Wills Will Receive Awards at Council-Wide Court of Honor

Wills from the troops of the Northwest Fisheries Council will be presented at the council court of honor and receive recognition awards for their various roles of scouting Friday evening, April 20.

Members of the court of honor will include... Wills: Edward H. Bushman, H. A. K. ...

Wills Will Suffocate if Deprived of Free Oxygen

Although fish do not breathe they take in and give off the same oxygen dissolved in the water. Their gills are adapted for absorbing oxygen dissolved in the water.

Deep sea fish are so constructed that they can live on the meager quantities of free oxygen found in the water.

Keys Preceded by Seals in Tent-Dwellers' Days

Keys were preceded by the seals and logjams lakes in an expedition to project their property when parties had to be made.
