

"Saratoga," Last Harlow Picture, Opens at Catlow

"The Emperor's Candlesticks," Showing Here Sunday and Monday

Laughs and tears, thrills and romance, mingle in "Saratoga," co-starring Clark Gable and Jean Harlow at the Catlow, playing three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. A vivid story of the race track, with paddock intrigue; a great race, unusual characters, in which the romance is woven, the play is an ideal one for these particular stars. They hate, fight, and love through an action-packed drama in which much whimsical comedy leaves the heavier moments.

William Powell and Luise Rainer, both nominated for the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences award for their performances of 1936, are united for the third time in "The Emperor's Candlesticks," which opens a two day showing at the Catlow Sunday.

"The Emperor's Candlesticks," based upon the best-seller novel by Baroness Cray, is a story of spy intrigue that rages across Europe at a madcap pace. The picture was directed by George Fitzmaurice, who surrounded Powell and Miss Rainer with a supporting cast of notable players, including Robert Young, Maureen O'Sullivan, Frank Morgan and Henry Stephenson.

The latest movie starring that shooting, singing cowboy, Dick Foran, doesn't belie his name, according to reviews sent in advance of his coming next Tuesday to the Catlow. It is a melodrama called "Blazing Sixes," and the numeral of course, refers to the six-guns with which Dick and his pals, and their enemies, the stage coach robbers, volley their way through the plot.

Double featured with "Blazing Sixes" is "The Lady Escapes," with Gloria Stuart, Michael Whalen and Cora Witherspoon.

Going far ahead for a picturesque setting for a movie, Warner Bros. this time chose Iraq (which used to be Arabia) as a locale. They placed a British garrison there, had its members surrounded by wild natives, and offered the problem of how the soldiers and their officers and wives were to be saved—if saved they might be. "Another Dawn" is the name of the picture. It is scheduled to open Wednesday at the Catlow.

Double Main Event Headlines Card at Round Lake Arena

A double main event will headline the weekly all-star professional wrestling card in Pag's Round Lake arena this Friday night when Jim McMillen, leading contender for the world's championship, comes to grips with the Black Panther of the Northwest, Jack Clayburn, sensational colored star and co-conqueror of Rudy Kay, in one of the feature attractions, and Fred Graber, famous Iowa scissor king, mixes with 330 pound Chief Oley Sanooko, giant Haskell Indian ace, in the other.

Using his spectacular flying kangaroo drop kick, Clayburn fatted rough and tough Rudy Kay in the most thrilling contest of the year at Round Lake last Friday night, and in so doing earned a match with "Big" Jim McMillen. McMillen will attempt to end the colored champion's string of five local wins, but local spectators are divided in their opinions as to whether Mac will be able to "put it over" his clever opponent.

The other wind-up bout should be another thriller with the giant Indian on the warpath claiming he was "given the works" in his match with McMillen several years ago at Round Lake. The Chief hopes to prove his apt to another chance at that scissor king, but Grubby has ideas of his own, a McMillen match and plans to demand one if he gets past Sanooko.

In the preliminary bouts three newcomers will be introduced to local fans for the first time. In one of the matches George Marston, 214 pound Arabian strongman and wrestler of note, will wrestle Able Kaplan, powerful Jewish star who has wrestled in every county in the globe. The other preliminary features another newcomer, Jack Conley, whose favorite hold is a punch in the jaw. This tough boy takes on "Bully Boy" Koptel, Canadian heavyweight champion. Conley is a boxer as well as a wrestler and is confident that he can outlast any of them.
