 to 4 score in the Tri-Country league tilt at Elgin, the local representatives will be contenders for league and tournament honors.

The Bears have dropped one game and won two to tie with Dundee for second place in the league. The fast moving Roselle also tops the heap with three wins and the Elgin Stag Bears, Elgin, Illinois, also have three wins.

Miss Conner, Elgin White Sox, and Elgin White Sox are closely bunched down the list.

The Bears meet the Elgin White Sox in the second game played tonight, Thursday, at the Elgin tournament park, starting at 8:30 o'clock. Fans will also have an opportunity to see the Bears this week when they meet the Ansonia White Sox at Dundee, Ill., on Friday.

Mother of Local Man Is Buried at Wenona

Mrs. Kathryn Moore, 64 years old, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Harry T. Moore of the United States Army, retired, and mother of Harry Thornton Moore Jr., 130 W. Main street, Barrington, was buried at Wenona, Ill., Wednesday afternoon following services conducted by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Barrington, at the Danieles and Willminger funeral home Wednesday morning. Burial was in the Moore family lot at Wenona.

Mrs. Moore died Monday after a heart attack in the Fort Sheridan hospital, where she had gone for observation.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Moore made their home part of the time in California and for some years resided at the Hyde Park hotel in Chicago.

Surviving besides her husband and son, are two grandchildren.

Local Brevities

Miss Edna Anderson, 337 W. Lincoln avenue, has completed her work in the grade school at McLean and is doing some substituting work in the grades of the local school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dotterer, 549 Division street, left today for Meadville, Pa., where they will attend the commencement exercises at Allegheny college. A niece, Mary Virginia Jones of Chicago, is a member of the graduating class.

Miss Anna Wickersham, who has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Ost for the last month, left Sunday to make her home in Chicago. Miss Sylvia Ost spent Sunday and Monday in Chicago with her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mistelet and family have moved from Palatine to 248 W. Russell street in Barrington.

Arthur McCann, 148 N. Hager avenue, returned home from the Sherman hospital in Elgin Sunday. He was taken there for treatment Friday evening.

Mrs. August Hattendorf of Palatine underwent an operation at the Sherman hospital in Elgin Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Howard Harden is ill at her home, 120 Harrison street.

Miss Jess Schulte, 128 W. Lincoln avenue, came home from the Lutheran Deaconess hospital Thursday, where she had been a surgical patient.

First Stone Building The first stone building within the boundaries of the Northwest Territory was the state house in Chillicothe, Ohio.

Country Club Scene of Style Show, Tea

Barrington Hills Country club provided the setting for a fashion show sponsored by The Westfarer from 3:30 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harold Keele announced the procession of models. Mrs. Daniel Woodhead Jr. and Mrs. Thomas Green furnished a musical background for the event. Among those who modeled gowns in the style parade were Mrs. William North, Mrs. Alexis de Tarsowsky, Mrs. John F. Farrar, Mrs. Malcolm McAdoo, Mrs. Cardwell, Mrs. Arthur Jerrems, Mrs. Edwin Keeler, Miss Keane Hughes, Miss Billie White, Miss Jean Wainery, Mrs. Robert Buckley and Mrs. William Hixon.

Among the patronesses for the style show and tea which followed it were Mrs. Buckner, Mrs. Emory Wilder, Mrs. H. Stillson Hart, Mrs. Daniel Woodhead Sr. and Mrs. Sidney George.

Man Is Stricken at Wauconda Saturday; Dies 2 Days Later

Sigurd Edahl, 47, 4323 Schubert avenue, died at the Elizabeth Conklin Memorial hospital in Libertyville Monday following a stroke suffered at Wauconda the previous Saturday.

Edahl, who was a tool maker for the Western Electric company in Chicago, was visiting at the time in Wauconda. He had gone to Clem Dacey's tavern in that town and while there was stricken. The accident occurred at 11:30 a. m.

He was rushed to a physician for treatment and then taken by ambulance to the Libertyville hospital. The coroner's physician's report read at the inquest held Monday:

Opening of Pool Delayed by Work

Repair work now under progress has delayed the opening of the swimming pool at Northside park, Hugh H. Calkins, park board president, said Wednesday, adding that when work is completed the pool will be filled and opened to the public, weather permitting.

A new cement slab is being laid in the walk on the upper deck of the pool on the west end, and plastering and painting has been done in the interior.

Pool figures for last year compiled by E. J. Langendorf, park board secretary, showed swimmers as follows: free 4152, adult 6032, children 4338, afternoon swimmers for children at 5c per ticket 1748, or a total of 16,270 for the season. They showed 1291 lockers, 238 dressing rooms, 874 towels, 318 suits and 196 shirts were rented and 105 persons took showers.
