19th Armistice Day Is Celebrated at Program, Banquet

Honor Veterans at Public Square; Dinner Tonight

Barrington's ex-service men will be guests of honor at a dinner this evening marking the final event in the day's observance of the nineteenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice. Members of the Legion Auxiliary will be hostesses at the dinner which is being held at St. Ann's hall. About 85 guests are expected to attend.

Patriotic organizations of the village, the Legion, Legion Auxiliary, boy and girl scouts, Campfire girls, cub pack, sea scouts, Woman's Relief Corps and school children marched in a parade this morning which inaugurated celebration of the day. The line of march was from the public school to the village square.

Aerial bombs were set off at one minute intervals from ten minutes of eleven to eleven o'clock when the audience faced east in silent tribute to those who died in service.

The band then played "Nearer My God to Thee" and the pledge of allegiance to the American flag was given. Following a benediction by Father Philip Hayes, the flying squad saluted with three volleys and Scout Paul Poplman sounded taps.

Mrs. John Frey, president of the Auxiliary, will serve as toast mistress at the banquet this evening and Mrs. Emil Miller will be in charge of entertainment. There will be dancing and novel games.

Local Red Cross Committee Starts Membership Drive

School Children Canvassing Village; Campaign Ends Thanksgiving Day

A house-to-house campaign for membership in the Red Cross was started today by crews of school children cooperating with the Red Cross committee. The drive will continue until Thanksgiving day. Mrs. R. D. Wells, chairman of the Red Cross committee, is being assisted by Mrs. J. W. Langdale, Mrs. A. C. Lines, Mrs. L. F. O'Neill, Mrs. C. F. Rutledge, Mrs. Earl Stanley, and members of the philanthropy committee of the Barrington Woman's club which Mrs. H. R. Brintlinger is chairman.

The school children will operate in crews of two, and the town has been divided into sections for the canvassing which is expected to be completed in three days. A representative of the committee will be at the First National Bank of Barrington every day during banking hours for the duration of the drive. Memberships may be obtained there.

Poster publicity of the membership drive has been placed in the stores and a movie trailer of Red Cross work will be shown at the Collew theatre later.

Kane and C. Campbell, corn.

The items to be shown have been produced by the boys at their project work during the past year.

G-Man Says Felons Are Cowards Who Borrow Courage From Drugs

Bank robbers and other criminals are usually cowards who get "hopped up" or half full of liquor before committing their brazen crimes, Henry Krueger, former special agent with the federal bureau of investigation, told members of the Lions club Monday night.

Mr. Krueger, who is attorney for and assistant treasurer of Lions International, served several years as a G-man. He worked on many types of felony cases such as bank robbery, kidnapping, etc. Immediately following report of a bank robbery, police officers search out any liquor parties held in the community or nearby larger cities, and then they search for a bank job is a liquor party at which the thieves get themselves strongly stimulated with gin or drugs. If the scene of the party can be located, valuable clues usually can be picked up. Mr. Krueger said.

G-men were criticised for shooting Dillinger instead of capturing him alive.

"They did not give him a chance," the sob sisters complained, but would he have given any of the agents a chance had he drawn first?" Mr. Krueger asked.

"He had already killed a police officer, and we were not going to take a chance on further killings."

The speaker reported that 96 per cent of all arrests made by the Bureau of Investigation resulted in convictions, the highest percentage and best record made by any police organization in the world.

Mr. Krueger spoke before the Barrington and Ela high schools Monday afternoon.

Woman's Club to Present Program of Indian Dancing

Will Entertain Escorts and Junior Club Next Wednesday Night

The Barrington Woman's club will be hostess to escorts of its members and to members of the Junior Woman's club at an evening program in the Methodist church Wednesday, Nov. 17.

Charles Eagie Plume, a graduate of the University of Colorado, and a member of the Pitkan tribe of Blackfoot whose reservation is in Montana, will present Indian dances in beautiful, authentic costumes the significance of which he will explain. His dances will include those of various tribes and he will tell the meanings of different steps.

CHARLES EAGIE PLUME

In addition, Eagie Plume will discuss the development of languages, primitive music, the position of women in Indian society, and the function of tribal government.

Hostesses at the social hour which will conclude the program will be Mrs. H. Brintlinger, Mrs. Allan Welch, Mrs. Henry Dorwald, Mrs. H. W. Dotis, Mrs. C. A. Elmer, Mrs. Davis Ewing, Mrs. W. A. Fanning, Mrs. Fred C. Fleming, Mrs. George A. Folkrod, Mrs. L. Norman Frank, Mrs. Joseph Friedlander, Mrs. Thomas Gallagher, Mrs. A. G. Gieske, Mrs. B. P. Graber, Mrs. Robert Granger, Mrs. J. M. Gunthorp, Mrs. J. P. Hafner, Mrs. Stanley Jaffer, Miss Luella Hager, Mrs. R. H. Hammond, Mrs. Leslie Hansen, Mrs. J. H. Hargrave, Mrs. Howard Harnden, Mrs. E. J. Harris, Mrs. Frank Hecht Sr., Mrs. Frank Hecht Jr., and Mrs. L. I. Higgins. The club has 177 members.

Game Law Chisels Constables Out of Cut—Few Arrests; Hunter Shot

Laying down a barrage of shots reminiscent of war maneuvers, thousands of hunters took the field Wednesday morning for the opening of the pheasant hunting season. More bullets are brought shot than in the past several years, reports from hunters indicated. Pheasant season will close November 15.

One casualty marked the opening day when Edwin Mayzak, 2226 W. 21st Place, Chicago, was shot in the right shoulder as the shotgun carried by John Bronvik, also of Chicago, was accidentally discharged. The shot lodged in his shoulder, breaking the bone and tearing the muscles considerably.

According to meagre reports, Mayzak had just shot at a rabbit and in doing so, stubbed out a pheasant. Bronvik turned for a shot at the bird, and as he did, a twig struck the trigger, releasing it.

Mayzak was brought to Barrington for treatment and then taken to the former hospital in Elgin where he was reported resting comfortably Wednesday night.

A change in the state game law was said to be responsible for the fact that only two nineros were brought into court on hunting charges the opening day. Two hunters will appear before Police Magistrate A. D. Church Saturday, charged with hunting in the Deer Grove park preserve.

The change in the game law deprived constables, who previously were active in patrolling the country, from half the fines assessed against hunters for violations. This act automatically withdrew a large majority of the revenue formerly paid and as a consequence they are not very actively participating in game law enforcement. Of the four justices of the peace in Barrington and Cuba townships, not one had hunters brought before them on violation charges.

Because the constables, who are not required by statute to patrol for violations, were not in the field Wednesday, a number of hen chickens were shot during the game. Two were killed, it was learned.

Five Local High School Pupils on Illinois Program

Participate in All-State Orchestra and Chorus Concerts

Five local high school pupils took part in the all-state high school orchestra and chorus concerts given at the University of Illinois Friday evening.

The orchestra, consisting of 200 members, was directed by Dr. Joseph E. Maddy of the University of Michigan and Arthur Cohen of Urbana.

The chorus of 500 voices was directed by the Rev. G. C. Christiansen, Oberlin Conservatory, Ohio.

Barrington was represented by Ellen Sears and Florence Folkrod in the orchestra, and Helen Jurs, Richard Watson and Kenneth Fry in the chorus.

Ruth Drover and Edith Olson went in the interest of the Broncho, the school paper.

Miss Adelaide Ewing, Mrs. Clifford Stout and T. C. Hooford accompanied the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Sears and their daughter, Helen, Mrs. C. A. Hamilton, and Dawn Landwer motored down for the concert Friday evening.

Miss Elsie Wygant to Address P.T.A. on Juvenile Books

"Building Character Through Reading," is the subject to be discussed by Miss Elsie Wygant, director of Country Day school, who is teaching in the Hawaii Teacher association at the high school auditorium Tuesday, Nov. 16, at 8 p. m. The public has been invited to attend.

Due to her varied experiences in the teaching field, Miss Wygant is particularly well qualified to speak on this matter. Before coming to Barrington, she taught with John Dewey in the University elementary school and also at Francis Parker school, Chicago. In addition to this she has had extensive teaching in the Hawaii Teachers' training school and supervising social activities at Winnetka public schools and has been book consultant at a loop store.

Her latest teaching in the "Life of Horace Mann" will be given by high school students.

The last of the series of six Homemaking classes, sponsored by the Barrington Junior Woman's club will meet at the home of Miss Ruth Ahrens, 213 W. Russell street, Tuesday, Nov. 16. The meeting will also be a reception for new members, it was reported.

At Mission Union Mrs. C. H. Druseel and Mrs. J. R. Rowland of Barrington attended a mission union at the Woodlawn Baptist church, Chicago, Tuesday.

W. Guy Residence in Grand View Sub. Destroyed by Fire

Origin Undetermined; Owner Burned in Attempt to Save Some Goods

The William Guy residence in Grand View subdivision in Cuba township was destroyed by fire late Saturday, with a complete loss of household furnishings and clothing. Origin of the blaze was unknown, but is believed to have been caused by an oil burning stove. Mr. and Mrs. Guy were in the yard cutting wood and first were aware of the danger when they saw flames coming from the roof.

Mr. Guy made an attempt to enter the house to save some effects but was overcome by the smoke and heat. He was severely burned in his efforts and narrowly missed being a victim of the fire.

In addition to the complete loss of furniture and clothing, some currency was destroyed. Three bulldozers were killed. Twelve large trees were set on fire by the leaping flames. The financial loss has not been determined.

It was reported a call was made for the Fox River Fire department but no apparatus reached the scene.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy are staying with friends until another home can be established.

Rabies Epidemic Feared; One Dog Dies of Disease

Unless preventative measures are taken, an epidemic of rabies will be prevalent among local dogs, Chief of Police E. W. Baade warned today, following a report from the state department of health that the death of a dog here was caused by the disease. Another dog, which had bitten three persons Sunday and Monday had been confined for observation.

The head of a dog owned by Henry Sias, 128 W. Coolidge avenue, which died while under inspection at the Barrington animal hospital, 213 Grove avenue, was taken to Chicago where an examination revealed rabies as the cause. No members of the family were bitten by the animal, but they have taken medical treatment.

Three persons were bitten by the dog owned by Fred Tugel, 648 Ashland street, on Sunday and Monday. They were Mrs. Hattie Lageschulte, Barbara Ann Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brandt, and Mr. Tugel himself. The dog is now under observation at the animal hospital for possible rabies. Those bitten are taking treatments.

Chief of Police Baade requested dog owners to keep their pets confined within their premises. Last summer a number of cases were reported, but the epidemic apparently had run its course and nothing was reported until this week.
