

"Top of the Town" Week-End Feature at Catlow Theatre

"Romeo and Juliet" Ends Run Friday; "Wake Up and Live" Coming

"Romeo and Juliet," starring Norma Shearer and Leslie Howard, will finish its run at the Catlow on Thursday and Friday. Hal Roach introduces a new and decided stellar comedy team, Patsy Kelly and Lydia Robert, in their initial full length feature comedy "Nobody's Baby," showing Saturday.

The picture is described as a laugh-out-loud comedy. Lydia Robert (Patsy Kelly) and Lena Marchetti (Lydia Robert) meet, applying for an amateur radio show addition, until the smash finish.

Double featured with "Nobody's Baby" is "Breathing Home," with William Gargan, Blinnie Barnes and Wendy Barrie.

The newest thing in screen musicals, "Top of the Town," has been booked for a two-day engagement at the Catlow starting Sunday.

The offering hits a high note, with comedy developed by ten stressing swing music, varied different comedians and a dancing, singing chorus that captures the eye and ear.

Dick Foran, popular, big, red-headed singing cowboy, returns to the Catlow Tuesday to please his fans with the melodrama, "Land Beyond the Law."

This is said to be a lively tale dealing with the pioneer days of the territory of New Mexico, when it was described as a land beyond all law by General Lew Wallace, who was its first governor.

Double featured with "Land Beyond the Law," is "Her Husband Lee," with Gail Patrick, Ricardo Cortez, Akim Tamiroff, June Marston and Tom Brown.

"Wake Up and Live," which opens Wednesday for a three-day run with Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie and Alice Faye in the featured roles, 19th Century-Fox pictures believes that it has the sweetest, hottest, most glamorous and glorious musical ever turned out by that studio.

"Wake Up and Live" offers not only the intriguing spectacle of Winchell and Bernie feuding face-to-face, but also the singing, dancing and smoldering of Alice Faye, Lovell and more affecting than ever: the laugh-provoking antics of Patsy Kelly, Ned Sparks and Jack Healy; and nine smash song hits by those kings of song writing, Gordon and Revel.
