ZONING AND PLANNING: Mr. Train, Chairman of the Plan Commission, appeared and presented the recommendation of the Plan Commission, made after public notice and public hearings as required by Illinois statute, for a revised Official Plan for the Village of Barrington Hills as contained in a proposed Ordinance. Said Official Plan also contained by reference the proposed Subdivision Ordinance, and the Barrington Hills Road Network Map and the Barrington Hills Official Map attached to the Plan. A series of minor amendments to the Official Plan and the Subdivision Ordinance were proposed and agreed upon. ~~No change was suggested in either of the maps.~~ The Clerk was instructed to keep the documents as submitted by the Plan Commission in the Village files. A motion was made and seconded to approve Ordinance 73-8, entitled "An Ordinance Providing for the Adoption of an Official Plan for the Village of Barrington Hills, Illinois.", including the suggested changes referred to above and including the two maps above described and attached thereto, to become effective as therein provided. On roll call vote, 5 ayes, no nays, 1 absent. This ordinance was declared adopted and effective according to its terms. A motion was made and seconded to approve Ordinance 73-8 A, entitled "Barrington Hills Subdivision Ordinance". ~~On roll call vote 5 ayes, no nays, 1 absent.~~ Ordinance 73-8A likewise included the suggested changes referred to above. On roll call vote, 5 ayes, no nays, 1 absent.
