

Annual American Legion Carnival Will Open Monday

Nightly Event at Ball Park, Washington and Hough, August 2-7

Members of the Barrington post of the American Legion this week are completing committee arrangements for the annual carnival to be held at the ball park, Washington and Hough streets, starting Monday and continuing through Saturday, Aug. 2 to 7. The carnival is open nightly.

The Wanda Shows will furnish the amusements this year, bringing several new rides with it. The Breen Athletic show from Elgin will be on the grounds, and wrestling and boxing matches will be featured each night. Other amusements are being planned but details are incomplete at present.

The Barrington post is arranging concessions and will be in charge of each of the heading committees as follows:

William Kessler, H. Brandt, Cecil Paxton, Andrew Bjornberg, Lloyd Albrecht, Arthur Cartens, Norv Stayer, Harry Conaman, George Kuebler, W. Blood, Dr. W. Sandell, Paul Purcell, and K. Shoup.

Semi-Annual Report on Social Security Due From Employers

Before the end of this week, employers covered by the old-age benefits program of the social security act are required to make reports on the wages paid to each of their employes for the first six months of this year to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

H. L. McCarthy, regional director of the board, in making an announcement said that these reports are to be submitted on forms known as SS-2 and SS-2a.

"In order to fill out the reports properly each employer must have the social security account number of each of the workers whom he has employed since January 1," he said. "A record of the wages paid each employe to be held by the board for use when determining the benefits due him or his estate."

320 Acres of Farm Land Purchased in Palatine Township

The sale of 320 acres of farm land in Palatine township was revealed Friday in a deed filed with Cook county recorder, Edward J. Keadell. The property, located in the northeast corner of Palatine and Rohling roads, was purchased by Walter P. Senne from the estate of Julie F. Brower, deceased.

Friday Is Deadline to Pay 1936 Taxes Here

Friday, July 20, is the deadline for the payment of personal property and the first installment of 1936 real estate taxes in Barrington township at the local tax collector's office, B. A. Schroeder, deputy collector reported Wednesday.

Sewer Rental Charge Suit Is Continued

A motion for a continuance made by W. U. Bardwell, attorney for the defendant, was granted Saturday by Police Magistrate A. D. Church in the suit between the Chicago Board of Health and Edward Glenske for delinquent sewer rental charges.

Two Men Drown in Bangs and Sloum Lakes at Wauconda

Joseph Wojek victim Friday; Edward Frantz second fatality Sunday

Bangs and Sloum Lakes at Wauconda claimed the lives of two swimmers on Friday and Sunday of this week. The body of Joseph Wojek, 23, of the North avenue YMCA, Chicago, was recovered by volunteers Sunday following his drowning Friday in Bangs lake at Wauconda.

Wojek, who was unable to swim, disappeared in the water, which was estimated to be from 30 to 50 feet deep. Volunteers from the Wauconda fire department dragged the lake Sunday in an effort to recover the body.

Barrington Bears Take First Loss in Elgin State Baseball Tourney

The Barrington Bears suffered their first defeat in quest of the state baseball championship when they dropped a contest by a 2 to 1 score to the North Chicago Stankals at Elgin tournament park Wednesday night. This was the first defeat for the Bears; two were necessary before a team could be eliminated from the tournament.

Appoint Committee Members for Lions Festival, Oct. 5-9

Select Personnel to Arrange Program for Event in Fall

Appointment was made Monday night of committee members to arrange for the fall festival to be held here October 5 to 9 inclusive under the sponsorship of the Barrington Lions club. M. H. Schreiber, central committee chairman, announced the list of men who will be asked to serve.

The committee includes in addition to Schreiber the following persons: Louis Miller, A. D. Church, I. G. Hager, Q. R. Paulson, Earl M. Schwem, Dr. E. E. Kleinwächter and J. C. Cadwallader.

Finance: I. G. Hager, E. J. Miller, Rev. P. J. Hayes, E. S. Smith, H. H. Wentz, E. J. Langendorf, Dr. F. W. Lindberg, H. R. Brintlinger, H. H. Calkins. Car: E. M. Schwem, A. D. Church, Dr. E. E. Kleinwächter, J. C. Cadwallader, F. W. Schroeder, William Stone, A. E. Bateman, R. A. Granger, J. A. McLeister, F. Hecht, Fred Fleming, Burton Hoffman, Joseph Welch, Village President E. H. Hattie, Village Trustees John J. Carroll, John P. Daeschler, N. O. Plage, R. F. Kocher Sr., J. H. Blanke, R. F. Berger.

Hold Services for George Schumacher

George Schumacher, 48 years old, died Thursday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William O. Schumacher, 213 E. Liberty street, was buried Sunday after services at the late residence of Peter Evangelical church in Lake Zurich. Interment was in St. Paul cemetery in Barrington, and Rev. Elmer Ringe of Long Grove officiated.

Mrs. R. Bennett to Talk at Home Bureau Annual Garden Party

The Lake county Home Bureau will hold its annual garden party Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, August 2, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Blunby on Grand avenue, three miles west of Garage.

Mrs. Irvin Landwer Dies; Buried Sunday

Last rites for Mrs. Irvin Landwer, 413 E. Main street, were held at the late residence and the Salem Evangelical church Sunday afternoon with burial in Evergreen cemetery. Rev. W. A. Stauffer and Rev. Philip Buscher, former pastor of Salem church, officiated.

Barrington Review Is One of Three Illinois Weekly Newspapers to Win National Awards

The above is a photocopy, reduced in size, of the N.E.A.'s certificate of award to the Barrington Review for placing in the best newspaper production contest.

Garden Club Plans Flower Show, Fair, Monday, August 2

The Garden Club of Barrington will have a flower show and country fair at Barrington Hills Country club from 11 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Monday.

Mrs. Warren McCracken, chairman of the flower show, announced that members may submit entries for five classes: 1, flower arrangements; 2, breakfast tables; 3, vegetable or fruit arrangements for dining room tables; 4, flowers in metal containers; 5, specimen blooms.

Members of the Countryside Garden club of Barrington have been invited to visit the show and fair from 4 to 5:30 p. m.

W. Hixon Purchases Home; Work Starts on J. Sewill House

W. L. Hixon, who has been making his home in the Clara Klingenberg residence in Cuba township, will purchase the house of Brinker road, formerly occupied by the S. White family. Mr. Hixon was formerly of Toledo, O.

Mrs. R. Bennett to Talk at Home Bureau Annual Garden Party

The Lake county Home Bureau will hold its annual garden party Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, August 2, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Blunby on Grand avenue, three miles west of Garage.

Mrs. Bennett is well-known in Lake county and is leaving shortly to return to South America to join her husband.

Wayfarer Shop Will Continue Business

Various departments of The Wayfarer, 251 W. Main street, are continuing business under direction of their heads, Mrs. William H. Keefe, who is running the Wayfarer branch of Merton Inc., interior decorating, Miss Mary Grubbs, clothes, and luncheon is being served daily, it was reported.

Sheet Metal Worker Injured by Falling from Roof Scaffold

Alfred Roebuck, 716 Ashland avenue, Chicago, a sheet metal worker employed by the General Sheet Metal Works of Chicago, was internally injured when he fell from a scaffolding of a building on the O. Casper property west of Barrington Saturday.

Picnickers at Lake Zurich Get Stolen Auto After Chase

Walter Stevens, 23, 819 Rose street, Chicago, is being held in the Lake county jail on a charge of stealing an automobile from a picnicker at Lake Zurich Sunday. He will appear on a larceny charge before Justice of the Peace Henry Wallenstein July 30.

Stevens was alleged to have taken the automobile belonging to Frank A. Garolik, 851 N. Damen avenue, Chicago, at the parking lot on the Whitney farm at Lake Zurich. Garolik, who was attending a picnic, noticed his car being driven away and summoned Robert Bohm, 1209 Huron street, and Gilbert Romb, 1527 Walton street, Chicago, auto picnickers.

Giving chase in Romb's car, they stopped Stevens at Glencoe and turned him over to the Glencoe police. Lake county deputies were summoned and Stevens was taken to the jail at Waukegan.

W. Hixon Purchases Home; Work Starts on J. Sewill House

W. L. Hixon, who has been making his home in the Clara Klingenberg residence in Cuba township, will purchase the house of Brinker road, formerly occupied by the S. White family. Mr. Hixon was formerly of Toledo, O.

Included in the purchase are five acres of land, including the house listed on the title. Estimated price was undisclosed. The house is located on Orchard Hills road, recently built for the development of the K. Smith property, east of Barrington.

J. Sewill was reported as purchaser of 18 acres of ground adjacent to the present holdings and the Merton estate on Brinker road. R. Huzag was broker for both of the above transactions. Construction was started this week on the Sewill residence, which is estimated to cost $60,000.

Wayfarer Shop Will Continue Business

Various departments of The Wayfarer, 251 W. Main street, are continuing business under direction of their heads, Mrs. William H. Keefe, who is running the Wayfarer branch of Merton Inc., interior decorating, Miss Mary Grubbs, clothes, and luncheon is being served daily, it was reported.

Sheet Metal Worker Injured by Falling from Roof Scaffold

Alfred Roebuck, 716 Ashland avenue, Chicago, a sheet metal worker employed by the General Sheet Metal Works of Chicago, was internally injured when he fell from a scaffolding of a building on the O. Casper property west of Barrington Saturday.

One of only three newspapers in Illinois to win an award in the 1936-1937 national newspaper contests conducted by the National Editorial Association, the Barrington Review was presented with a certificate (as reproduced at left) at the N.E.A. convention in Detroit last week.

The Review was awarded third in the better newspaper production contest in which points were scored on the following basis: front page 10, editorial page 10, advertising 20, remainder of paper 20, selection of type, borders and illustrations 15, typography and illustrations 10, mechanical workmanship 10, and addressing and wrapping 5. This contest was open to all weekly newspapers regardless of size or form or size of community in which published. Awards were as follows: First, Montclair, N. J. Times; second, Archbold, Ohio, Buckeye; third, Barrington, Ill. Review. Notable mention, New Canaan, Conn. Advertiser; Cobleskill, N. Y., Times, and LadySmith, Wis., News. The judges of this contest were Louis H. Zimsky, Chicago, publisher and Claude James of Elk-horn, Wis., and M. J. Chapman of Waterloo, Wis., all publishers of daily newspapers.

The contest list was open to weekly newspapers published anywhere in the United States, but most of the entries were publications which had received previous awards.

Lions Urge Local Business Men to Visit Lake Lawn

All business men of Barrington and their families are being invited by a committee from the Lions club to attend its annual picnic and outing which will be held at Lake Lawn, Delavan, Wis., Thursday, Aug. 5.

A group will meet at the Standard Motor company, 203 Railroad street, in Chicago, next Thursday to drive to Lake Lawn in a body. Individual cars will join the rest later.

The program of entertainment will include a day of golfing, special games for ladies, a "Sox versus Cubs" ball game in the afternoon and featured entertainers during the dinner hour. Dinner will be served at the Lake Lawn hotel dining room in the evening, but families will take picnic lunches with them for the noon hour.

Swimming and boat rides were listed as special attractions. Dancing will conclude the day's activities.

Q. R. Paulson is serving as the chairman of the Lions committee which is inviting local business men to join the outing. Members of this committee are Dr. W. A. Fanning, A. H. Sasa, A. Kohbert and Earl Kleinwachter.

Barrington, Wheaton Swimmers to Compete at Local Pool August 8

Barrington's first home swimming meet is scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 8, when Wheaton swimmers will come to general talent a contest to vindicate a 45 to 13 drubbing at Wheaton Sunday. The program at North Side pool will begin at 4:30 p. m.

Suit for $10,000 Damages is Filed in Workman Death

Brief Filed in Superior Court of Cook County Saturday

Suit was filed in superior court of Cook county Saturday by Nolan E. Workman, 21 George street, administrator of the estate of his daughter, Evelyn, to recover $10,000 damages from Paul Zidek of Barrington for the girl's death following the auto accident May 25.

The 12-year-old girl died at the Sherman hospital in Elgin May 27 of injuries received when the car in which she was riding was struck by the car driven by Zidek.

The accident occurred on East Main street near the intersection of George street. The driver of the car was identified as Paul Zidek. The accident occurred when Zidek was passing his car. Failure to have a light on the bicycle prevented him from seeing the girl. Zidek told E. Wessel, former night patrolman who investigated.

Board of Review Is Hearing Complaints; Cuba Not Completed

The Lake county board of review is making steady progress in reviewing property value assessments preliminary to making personal inspections on complaints received on 13 township assessors' books now on hand. The other 890 assessors' books are being reviewed by the board, composed of Homer T. Cook, John E. Hayes Sr. and Frank J. Ronan, within 10 days after the assessors turn over their books.

Objections to assessments in 13 of the townships must file their complaints with the board before August 2. These towns are: Elia, Wauconda, Vernon, West Deuzfeld, Promont, Warren, East Grand Lake, Villa, Antioch, Newport and Zion. In Benton the deadline is August 5.

Up to noon Tuesday 92 written complaints had been received by the board. Instead of entering each objection to an assessment as a single complaint, the board this year is combining objections to lots in any one subdivision owned by a single person or company into a single complaint thereby avoiding unnecessary work and complications.

Return From West

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wewetter and Mrs. Harry Berghorn of Garfield street have returned from a 10 days' trip to Yellowstone park. They spent five days motoring through the park and from there visited the following places: Salt Lake City, the Royal Gorge, Colorado Springs, Pike's Peak and Denver.

Baltimore Police Securing

Extensive preparations have been completed for the Baltimore Police of 1917 which will be held at the Elgin Country club Saturday evening. A dinner, special entertainment and dancing have been planned. The party will start at 7:30 o'clock.