

Catlow Holiday Bill Filled With Late Movie Hits

"This Way Please," "All Baba Goes to Town" Among Headliners

Fiber McGee and Molly, radio's famous married couple, make their movie debut in "This Way, Please," the rollicking comedy with music which comes to the Catlow Friday.

Mary Livingston-Jack Benny's Mary—also makes her screen debut in "This Way, Please," playing the role of chief usherette in the deluxe movie palace.

Joining forces for the first time with hit-making 20th Century-Fox in the happiest mirth merger in the history of hilarity, Eddie Cantor brings Bagdad up to date in his starring extra-glorious musical hit, "All Baba Goes to Town," featuring Tony Martin, Roland Young, June Lang, Louise Lovick and a tremendous cast, opening on New Year's Eve at the Catlow theatre, playing the midnight show and also matinee and evening shows on New Year's Day, Saturday. The film is enriched by a revolutionary new three-tone tinted process.

A mad collection of characters, which include a concert singer, a gold digger, a night club singer, a wrestler, and a sentimental dueling expert are involved in a series of incredible but rib-tickling adventures in "Fight for Your Lady," new musical film production, to the Catlow Sunday and Monday.

An unusually strong cast has been selected to play these roles, and the lineup includes John Edgar, Jack Cayne, Ida Lupino, Margaret Graham, Gordon Jones, Dick Rhodes, Paul Guilfoyle and a score of others.

Walt through the thrills of a speed-packed story! Break-neck speed races crashing through a thousand thrills—braving a storm of bullets, blasting gangland mobsters, meeting a gambling ship, smooching a ruse-laden climax of a fiendish story! Scandal Keith and the new star Allen Brook are featured in "Motor Madness," the new-angled thriller due at the Catlow Tuesday.

Playing the double feature bill Tuesday with "Motor Madness," is "Gangway," starring Jesse Matthews, with Nat Peary, Barry Mackay and Neil Madison.

Previewed from coast to coast by more than three million persons, who paid "roadshow" prices to see it, Frank Capra's long-awaited "Lost Horizon," starring Ronald Colman, comes to the Catlow Wednesday for a three-day engagement, for its first local popular-priest engagement.

More than two years in the making and one of the most costly pictures ever to come out of Hollywood, "Lost Horizon" is Robert Ebbin's screen adaptation of James Hilton's best-selling novel of the same name. In translating the Hilton novel to the screen, Mr. Ebbin and Frank Capra—the men responsible for such memorable successes as "Mr. Deeds" and "It Happened One Night," recaptured all of the breath-taking adventure, the high romance and the awesome beauty that contributed so much to the widespread appeal of the original story. Featured members of the huge cast supporting Colman in "Lost Horizon" include Jane Wyatt, Edward Everett Horton, Isabel Jewell, Theresita Mitchell, Margot, H. B. Warner, John Howard and Sam Jaffe.
