"SERVICE YOU WILL APPRECIATE"

IF YOU'RE WONDERING WHAT 1940 WILL BRING

Just remember that the year 1939 didn't bring much that you didn't go out and get yourself.

If no effort is made to get business there will not be any business—this is true no matter what year it is. We know of Barrington firms that make money during 1939, and these same firms will make money during 1940. Every one of them has invited busi-ness and proved to their customers that they deserved it. This newspaper offers the best medium of inviting business.—It is Palatine also spotted the Barrington Pirates' chances well compared to the Pirates might mean an un-expectedly big win for Barrington. The Pirates came back to tie it up at 13-13 and a minute before the quarter ended.

Most of the game was played more evenly than the score shows. Barrington's big chance will come sometime in 1940 when Palatine comes to town. A victory for the Pirates might mean an un-expectedly big win for Barrington.
