VOLUME 49, NUMBER 48

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1987

Bishop E. Waldorf to Speak at

$2.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE, SINGLE COPIES, FIVE CENTS

Re-Elect John Bell President of N. W. Suburban Council

Hugh Calkins Also Named Vice President at Meeting Held Monday

elected to serve for the coming ar as president of the Northwest burban council, Boy Scouts of serica, at the annual dinner ay night. er 240 scouters, their wive nd friends were present at the which was preceded by the dinner which was preceded by the business meeting.

Hugh H. Calkins, also of Bar-riagton, was elected as one of the tice presidents to serve on the exception of the control of the control

Sullivan of Park Ridge, members at large.

In his address on "Crooked Trees and Straight Men." Carl J. Carison, the new regional scott excutive of region seven pointed out the need for wise guidance of their lives, comparing trees which organized and narrowed because of adverse growing conditions of their lives, comparing trees which have the propor planting and care. A board of review will be held next Tuesday evening, December 14, at the Boy Scott cabin for scents of Barrington, following which a continuaters' round table meeting will be held.

W. R. Chapel is chairman of the board of review and Henry Lipothty is district commissioner of board of review and Henry Lipothty is district commissioner of the last opportunity for socials to quality for advancement, it was reported.

Life of Lowery Is

Life of Lepers Is Talk Topic at St. Paul Church Sunday

Miss Magdalene Kroebler, a missionary from India, who is at home on a furlough, gave a lecture and five reels of moving pictures of the leper colony at Chandkure, India, at 8t. Paul church, Sunday, Miss Kroebler is the superintendunt of the nursee' training school at the colony, the ten survey training section the colony. Dressed in a lative costume, she we an unusually interesting and assessment address, see she showed ere seems tryical of lits at the per colony said how those able to so are taught to be self-supporting. Other films pictured mismary work among the lepers and edical procedure in the treatment leproer.

prosy. eceding Miss Kroehler's talk,

Highway Bridge to Be Opened to Traffic Within Few Days

The Filint creek bridge on North-west highway may Jowel Park will be opened for traffic either Satir-day or the first of the week, Village Trustes Radolpi Berg was included to the single of the Empire Construction company. The new project, widening bridge and installing saw approaches, as started in September and since then traffic on the Northwest the way has been routed through the eithage.

Judge-Elect

William L. Pierce. Belvidere attorney and republican candidate for the seventeenth judicial vacancy, was elected to that seat with a total of 25,136 votes in Lake. Mellenry, Boone and Winnebago counties Tuesday, beating the democratic candidate, George R. Lyon, Waukegan attorney, who received 15,417 votes, by a majority of 9719.

Pierce, who leaf

Pierce, who lead his opponent by 633 votes in Lake county, re-ceived his greatest majorities in Boone and McHenry counties. One record was established lo-cally in an otherwise light poil in the district. Cuba township had the biggest vote of any polling dis-trict in Lake county with the re-trict in Lake county with the re-trict in Lake county with the re-view of the county with the re-trict in Lake county with the re-view of the re-trict in Lake county.

was the highest Pierce received in Lake county.

In Ela township the roting was close, Pierce getting 168 votes and Lyon 160. Wauconda township was one of the few outlying rural

$273 Is Red Cross Membership Drive Total: 1936 More

Mrs. R. D. Wells, Chairman Expresses Appreciation in Final Report

The membership fund of the American Red Cross for Barring-ton, collected during the drive which closed Thanksgiving Day, is 3273.5, according to Mrs. R. S273.5, according to Mrs. R. Dwells, membership drive chairman. This sum, she stated, it less than the previous year, but no less grail-fying due to the fact that they from the third sponsored by the American Red Cross for funds in the last 13 months. Winners' in the school children's American Red Cross for funds in the last 13 months.

Winners in the school children's house-to-house canvass with two children working as one team were as rollows: Wayne Rutedge and Boyd Miller, Beth Bears and Dordy Kuckuck, Barbara Colberg and charlotte "Miller, Beth Bears and Dordy Kuckuck, Barbara Colberg and charlotte "Miller Serve", Mrs. L. Manghal, Mrs. A. C. Hand, Mrs. L. P. O'Yell, Mrs. G. P. Reit, Mrs. L. P. O'Yell, Mrs. G. P. Reit, Mrs. L. P. Gried, Mrs. Barrington Woman's club Mrs. Samuel Rowe was chairman of the country group.

In making her final report, Mrs. Wells expressed her appreciation eration and to the public for its

Helen Blanke Wins Medal for Oratory

Helen Blanke, daughter of Mr id Mrs. John Blanke, 533 Summit reet, placed first in the silve dal oratorical contest conducted the Salem church Friday evening of received the silver medal landy Baby" was the title of her reading.

Selections by three other contestants and several musical numbers were enjoyed by an appreciative andience.
Mrs. K. K. Lilien, Miss Kathryn Coe, and Rev. C. R. Drussel served as indees.

Awarded Newer Contract
W. A. Stewart, of Barrington, was awarded the contract for 55 foet of sewer tunneling work on Station street between Hough and Cook street at the meeting of village invates Monday night.
He was low bidder with a total of $110 and is to supply materials for

Methodist Church December 26

Blahop Ernest Lynn Waldorf of he Methodist Episcopal church, caident bishop of the Chicago rea, will be morning preacher at he Barrington Methodist church windsy, Dec. 26.

His coming to Barrington will be in connection with an installthe Methodist Episcopal church resident bishop of the Chicage area, will be morning preacher at the Barrington Methodist church area, will be morning preacher at the Barrington Methodist church Sanday, Dec. 26.

Mrs. Ad Harden, 121 W. Lake Histoning to Barrington will be in connection with an installation of the church. Bishop Waldorf who, incidentally, is larnched will give a brief history of the society. Other honored of the Northwestern University guests at the tea will by Mrs. Mary football team, is well known, speaking frequently over the rabe, at the Chicago Sunday Evening club and elsewhere.

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Engle will years ago and Joined the group.

Curator of Mammals at Field Museum to Speak Here Dec. 28

The speaker at the dinner meet-ing of the Barrington Alumni as-sociation Dec. 28, in honor of the class of 1908, will be Colin Campbell Sanborn, curator of mammals at Field Museum of Natural His-study is the bate of their habits.

Mr. Sanborn has published many papers on birds and mammals, the first appearing when he was thirteen. He is one of the authors of "Birds of the Chicago Region."

Sale of Country and Village Properties Listed This Week

The sale of the Russell Walcott property to Leonard Karcher at a approximate cost of $40,000 was re-corded this week. The sale includ-es an estate residence and 13 acres es an estate residence and 13 acree of land.

Also reported in village transactions during the past month were actions during the past month were W. Scott purchased the Stoll house at the corner of Hillside and Summit streets; George Bauman was reported as purchaser of the property at 248 W. Russell street from Charles Albers, receiver for the closed First State Bank of Barrington; and Ben Listhartké purchased the E. Schroeder residence at 321 W. Lincola avenue. Donad Schroeder was the broker in all three village transactions.

Mrs. Ralph Keeling To Give Review at Library Tuesday

Mrs. Ralph Keeling of Barring-ton township will review "And So Victoria" by Vaughan Wilkins at the public library at 2:30 p. m.

Declare Stock Dividend

Declare Stock Dividend
Directors of the First National Bank of Barrington Wednesday, night vels a dividend of $1 per share on stock payable December $1 to stockholders as of record December 15. In commenting on the dividend, O. H. Elsen; condition of the institution is sonitantly inproving with assets in the neighproving with assets in the neigh-

Holidays in Foreign Countries

Institute Suits to Collect Village Water-Sewer Bills

Eleven Cases Before Police Magistrate A. Church

bell Sanborn, curator of mammals at Fletd Museum of Natural Hist at Fletd Museum of Natural Hist and William Staturday Ministrate A. Church Staturday Ministrate A. Church Staturday and Article Museum and its activities" and will include a description of the work of collecting specimens and preparting some of the large babitator of the staturday should be some of the staturday should be should be should be staturday should be should be staturday should be should be

1938 Village Tags Are Placed on Sale

The 1935 village vehicle and dog tags have been placed on sale. A. Burandt, village clerk, announced. The new motor tags are green and white.

The only major change in the cost of the tags is the placing of all tags for the $5 horse-power or less in the $5.50 citeses. A green place in the state placed in the same place in the same pla datory

lownsead Clab Secting Barrington Townsead Clab No.

1 will meet at the home of J. H.

DeBoit, 214 W. Lake street, Friday evening. December 10, at 8 o'clock. Kay Webb of the national headquarters is expected to be present to address the meeting, it was reported.

Woman's Club to Hold Annual Xmas Party at Catlow

Mrs. L. Hinkle Will Describe

the Barrington Woman's club, to be held at the Catlow theatre at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Dec 15th. Mrs. Hinkle has spent the holi-days in six countries: Russia, Tur-key. France. Germany. Italy. Eng-land and Brazil. Her lecture. edu-key. France. Germany, Italy. England and firstil. Her lecture, educational as well as amusing, lasts one hour, it was reported Christmas musical numbers will be sung by Jims Olive Dobson and The mayal tree, decerrated in seaconal splendor by the philinathropy committee, will have its place in the foyer of the Catlow, surrounded-by-giffs which Junior Woman's Club members have made and wrapped for the Senior club members. These gifts will be taken to the Margaret Etter Creche (formerly the Little Wandere's Day nursery). Any member who has not contributed to these gifts may still do so or may bring a gift to place under the tree, it was reported.

Mrs. or Schutt, club president is priviledged to bring a guest my proposed the workers.

Imperiled By Wires When Auto Crashes High Tension Pole

Louis Cernocky, of Pox Illier Grove, narrowly escaped death by electrocution Friday morning when the car he was driving left the parement near the intersection of Plum Grove road and Northwest highway, north of Platinie, knock-right was provided to the control of the parement of Platinie, knock-rashed into several Irees and smashed a cuivert. He was re-ported to have gone saleep. The smashed cer came to rest smasses a cuivert. He was re-ported to have gone asleep. The amashed cer came to real amid a tangle of electric wires. Although Mr. Cernocky auffered no injuries from the crash, he was im-perited by a possible shorting or active to the control of the control of the active for the control of the control of the state of the control of the control of the control in the control of the control of the control of the last years and the control of the control of the control of the last years and the control of the control of the control of the last years and the control of th

"Legend of the Orb" Topic of Jr. High Parents' Play pupils, including a group of choral speakers, will take part in "the Legend of the Orb," a play by Es-sex Dane, to be presented at the sex Dane, to be presented at the Christians party for parents in the school auditorium Friday evening. Dec. 17.

A verse choir will read the Christians story and prologue to the play according to Miss M. Annette Sheel, the director. Individual roles will be played by , the director. ividual roles will be played by Jane Witte, Jean Lovendahl, Garbisch and Mary Ellen Gel-

Request Lowering of Street Level at Deep Rock Station

William Anderson, representing the Barrington office of the Deep Rock Oil corporation, appeared be fore the board of trustees Mondaj and requested improvements to Lageschulte street at the intersection of Main street where the company is erecting a new service station.

on. He petitioned the board to hav Mrs. Lealie Hinkle of Kankakee will present a unique (travelogue, humorously describing Christmas neasons she has spent abroad, at de contractor y village enstreet annual Christmas program of gineers when the concrete was poured.

At present a bump exists where the road is higher than the concrete drives on Lageschulte street, it was learned. The matter was taken under advisement by the street committee, headed by R. Berg, which will call for bids on the proposal to obtain an estimate of the cost.

Expect Sellout of Tickets for Lions Dinner December 13

Grange, Chapeks, Principal Attractions; Reservations Limited

With the number of reservation for the Lious club dinner next Mon day night at St. Anne's auditorium limited to a total of 128, a complet-sell-out of tickets before the en-of the week is expected, J. C. Cao wallader, accretary, reported Wed nesday.

wallader, secretary, reported Wed-nesday, This dinner, at which Harold
'Red' Grange with the principal speaker, will be a adder night for the local cidibas ayallana district meeting with representatives ex-pected from nine clubs in the Northwest suburban district.
In addition to the address by Red Grange, there will be a chape, violitist, and Sybli Fagan Chapek, violitist, and Sybli Fagan Chapek, recording artist.

violinist, and Sybli Fagan Chapek recording artist. Tickets, sold only at the cost of the turkey dinner, may be obtained from Q. R. Faulson, M. H. Schrei-ber, J. C. Cadwallader or Dr. W. A. Fanning. The dinner is open to local persons to the limit of reser-vations.

Dinner will be served at 6:43 clock

Mrs. Reuben Plagge Will Address Club

Members of the Village Garden Club of Barrington will be entertained at the home of Mrs. R. D. Wells. 200 W. Lake street, Monday afternoon for the regular December personn the bear of the day, will discuss "Special Adaptations of Birds."

Christmas stockings filled with candy and gifts to be distributed to worthy charities by the Chicago. Plowers and Fruit Guild will be brought to the meeting by the Gartangements for the gifts add the Guild will seed them to patients at Chicago hospitals, to orphans, cripples, bilind and needy persons as in previous years.

Lecture on Christian Science December 16

The First Church of Christ, Scientiat, at Barrington will present a free lecture on Christian Science by Frances Lyster Jandron, C. S. B. of Detroit Mich. at the local high school auditorium Thurday evening, Dec. 16. The public has been invited to attend the program which is to begin at 8 p. m.

File Amended Bill in Gieske-Thorne Sewer Damage Suit

plaint Entered By New Attorneys in Case at Waukegan Monday

An amendment complaint in the Gleske-Thorne damage stift against the village of Barrington was filed Monday in the circuit court of Lake county by U. Bardwell of Eckerts and Peterson of Chicago. attorneys, who haye replaced fortier legal representatives for the complainants in the case.

The new Billyasks for the same and the complainants in the case and the complainants in the case. The new Billyasks for the same and the complainant in the case and the complainant in the case and the complainant of th on Russell and Summit streets are listed. The case was instituted last April and damage claims are based on alleged faulty construction and oparation of the new separated sanitary and storn severa. A surrey report of the system by engineers or the system of the system

Discuss Liability on Business Signs; Propose Ordinance

A propose Ordinance

A proposal to require business houses to carry liability insurance on their out-door signs was discussed at the village board meetling Monday, following the reading ling Monday, following the reading for the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of the state of any damages cansed by a falling sign. D. Maloney, village attorney, reported.

At the end of the discussion, the license and ordinance committee was instructed to study the situation preparatory to drafting an ordinance requiring liability insurance that would protect the sign owner and the village.

The Ack Ammonstration

To Ask Approval on Improvement Plans for Village System

A C. Berandt, village clerk, was instructed at the village board meeting Monday night to forward plans and specifications of propers of improvements to the village board water spatem to the state sanitary water board for approval. It is not especied work will start on the improvements villated to the proper special control of the work could be gotten under the work could be gotten under detail to the vork could be gotten under detail to provide the work could be gotten under detail to provide the work could be gotten under the work of the beforehand.

Extension of the piping system from the pumps and present supply reservoir at the village hall and installation of a water system are now included in the proposal.

Rev. John Hubbard on Fathers' Night Program of P. T. A.

Rev. John Hubbard of St. Mary's piscopal church, Park Ridge, will Episcopal church, Park Ridge, will be guest apeaker at the Fathers night meeting of the Barrington Parent-Teacher association Tues-day evening, Dec. 21. The program will begin at 8 p. m. Rov. Hubbard will disquas "Path-er's Responsibility in Character Education."

Christmas carols will be sung by nembers of the Glee club under the lirection of Miss Adelaide Swing, Miss Ruth Johnson will be in tharge of an exhibit by the kinder-

Brotherhood and Gleaners Class to Have Xmas Party