Feature Sonja Henie and Tyrone Power in Drama of Ice Skating

Before Friedella, Rosemary and Lois Lane, and their friends, Catlow who plays the "fourth daughter," played their first scene in their new picture, "Daughters Courageous," which opened today at the Catlow theatre. Director Michael Curtiz lined the four girls up and looked them over carefully. "I just wanted to see if any of you looked like grandmothers or whether some of you looked younger than you did before," said Curtiz, who directed the same quartet in the memorable "Four Daughters." He told all four girls to get their hair cut shorter and directed them hair to wear "hairs" ever her forehead for her new role as a home girl who is very stage struck. "Twenty-five child stars, ranging in age from 12 to 13, will be given a chance at dramatic films and feature in "Second Fiddle," starring Sonja Henie and Tyrone Power.

The children, hand-picked by Smith and Director Sidney Lanford, after eight nights visit to the ice-making tank in and about Hollywood, will appear in two elaborate spectacles with the ice Queen in the film opening Sunday at the Catlow.

Featuring Rudy Vallee and Edna May Oliver at the head of the cast including new-star, Mary Hasty, Lois Lane, and Anna Dietrich, the film boasts one of the greatest combinations of talent ever gathered for one show.

Although most of the action of "The Vanities" is centered about Murder Case, coming to the Catlow Theatre, is concerned with Carnegie's efforts to help Warren William, starting the role of Pablo Vance, solve the case. Bigmie Dale time to sing a typical Alamo number, his "Song as a Crime in the Ring," followed by Gracie's her customary aria, it is a catchy tune which should catch well up among the hits of the day. Also featured in the cast are Ellen Drew, Kent Taylor and Judith Barrett.

Double featured on Tuesday is "Trapped in the Sky," starring Fred Holt with Ralph Morgan, Henry Gordon and Katherine De Mille.

Dramatizing the roving adventures and rich romance of the frontier days in America in the early 19th century, "Capitan Fury," co-starring James Hoberg, Victor McLaglen and June Lane, will have its premiere tonight at the Catlow Wednesday.
