Catlow Theatre Brings Top-Notch Shows to Patrons

"They Made Me a Criminal, "Idiot's Delight" Here This Week

With his six-guns blazing justice with his six-guns bining justice and revenge, "Hopalong Cassidy," America's favorite action hero, will come back to town in a new and exciting range drama when Paramount presents "The Fron-tiersmen" at the Catlow theatre on ttermen" at the Cattow theatre on an original Clare Multord prairie Saturday, March 15. Based on an original Clare Multord prairie the struggle of ranchers to keep the village school on the straight-and-narrow in opposition to a crocked mayor, who uses his high and-narrow in opposition to active reather and attempts to win over school bids to further his aim over school bids to further his aim william Boyd, who rides again as "Hoppy," has with him his Rayse and Russell Hayden, while Hayes and Russell Hayden, while ricoppy," has with him his ro loyal saddlemates, George syes and Russell Hayden, while e romantic interest is supplied lovely Evelyn Vennble, cast as a desert school teacher. "They Made Me a Criminal," the most of the exciting dramatic ac-tion of the picture.

May Robeson and Gloria Dick-son are the proprietors of the ranch, and John Garfield and the "Dead End" kids are their chief helpers. Garfield is hiding there to exape punishment for a murder of which he was fulsely. John Ridgely, Barert Gleekler, John Ridgely, Bar-bara Pepper and many others. Starting with the promise that a girl must live and, if posisble, live very well "Pardon Our Nerve". 20th Century-Fox production, which comes to the Catlow March 25, is reported to be one of the laughingest films to come along this season.

Norma Shearer sings a Russian number, "Kak Stranna," with Clark Gabbs as her accompanial, Clark Gabbs as her accompanial, the Catlow March 19, 36 and April 1. It proved to be one of the comedy highlights of the picture, she was going to sing 15 mines before the scene was filmed. Gabbs plays the number in the picture plays the number in the picture gested that Miss Shearer sing to give the scene more seat.
