Halloween Damage Is Minor, Chief States

Although there were more chil-drea and young men and women circulating through the streets in search of Halloween direction Tuesday night than ever before, a less amount of financial loss was suffered compared with previous years, according to E. W. Baade, chile of police, who had five special children of the case of the control of the other caselon.

on the occasion.

A squash was hurled at the home of Fred Homuth, 119 Coolidge avenue, and windows in the storm and front door were amashed by the missle. A lawn chair was taken from the E. A. Beerman was taken from the E. A. Beerman home, numerous wagons and farm implements were carted through town and the usual amount of corn shocks were scattered, Chief Baade said.
