

'Submarine Patrol' Is Week-End Bill at Catlow Theatre

'Trade Winds' Will Begin
Three Days Here
Wednesday

Into the secret archives of the navy department—the voluminous file that contains the detailed history of the navy and the host of confidential data that acute agents dream about—has been selected the drama, "Submarine Patrol," by John Ford, "shooting script" drama, "Submarine Patrol."

The script, written by Alan Ware and Jack Yellan, brings to the screen the first time the dramatic story of the speedy, frail submarine chasers that cleared the Atlantic of U-boats. The picture stirred new officials to such enthusiasm that they arranged to have the most prominent of the film held aboard the U. S. fleet, and showings aboard the fleet were given to mark the recent Navy day celebrations.

Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Preston Foster and George Bancroft are featured in the romantic drama, which comes to the Catlow theatre Sunday and Monday.

William Boyd, George Haynes and Russell Hayden, the familiar and well-liked sidesteps of many a "Hollywood master," in a suspense action romance, return to the screen in a classic "B. M. Hood" thriller, "In Old Mexico," coming to the Catlow theatre Wednesday.

Another feature is the dramatic melodrama about "Candy," a rumberon to avenge the murder of one of his closest friends, a woman gambler, and root a gang of bandits in a double-crossed city.

Double-act comedy comes to the Catlow theatre in "The White Sister," with Ted Rogers and Edna Wallace Dornay. Kathryn Kane, Eddie Quinn, Ernest Truax and Edna Lane bring the Grand Trunk and Edna Lane bring the Grand Trunk and Edna Lane bring the Grand Trunk.

BARRINGTON HILLS

BARRINGTON HILLS—The board of directors of the Garden City Club of Barrington were to have met Monday, Feb. 6, but due to the inclement weather, the meeting was postponed.

Mr. Kenneth Kutzkerbeck flew to New York last week to join her husband. They expect to return home some time this week.

The Wynne ensemble up on Dowell Durbin and to his great amusement, a group of his friends walked in on him Saturday night all shouting "happy birthday," it was not until the birthday man, Mr. Durbin, explained the party for Saturday and it was really a surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Beymer entertained a group of friends Saturday night with a dinner and bridge.

The Wynne Hunt held its annual dinner and election of stewards for the coming year Sunday night. The election was held by invitation of the host and the Barrington members were having a very good time. They were themselves falling off, or even holding on to their seats, and a happily sprained ankle last week but now getting along very well.

The Garden club study class met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Howe. Mr. Vash, the speaker, gave his second lecture in the series.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Grigby and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Beymer are leaving Wednesday, Feb. 15, to spend a few weeks in Bermuda. Judging from the roads and the weather, it is possible that their friends could be just a little jealous.

J. H. de Koven Bowen and George Best reached the summit of the Hamilton climb in Chicago over the week-end but then were forced to retreat due to an injury sustained by Mr. Best in the same climb.

Miss Helen Rowing gave her book review Thursday at the home of Mrs. Andrew Dillman. The group has changed from ten to twelve members, as which person brings her own reader and writes.

Mrs. James Drexler gave a luncheon for the members of the club.

choon and bridge last Friday for most of her Barrington friends.

Mrs. Andrew Dillman, who was on the ticket committee for the "Toscanini" concert last week is happy to report that the benefit was a great success.

Mrs. Lloyd Hilton has gone to St. Paul to visit her mother for a week or two while Mr. Hilton is in Toledo on a business trip.

Another Saturday night dinner of the past week was given by Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCracken for some Barrington friends.

Mrs. Edna Meyer, who has been very ill, is considerably better and expects to leave for Del Rio in a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Poole were also among those who entertained at dinner last Saturday.

Mrs. Hugh Matthews has in Barrington last Tuesday and went to call on her mother, Mrs. H. B. Buckley, in Carter behind the Buckley home.

old grey mare, the Buckley road being three feet deep in snow.

Following the Sunday morning breakfast at the Ferrer club, St. James church is now an independent parish.

Mrs. Thomas Hayward is on her way to St. James church in Dundee was honored as the most satisfactory investment—And a Sound One Look for the eye-opening Buick on General Motors' terms!

There'll be a sudden hurry to trade in cars that have begun to pass their prime, and step out in the cushioned smoothness of Buick's Springing's full-foot ride.

No question about that, not when you recall last fall, when we had to sell cars on a five and six week delivery basis.

On the other hand, you can get rid of a lot of grief by trading an old car now. Get rid of weak batteries, slick tires, slow-starting engines, brakes that may be needing a re-lining job soon.

You'll get a car in this well-made, well-mannered, well-planned new Buick that'll take the rest of the winter term in stride, and just be warmed up when spring comes.

You'll get it at prices lower than a year ago, lower than you'd expect, lower even than on some sales.

You'll get a better allowance on the car you're now driving—and like as not you've now heavy-lifting back to you.

So why wait until sometime "in the spring"? Shop early for your Buick, the most satisfying car you ever drove—abundantly wisely and avoid the rush!
