

Odd Fellows Will Hold Installation at Ritual Tonight

Delbert Weber and F. C. Riecke Head Chapter; Report Appointments

Delbert O. Weber will be installed as noble grand of the local chapter of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at a ritual to be conducted tonight, Thursday, in the chapter rooms, 117 E. Station street. Fred C. Riecke will be installed as vice grand.

Appointive officers announced for the installation by Mr. Weber are as follows: C. H. Shiley, right supporter to the noble grand; E. H. Nicolai, left supporter to the noble grand; J. Goldman, right supporter to the vice grand; Donald Jura, left supporter to the vice grand; Walter Witte, warden; Arnold Kohner, conductor; Herman Stewart and Arthur Busman, song supporters; George Hais, outside guardian; John Abel, inside guardian; George Johnson, chaplain.

Following are the chairman of the appointive committees for the year: H. Wiest, finance; J. Goldman, delinquent; C. H. Shiley, visiting; K. McGowan, entertainment.

Installation will be done by the lodge and will not be witnessed by visitors. A social hour will follow.

Chapter Rice is the retiring noble grand.

Real Estate Board Urges Lake County to Waive Penalties

Representatives of the Waukegan and North Chicago real estate boards will go before the Lake county board of supervisors next month to ask that the county waive all penalties for a period of three months on delinquent real estate and personal property taxes which are now being collected in a drive ordered recently by the county board.

The campaign to collect delinquent taxes has been placed in charge of Attorney Okel S. Fugus of the state's attorney's office.

Approximately $3,500,000 is now delinquent in real estate and personal property taxes. It is reported.

The committee to come before the board of supervisors will include Oscar Roderquist, L. J. Yeager, James Reese and Leo Dailley.

Townsend Speaks to 1,000 at Lake Zurich Gathering

More than 1,000 persons greeted Dr. F. E. Townsend at Nestle Rest, Lake Zurich, Sunday afternoon, for the grand picnic and rally of Townsend clubs in this vicinity. There were representatives of eight states: Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio, Massachusetts, Indiana, Iowa, Florida and California.

Music was provided by an orchestra, The Evangelists. In addition to the address by Dr. Townsend, there were brief talks by other dignitaries and a short speech by Mrs. Townsend who pledged her support of the cause in the event of her husband's absence due to any unforeseen cause.

"Uncle Bill" of Boston, Mass., amused the crowd by kicking six inches higher than his head in spite of his 87 years.

Deep Rock Oil Corp. to Erect New Plant

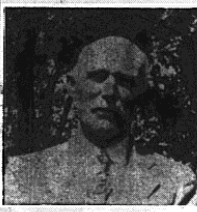

The Deep Rock Oil corporation this week announced the purchase of a lot, 64 ft frontage on West Main street and 132 ft frontage on South Lakeshore street, to be improved with a modern service station. Purchase was made from Mrs. J. F. Hollister, 143 W. Main street, for an undisclosed amount.

Awarding of contract for the excavation was made Tuesday, including the structure to be a greasing and wash rack and other features for automobile maintenance. The location is directly east and across the street from the present site of the firm's business. Loading facilities for the wholesale delivery will be kept there.

Miss Lillian Loggans, 287 W. Main street, has been elected president of Waterworks school, 624 No. 9, Barrington township, for the 1937-1938 term.

George Hager Is Eldest Member at Family Reunion at Algonquin

George Hager of Barrington will celebrate his eightieth birthday Friday, as the oldest member of the Kublank clan to attend the family reunion held in the grade school gymnasium at Algonquin Sunday. One hundred guests were present from Barrington, Waukegan, Libertyville, McHenry, Huntary, Roseland, Argo, Elgin, Dundee and Algonquin.

GEORGE HAGER

Guests from Barrington, in addition to Mr. Hager, were Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hager, Miss Louella Hager and Fred Riecke. Other

Three Men Drown in Nearby Waters; Seven Are Rescued

Dentist Victim at Wauconda; Two Boats Over Dam at St. Charles

Two persons were drowned in Lake county lakes over the weekend and a drowning was reported near Barron's Bridge in Fox river in McHenry county. Seven persons narrowly escaped death when two boats were swept over the dam in the Fox river at St. Charles.

Dr. J. Donovan Bohr, 33 years old, a dentist attached to the Illinois state hospital for the insane at Dunning, was drowned at Bangs Lake in Wauconda Sunday afternoon. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. He was out in a motor boat with several young boys.

According to reports, the boat tipped over when a short turn was attempted. Dr. Bohr was credited with rescuing the youths before going down himself. His body was recovered an hour later.

Surviving are his wife, sister and father, John Bohr of Wauconda. The dead man was a classmate of Dr. Floyd Lindberg of Barrington at dental college.

Ray Coquillette, 22 years old, 1316 N. Ridgeway avenue, Chicago, was drowned at Peletic lake, Coquillette had gone to the lake to visit some relatives, testimony

Continued on page 5

Sues for Title in Land Deeded to Old P.L.Z. and W. Road

A. J. Kitson has filed suit in circuit court of Cook county against the receiver of the defunct Palatine, Lake Zurich and Wauconda railroad and the Chicago and North Western railroad to recover land not now used by the road in Palatine as well as $25,000 damages.

The complainant relates that his parent the late Joseph Kitson and wife, in 1910 deeded land to the old company for railroad use; it has not been used for the last five years.

As heir of his parents, he claims to have inherited an interest in this land, and has secured the rights of his brothers and sisters to it. He is now seeking to enforce his claimed title.

Christians Daughter

The infant daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Koening, Barbara Marie, was christened during the Sunday morning service at St. Paul church. Her father, Rev. Koening, officiated. Dr. Elfrida Horst and Mrs. E. Holm of Chicago, were the sponsors. Mr. and Mrs. W. Mueller of Barrington had their three children, Paul, Julia and Irene, were christened at the service also.

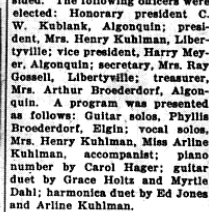

Aired Family Breaker

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Brewer attended a family reunion at the Waterworks Park at Morrison, Ill., Sunday.

Frank A. Hecht Is Re-Elected Head of Countryside Group

W. Busse and O. G. Barrett Talk Monday Night at Country Club

Frank A. Hecht was re-elected president of the Countryside Property Owners' association at the annual meeting held at Barrington Hills Country club Monday evening.

FRANK A. HECHT

Others officers from last year were re-elected and include: F. L. Bateman, vice president; John L. Bell, secretary; C. A. Elsner, treasurer.

Approximately 75 members and guests were present to hear William Busse of Mt. Prospect, Cook county commissioner, who talked on taxes and tax expenditures. He suggested a "breathing spell" in the spending of money in order to relieve property owners.

Pays $74.45 Damages for Hitting Hydrant

Eugene Beck, 6739 Newgard street, Chicago, paid $74.45 damages well as small fines and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving before Police Magistrate A. D. Church Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Beck was arrested on the charge June 19 when the rear tire on his car blew out, sending the machine crashing into a village water hydrant on the curve of the Northwest highway near Grimm's Service Station.

The $74.45 was the cost to the village for repairing the hydrant, which sprung a leak following the collision.

Cook County Tax Bills Will Show Increase for 1936

Barrington Town Basic Rate Is $1.47; Over 1935 by 35 Cents

Bills for the 1936 taxes in Cook county showing a general increase in rates will be mailed out to property owners in Barrington within the next ten days. Mrs. Pearl Adams, collector, reported this week. Real estate bills are payable in two installments but personal property taxes are payable in one installment only.

The office of the collector will be located at Brewer Motor Sales, 203 E. Cook street, beginning July 2. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. daily, except Sunday. Saturday evenings the office will be open from 6 to 8.

The basic rate for the town of Barrington, forest preserve, town, poor relief and road and bridge, is $1.47. The rate for the village of Barrington is $1.05, and for the park district $9 cents. These operating property in the village and the park district and school district No. 4 will pay on a rate of $5.57.

The increase in tax rates this year over 1935 and previously was due to increased expenditures by taxing bodies and by the reduction in assessed valuation on property. H. A. Schroeder, deputy collector, said.

A comparison of the 1935 rates shows that the county was 57 cents, forest preserve 4 cents, town 1 cent.

Will Celebrate First Anniversary July 10

The Leadway store, 107 E. Main street, will celebrate its first anniversary next Thursday, July 10. Edward Lind, proprietor, opened the combined grocery and meat market last July after a month of preparation. He had been employed in the meat department of the A & P Store.

Falls From Ladder

Falling from the top of a six foot step ladder, Patrick Carr, five years old, received body bruises and an elbow dislocation Sunday afternoon while playing on a ladder in the yard of his father's home, 117 W. Main street.

Youth Injures Hand Celebrating Fourth

The first casualty attributed to the use of fireworks was reported Tuesday when Spencer Catlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Catlow, fractured his hand on the handle of a car door that he ran into when he was getting away from a lighted firecracker.

The accident occurred on East Russell street near the Catlow home. The driver of the car was William Klingenberg Jr., who reported it to the police. The youth tore his hand on the handle when he attempted to push away from the moving machine. Two stitches were needed to close the wound.

Spencer had lighted a firecracker, and tossing it on the car, ran out on the road to escape the explosion. It was then that he struck the car.

Chief of Police Baede has joined in the state-wide movement to prevent death and injury by fireworks over the Fourth of July holiday by urging the cooperation of parents.

Vacation School to Give Program at Salem Church

Enrollment Reaches 126; Pupils Hear Talk on Leprosy

Pupils of the two-week daily vacation Bible school now in session at Barrington public school will close the season's work with a program at Salem church Friday afternoon. Enrollment at the school totaled 126.

The program will begin at 7:30 p. m. and will correspond to the morning worship period observed by the school of daily according to the Leoben Plagge, superintendent.

Each of the five groups at school, kindergarten, primary, junior, intermediate and senior, will have a short part. There will be songs, scripture readings and prayers. After the program, which is open to the public, the audience will be invited to see a display of handwork accomplished by the various classes.

Miss Lulu D. Ervin of the American Mission to Lepers addressed the school during its assembly Monday afternoon. She showed and showed moving pictures of lepers at Corea. There are 189 leper centers in 49 countries, she told the children, and at the centers, 100,000 lepers are being cared for themselves. About ten per cent are cured of their disease and dismissed, Miss Ervin stated.

Institute Crossing Protection Monday

Protection for the Hough street crossing of the Chicago and North Western railroad was started this week with the placing of two watchmen at that point. Elmer Hammond and Clarence Owens are working on two eight-hour shifts. The hours are from 6 a. m. until 10 p. m.

A shanty is to be placed at the crossing for the watchmen soon, Harry Hammond, local agent, reported.

Will Probated

The will of the late Otto C. Neumann, who died in Arlington Heights May 9, has been admitted to probate in Cook county probate court. It disposed of an estate valued at $3500 in real estate which is left to his daughter, Dorothy Neumann, who is also named executrix.

Veteran Railroad Man Retires; Known to Many Commuters Here

The man with the red carnation is gone! John Dulin, a familiar sight to thousands of commuters on the Wisconsin division of the Chicago and North Western railroad, tucked his ticket punch away last Wednesday and retired after 52 years spent as brakeman and conductor for the North Western.

He plans to leave Janesville, Wis., very soon with his wife and dog for a long motor tour of the country. Also, his leisure will permit him to visit at will with his brother, Michael Dulin, and niece and nephew-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George McLoughlin, 518 Summit street, Barrington.

No Building Permits

No building permits were issued in the village of Barrington by Bernard Gerlach, building commissioner, during the week ending June 30. This is the first such month of activity.

Lions Club Plans Big Barrington Festival

Heads Festival

A five-day fall festival with entertainment, commercial and industrial exhibits, community promotional stunts, and many other features will be undertaken by the Barrington Lions club at some time late in September or early in October, according to a decision of the organization reached at a regular meeting Monday night.

A large tent will house the commercial and industrial exhibits. No arrangements have been made for location of the tent, but Martin Schreier, chairman of the festival committee, pointed out that some vacant lot or large plot of ground as near the center of town as possible will be used. The festival will open on a Tuesday and continue through the following Saturday.

A community parade, local and imported entertainment, band, orchestra and vocal music, have been suggested as part of the program. The festival will be made sufficiently interesting to attract visitors from surrounding and nearby rural and village communities.

The central committee, which was appointed Monday night by President F. L. Lindberg, includes in addition to Mr. Schreier, the following members: Louis Miller, A. D. Church, I. G. Hager, Q. R. Paulson, Earl Schwemm, Dr. Earl E. Kleinwachter, and John Caldwell. Mr. Schreier, chairman of the festival committee, pointed out that some vacant lot or large plot of ground as near the center of town as possible will be used. The festival will open on a Tuesday and continue through the following Saturday.

J. Robertson Starts Eighteenth Year in Postal Service Here

Joseph D. Robertson today began his eighteenth year of service at the Barrington post office. Coincidentally, announcement was made of his appointment as assistant postmaster at this office.

Mr. Robertson served as postmaster at Barrington for 12 years, having been appointed in 1920 by President Woodrow Wilson. He resigned as postmaster in 1931 to enter the service as a civil service employe.

During Mr. Robertson's tenure as postmaster the office was advanced from third to second class, and city delivery service was instituted. About two years prior to Mr. Robertson's resignation, the office was moved to its present location and a complete new equipment and fixtures were installed. Postmasters who inspected the office at that time praised the equipment and arrangement as the last in accordance with the latest efficiency, many postmasters of first class offices stating that it excelled theirs in these respects.

E. Hatje to State Capital on Flint Creek Bridge Plan

Earl Hatje, village president, was expected home today, Thursday, from Springfield where he would talk to state highway officials on the proposed to improve the bridge over Flint creek on the Northwest highway at Jewel park.

Mr. Hatje was in conference with Otto Lieberman, state highway engineer who favorably received his suggestions. The village board desires to have the state build a new bridge crossing by building a new bridge, extending the present one to allow a greater depth to the bed of Flint creek at that point.

Post Office Closed on Monday, July 5

The 4th of July falling on Sunday, the Barrington post office will observe Independence Day as a holiday Monday, July 5.

There will be no rural or city delivery service on that day, but window service will be given between the hours of 9 and 10 a. m. and arrangements have been made to have both rural and city carriers distribute their mails so that patrons ordinarily receiving their mail by carrier delivery may receive it by calling at the post office for it between those hours, if they so desire.

A. H. Hoerneckes at Old School Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoernecke, 416 Grove avenue, attended the first reunion of schoolmates and teachers of the Centennial school near Bloomington, in McLean county, Sunday.

A program of songs, special music and a speech by Assistant State's Attorney Bain were part of the entertainment. Picnic lunch was served to 300 guests. An interesting feature of the day was the impromptu talks made by all former pupils and teachers.

Leaves for Europe

Miss Harriet Parker who has been giving piano lessons in Barrington for the past few years left for France on the steamship Washington Wednesday. Miss Parker will continue her studies with teachers of the Philippe, dean of pianists at the Paris Conservatory of Music and later go to Salzburg, Austria for the music festival.

Professor Joseph E. Chaput of Barrington presented his students in a varied program of piano and violin numbers at the Chicago Music Guild, Chicago, Wednesday, June 15. Mrs. Chaput was accompanied for the recital.

5-Day Celebration and Exhibit to Be Held Here in Fall

Central Committee Ready to Start Work on Big Undertaking

A five-day fall festival with entertainment, commercial and industrial exhibits, community promotional stunts, and many other features will be undertaken by the Barrington Lions club at some time late in September or early in October, according to a decision of the organization reached at a regular meeting Monday night.

A large tent will house the commercial and industrial exhibits. No arrangements have been made for location of the tent, but Martin Schreier, chairman of the festival committee, pointed out that some vacant lot or large plot of ground as near the center of town as possible will be used. The festival will open on a Tuesday and continue through the following Saturday.

A community parade, local and imported entertainment, band, orchestra and vocal music, have been suggested as part of the program. The festival will be made sufficiently interesting to attract visitors from surrounding and nearby rural and village communities.

The central committee, which was appointed Monday night by President F. L. Lindberg, includes in addition to Mr. Schreier, the following members: Louis Miller, A. D. Church, I. G. Hager, Q. R. Paulson, Earl Schwemm, Dr. Earl E. Kleinwachter, and John Caldwell. Mr. Schreier, chairman of the festival committee, pointed out that some vacant lot or large plot of ground as near the center of town as possible will be used. The festival will open on a Tuesday and continue through the following Saturday.

J. Robertson Starts Eighteenth Year in Postal Service Here

Joseph D. Robertson today began his eighteenth year of service at the Barrington post office. Coincidentally, announcement was made of his appointment as assistant postmaster at this office.

Mr. Robertson served as postmaster at Barrington for 12 years, having been appointed in 1920 by President Woodrow Wilson. He resigned as postmaster in 1931 to enter the service as a civil service employe.

During Mr. Robertson's tenure as postmaster the office was advanced from third to second class, and city delivery service was instituted. About two years prior to Mr. Robertson's resignation, the office was moved to its present location and a complete new equipment and fixtures were installed. Postmasters who inspected the office at that time praised the equipment and arrangement as the last in accordance with the latest efficiency, many postmasters of first class offices stating that it excelled theirs in these respects.

E. Hatje to State Capital on Flint Creek Bridge Plan

Earl Hatje, village president, was expected home today, Thursday, from Springfield where he would talk to state highway officials on the proposed to improve the bridge over Flint creek on the Northwest highway at Jewel park.

Mr. Hatje was in conference with Otto Lieberman, state highway engineer who favorably received his suggestions. The village board desires to have the state build a new bridge crossing by building a new bridge, extending the present one to allow a greater depth to the bed of Flint creek at that point.

Post Office Closed on Monday, July 5

The 4th of July falling on Sunday, the Barrington post office will observe Independence Day as a holiday Monday, July 5.

There will be no rural or city delivery service on that day, but window service will be given between the hours of 9 and 10 a. m. and arrangements have been made to have both rural and city carriers distribute their mails so that patrons ordinarily receiving their mail by carrier delivery may receive it by calling at the post office for it between those hours, if they so desire.

A. H. Hoerneckes at Old School Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoernecke, 416 Grove avenue, attended the first reunion of schoolmates and teachers of the Centennial school near Bloomington, in McLean county, Sunday.

A program of songs, special music and a speech by Assistant State's Attorney Bain were part of the entertainment. Picnic lunch was served to 300 guests. An interesting feature of the day was the impromptu talks made by all former pupils and teachers.

Leaves for Europe

Miss Harriet Parker who has been giving piano lessons in Barrington for the past few years left for France on the steamship Washington Wednesday. Miss Parker will continue her studies with teachers of the Philippe, dean of pianists at the Paris Conservatory of Music and later go to Salzburg, Austria for the music festival.

Professor Joseph E. Chaput of Barrington presented his students in a varied program of piano and violin numbers at the Chicago Music Guild, Chicago, Wednesday, June 15. Mrs. Chaput was accompanied for the recital.