

Silver Lake, Wis., Baseball Nine Defeats Local Team Sunday, 13 to 4

Elgin Parkrides to Play Here Tonight; Algonquin Sunday

Wisconsin Sluggers Take Lead While Holding Bears in Check

Leading a five run blast in the second inning the contest played at Silver Lake Sunday, the Wisconsin baseball nine trounced the Barrington Bears by a final score of 13 to 4. The locals were kept from counting the plate until the first ball of the seventh when all four runs were scored.

A. Altenberg was on the mound for Barrington and got into difficulty in the second leading by allowing a walk, two singles and a second walk, which blossomed into three runs. Hitting a batter with pitched ball, a single and an error by "Fido" resulted in the fourth run of the inning.

In the sixth inning the Silver Lake, and had the locals handicapped for six innings, before runs were recovered for Hodge, who fell victim to Barrington's fourth blast in the seventh. Hodge struck out ten men, gave no walks, allowed two hits and threw three errors committed behind him. Hodge was nicked for four runs, three walks, three hits and struck out three batters. Hodge gave up 13 hits, walked four men, struck out three and threw three errors.

The locals will meet the Elgin Parkrides in a twilight game this evening at 7:30 on Thursday, June 29. On Sunday, the Algonquin team will come here for a game starting at 2:30 p. m.
