A LIVING WAGE

The amount paid by both employers and employes in so security taxes is scheduled to be materially increases maxt year. That simply means that more and more money will go to government—and that there will be less and less money for private spending, individual investment, and indus tax and the capital gains tax, which hamstring and discourage tax and the capital gains tax, which hamstring and discourage business, yet bring in comparatively little revenue to the treasury) should have been acted upon long ago. Business come and corporation taxes. When the special nuisance taxes are glied on top of these, it's no wonder that industry is stag-ness and control took the other way when there is indo lawting new industrial securities for job-creating purposes. The greatest internal need we face today is to encourage business—and you can do that only by allowing business to sears a decent profit if it can.

A NATION OF BEGGARS

There is now every indication that the recent economy drive in congress was made of the same stuff of which all economy drives in recent years have been made—ballyhoo and buck passing.

This is a paradoxical situation. On the surface, as record-This is a paradoxical situation. On the surface, as record-dby numerous opols and speeches, the public is all of econo-my. But public office holders, quick to accept the views of public opinion, are extremely reluctant to do more than talk about it. They know that demands for economy are only 'skin deep' as far as the public is concerned. Their con-stituents back home, polls and speeches notwithstanding, still demand 'free money' for this or that 'worthy civic project.' Economy is all right they say, in effect, so long as the fellow in the next state or the next county bears the brunt of it.

in the next state of the next county bears the brunt of it.

The next time you are tempted to curse the politicians in Washington for not pulling the drawstrings on the public purse, just remember this: The average public official won't bock public opinion. Therefore, until the public honestly demands economy and all of us are ready to grin and bear the resultant pinch, the country will have no economy.
