

She's DUMB!

It is dumb stupidity for any woman to have bad breath. It offends others—ruins you socially. The worst of it is you, yourself, never know when you have it. But you can be sure that you won't have it by gargling with Listerine. It instantly ends halitosis—improves mouth hygiene, and checks infection. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

Automobile Thieves' Accident Brings on Charges for Owner

A man cannot be held responsible for an accident caused by thieves who are driving his stolen automobile, according to a ruling of the municipal court in Des Plaines. Henry Lipofsky, charging him with leaving the scene of an accident in which his car was involved was dropped Friday of last week. Lipofsky's car was stolen on April 22 when it was parked on Lake street near the high school. It was recovered at Englewood. Later police from Jefferson Park appeared with a warrant and order for him to appear in court at Des Plaines Friday to answer charges of leaving the scene of an accident. Lipofsky proved that he was not in possession of his car at the time of the accident, and the charges were dropped. It is believed that the accident occurred when the car was in the possession of thieves. The car was insured and the damage to the car was covered by the insurance company.

Annual Village Appropriation Set at $60,500

The annual appropriation for the village of Barrington, expenses and debt retirement was set by the finance committee of the board of trustees, in meeting Monday night, at $60,500, a net budget increase of $10,500. The appropriation was announced by John J. Carroll, chairman, and approved by the board which passed an ordinance to that effect. The budget will be made in July and wherever possible cuts will be made below the appropriation. The ordinance carried appropriations of $5,000 for interest on bonded indebtedness of the village and $4,700 for payment of maturing bonds, both of which were the same as allotted last year. The appropriation for necessary miscellaneous and incidental expenses for the ensuing year is $3,000, double that of last year, and the budget for payment of legal expenses was increased from $1,500 for the past year to $5,000 for the coming year. MEMORIAL SERVICES IN SPITE OF RAIN

Rain and cold weather did not dampen the patriotism of some 175 to 200 Barrington men, women and children who marched in the Memorial Day parade last Saturday morning. All of the cemeteries in the Barrington and Lake Zurich district were the scenes of brief services which commemorated the deeds and sacrifices of America's war dead buried there. The services at each place were started promptly and the parade moved along most according to schedule. In the parade were the firing squad, the drum and bugle corps, other World War veterans, Auxiliary and W. R. G. members, and about 75 school children.

Dedication of New Swimming Pool by Legion Is Planned

The new Barrington Park district swimming pool will be completed and ready for dedication by the American Legion July 3, 4, and 5, unless the workmen are hampered by more than a normal amount of wet weather in June, a member of the park board predicted Thursday. Although the Legion and park board officials had not conferred on the dedication and dedication underwriting, the board will be favorable to the plan, the officials predicted. An important meeting of members of the American Legion was scheduled for Thursday night. Reports from committees in charge of the fourth celebration were to be heard, and final plans for the three days of festivities were to be made. Paul Rohlfman, chairman of the fireworks committee, was prepared to reveal all fireworks purchased with a fine array of skyrocket, mine, Roman candles, colored fire, pin wheels and two-light fireworks in addition to a few "surprises" on hand. The fireworks program will be limited to the evening of July 4 only.

DEATH AT PASADENA OF EDWARD R. CLARK

Word was received in Barrington Tuesday of the death on May 24 of Edward R. Clark of Pasadena, Calif., who was a pioneer resident of Barrington and an uncle of Albert Robertson of the First State bank of this place. Mr. Clark was an influential citizen of this community for many years and other residents who knew him regret to learn of his death. He was past 80 years of age and had been an invalid for the past two years. He resided at 2285 N. Michigan avenue, Pasadena, under the care of a faithful nurse. Many old friends from here had seen him at intervals during his years in California, including John C. Plagge, who saw him last winter. Mr. Clark was born in Lake county near Libertyville, son of pioneer parents. He married Miss Cordelia Robertson, sister of the late John Robertson. After a period of years of failing, they moved to Barrington and lived in a home which stood where the A. L. Robertson house is now located on W. Main street. February 1, 1901, the Bank of McIntosh, Sandman & Co. was founded by Mr. Clark and a group of men. Mr. Clark being the first president of the first bank in the town—from which the present First State bank developed. Three Wauconda people were badly injured about 10 a. m. Sunday when an automobile in which they were riding was struck in the rear and upset by another automobile as they attempted to cross highway 22 about two miles west of Half Day. J. L. Harris was driving the car accompanied by Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Ella Cady and Mrs. Mary Harris. Mrs. Cady and Mrs. Mary Harris were taken to the hospital at Libertyville. Wisconsin Drivers Arrested, Held for Licenses and Fined

"Arrest the drivers of Wisconsin freight trucks playing in Illinois, impose a minimum fine, and hold their trucks until they have taken out Illinois motor vehicle licenses," were the orders from state headquarters received by State Highway Police James A. Bailey of Barrington. The drivers of two five-ton trucks and one light truck from the Bauger state were the first victims of the new Illinois Wisconsin truck license fund arrested near Barrington. The drivers of three more trucks, including a large refrigerator van were the next.

Frank Taylor, of Avon, Wis., was arrested by Mr. Bailey Monday night. He was driving a light truck with a load of hogs headed towards Chicago and his machine was decorated with a Wisconsin license but not an Illinois license. He was given a hearing before Justice Harry L. Hammond, paid to pay a fine of $5 and costs and required to take out an Illinois license. The later cost him $22.50. His total was $32.50. James Dwyer and Frank Bruce, driving five-ton trucks belonging to Miller Brothers of Dodgeville, Wis., were arrested Tuesday. They were returning from Chicago with empty crates after delivering poultry and eggs in the metropolis. They were fined $5 and Mr. Miller required to take out the Illinois license at a cost of $22.50 each. Mr. Miller's total was $32.50.

The next in line was Ward Hagg of Janesville, Wis., whose machine was attached at a total setback of $83 including $75 for license, and $10 for fine and costs. Mr. Bruce of Rockland Center, Wis., detained in Barrington under escort for a $22.50 license and $10 to pay for fine and costs, a total of $32.50. Cudahy Bros. Trucking Co. of Cudahy, Wis., had a large truck under escort for a truck which was held here until the owners could be notified. Cudahy Bros. sent a representative here to carry the case to circuit court. If they had paid a license for their plant on wheels, they would have been out about $125, Justice Hammond said. In the meantime a conference between state highway officials of Illinois and Wisconsin has been arranged, and quick action taken by the truck owners of both states, who pay interstate, is expected.

Following Orders

In making the arrests, Mr. Bailey was acting under strict orders from headquarters. The instructions received from the state, depicted and were accompanied by an explanation of the cause for the drastic imposition of Wisconsin drivers. The action of the Illinois officials is retaliatory. The governor of Wisconsin recently signed a bill requiring Illinois trucks, traveling into Wisconsin on their second trip to take out Wisconsin truck licenses. Following a joint meeting of officials of both states, the Wisconsin authorities refused to budge from the position which they have taken. The Illinois officials decided to reciprocate but believed it impossible to tell whether a Wisconsin truck was making its first or second trip into Illinois. Consequently they went the safer route and arrested all Wisconsin trucks without Illinois licenses, require them to pay fines for violations and to take out Illinois freight licenses.

Highway Official Proposes Viaduct Near High School

A viaduct under Hough street leading from either corner of the school property bordering the street to the front of the school house, for children to pass under the street and eliminate crossing dangers is a project suggested by a state highway official to a committee from the Barrington Lions club. The suggestion will be placed before the village board of trustees and before the school board, with the suggestion that the state may help defray the cost of such an improvement if it is made. A committee of which Rudolph Koerber was chairman, appeared before the highway officials at Elgin with requests for permission to erect village signs at the state highway entrance to Barrington. While no action resulted from this, the Hough street viaduct suggestion was made. The viaduct possibly would be installed from the front gate of the school yard, under Hough street at the center of the block, or at the corner nearest the down town section of Barrington.

Juniors, Seniors at Annual Party Friday Evening

Seniors, juniors, and faculty members, a total of 110 people, filled into the Methodist Episcopal church, Friday evening for the first annual junior-senior dinner party, an event which has taken the place of the former junior-senior picnic. Following the dinner, served by the Methodist ladies, the senior guests were welcomed by Warren Waggoner, president of the junior class, and toastmaster for the evening. Alfred Prestik, president of the senior class, responded. The program of songs was similar to the flight of an airplane with students and faculty members having different subjects such as "Take-off," "Ascension," "Flight," and the parts of a plane as the motor, propeller, and wings. The dining room was decorated with garden flowers of which the white roses, the class flower for both the juniors and seniors, predominated.

Party in Gymnasium

Following the dinner, a party of dancing and games was held in the gymnasium of the high school. About two-thirds of the floor was set off for dancing while the rest of it and the stage were used for games. Bridge, bunnies, and shuffle board were among the games played. Music for the dancing was provided by the high school orchestra. No reservations will be necessary for back-auditorium services at the high school auditorium Sunday night, nor for class night Tuesday. Tickets have been issued for commencement Wednesday night, but there will be room for visitors who have not received tickets. Superintendent E. S. Smith said.

Dr. J. Preston Bradley will be the speaker at baccalaureate services.

Dr. Frederick P. Shabman will be the speaker at commencement.

The deceased man is survived by three daughters, one son, and three grandchildren. The daughters are: Mrs. Frank LaSalle and Mrs. Adam Ulbrich of Barrington; Mrs. Lily Anderson of Chicago. Robertson, Earl Jencks, Gordon Cameron, and William Voss with several others who have a chance to break into the high scoring. School Separation Case Deadlocked, Must Go to Judge

One more hearing, making a total of three, will be necessary in the school district 25 separation case, which was argued before two county superintendents in an appeal hearing conducted in Kelsey school Tuesday afternoon. Miss Ethel Coe of Woodstock, superintendent of the McHenry schools, and W. C. Peery of Waukegan, superintendent of the Lake county schools, presided. At the end of the hearing, the two superintendents deadlocked in their decisions, each favoring the district in his own county. The case will be heard again, probably before July 1, at Waukegan, with Judge Perry L. Persons presiding as a jury of three. It was originally held in the office of F. L. Waterman, Barrington, before the school trustees of Cuba township, George Hager, Ed. McGee, and John Stacey.

At that time the petition to transfer part of district 25 to the Fox River Grove district 149, was granted. Those persons interested in retaining district 25 as at present, appealed the case, and the hearing was held Tuesday of this week before the two county superintendents. That part of district 25 which is involved in the separation and transfer to district 149 is the land lying between the Fox River and the North-western railroad wholly within McHenry county. Approximately 100 acres are included. Those who want the change argued that being in McHenry, the disputed section should logically be with the Fox River Grove district. Those opposed to the separation argued that the children in the territory would have a greater distance to travel to attend the Fox River Grove school than the Kelsey school.

Wilmette Athletic Club to Play Here Sunday

Strong Team Will Try To Stop Bears' Winning Streak; Locals Defeat Gilberts 8 to 1. Altemberg Allowed Only 4 Hits; Jewels will play game for Benefit of Bears Fund

The Barrington Bears won their fifth straight game of the season Sunday defeating Gilberts 8 to 1. Perfect support by the team allowed C. Altemberg to hold Gilberts to four hits. The Bears played the best fielding game of the season making two double plays and only one error. Garbisch, Boem and Shuett each made pretty running catches of fly balls in the outfield. C. Altemberg led the Bears attack with three hits in four trips to the plate. Garbisch, Boem, McGowan, Pinnow and E. Altemberg pounded out two hits each.

Next Sunday Barrington will play the Wilmette Athletic Club team here. Undoubtedly this will be the strongest team to invade Barrington the first part of this season. On Wednesday June 10, Barrington will play the Jewel Ten baseball team in a twilight game starting at 6:30 p. m. The Jewel team boasts several star ball players and they are confident of giving the Bears a real battle. This will be a benefit game with all gate receipts going to the Bears to help in their financing program.

According to an announcement made by Ralph Bradford, director of the department of conservation, the requests for pheasant eggs exceed the supply, although the department expects to be able to send out about 60,000. Last year there were orders for about 40,000 pheasant eggs and only about three-fourths of the requests were filled. An increase of fifty per cent in the demand for eggs is expected for 1931, and the output will be twice the 1930 yield.

The Lane's state income tax bill made another step toward adoption when the house of representatives returned to their sessions May 26. Amendments proposed by its enemies defeated. One of the most important amendments was offered by Representative Logan D. Griffin, of Springfield, designed to make the income tax, if passed, a real replacement tax in lieu of other taxes.

New Injunction Keeps L. Zurich Open for Summer

Another temporary injunction restraining the owners of the lake from charging for boat Lake Zurich from charging for boat launching, and fishing privileges, was granted by Judge Edward D. Sherrill in circuit court at Walke-

Wednesday. A temporary injunction to the same effect will expire June 1 with the effect probably becoming permanent afterwards. The injunction was granted on the motion of State's Attorney A. V. Smith of Lake Zurich, who has filed a case against the lake owners. The action is another attempt to defeat the position taken by the two lake bottom owners.

A previous injunction granted by Judge Sherrill in the same case, which was granted on the motion of the lake owners, was granted on the motion of the lake owners, which was granted on the motion of the lake owners.

There is little likelihood that the matter will be disposed of finally by the court in the fall. It was pointed out today which assures the use of the lake during the summer at least.

THE HORSE COMES BACK

The day of the horse as motive power on the farm is far from being over. Some recent figures, compiled by the Minnesota agricultural authorities, show that for a great many kinds of farm work, which used to be done by horses but lately have been done by motors, the horse is again the cheaper motive power. Oats and hay are selling for the lowest prices in years. Even though gasoline is down, there are a great many farmers who are finding it now more economical to use horses.

On the other hand, race horses and riding horses are more expensive than ever before. The United States Army is finding it difficult to get enough high-grade horses, part thoroughbred, for cavalry remounts. Numerous sales of saddle horses, of so-called stepphorses or hunter-type, have been made in the East at prices ranging above $3,000 apiece. Horses of a similar type and quality were easily purchasable for $500 or $600 until a few years ago.

There is still money in the horse. There is money for the breeder of thoroughbreds and saddle stock, and there is profit for the farmer who can utilize horses instead of motors. Probably there never will be a time when the small farmer will not use horses, especially in rough or hilly country. A farm without horses may look all right to the youngsters, but older people feel that it is not a real farm. There is nothing about a tractor to get sentimental about. A horse has individuality and character, and often becomes one of the family.

FAKE PRIZE SCHEMES

A rather ancient scheme of separating the unwary from their money is being worked again, both in the United States and Canada, according to a leading business men's magazine.

The plan is to insert an advertisement containing a perfectly simple puzzle which anyone can easily solve, and offer prizes for correct solutions. A favorite prize is a "building lot."

Of course, anyone who sends in a solution of the puzzle wins a lot, but he is informed that he will be expected to remit a small sum—in one case $7.75—for the deed and other incidental expenses connected with the transfer of the property. The "lot" is very small and the $7.75 fees alone would set the seller around $200 an acre for some worthless land.

So, if the "winner" swallows the bait he is out just $7.75 for the privilege of working the puzzle, while his name is passed along to other swindlers as that of an easy mark.

There are many perfectly legitimate prize offers advertised in various periodicals, but those which require a payment of cash before the prize is delivered are generally fraudulent and should be shunned.

THE CHILD PROBLEM

Interesting discussions concerning child training marked a conference on the subject at the University of Iowa. It appeared to be the consensus of the educators present that more rational methods and less sentimentality should be employed in dealing with the young.

Properly understood and properly dealt with, the tendency to independence which characterizes the youth of the present is not to be deplored, according to some of the speakers. Children must be led to do things because they are right and beneficial for them, not simply because someone lays down arbitrary rules.

Mrs. C. G. Woodhouse, head of the Bureau of Economics in Washington, declared that "the church and the law have lost their hold because both are so bound by prejudice that they are out of touch with modern needs," and that "religionists must revise their doctrines to meet modern problems."

Summed up, the conclusion appeared to be that children of the present and future must be governed, if at all, by principles which appeal to their intelligence rather than to their emotions.

LAWS AND CORRUPTION

Remarking upon the tendency toward the regulation of every phase of human conduct by law, a recent speaker quoted an aphorism of Cicero: "In the most corrupt nation you have the most laws."

There probably has never been in all history a people burdened with so many laws as exist in the United States today. Whether we have the most corrupt nation is a matter of opinion, but heaven knows it is bad enough.

Still the reformers are clamoring for more laws. Where it will all end no man can foretell. Every new law for the regulation of this and that adds to the battalions of office-holders already feeding at the public crib.

Thoughtful men are beginning to realize the seriousness of the situation. Only by an aroused public sentiment can we hope to stop the orgy of lawmaking and lawbreaking which threatens our social structure and makes of liberty a mockery.

TOO MANY CHURCHES

Denominationalism in religion, according to Doctor Henry Sloane Coffin, president of Union Theological Seminary, is unnecessary and wasteful—it emphasizes outward differences in faith and promotes anti-Christian competition between sects. For several years non-religious magazines, notably the Woman's Home Companion, have been urging a reduction of at least 75 per cent in the number of churches in American towns and cities. Doctor Coffin's endorsement of their proposal indicates that church leaders are beginning to see the futility and duplication of the existing emphasis on denominationalism.

Ten college professors will now study the effects of prohibition, which ought to yield at least ten new conclusions on the subject.

The Family Doctor

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M. D.

POSSIBILITIES OF BLOOD-PRESSURE

I have frequently had patients assure me, "no, doctor, I haven't any blood-pressure" meaning that they have no high tension in that department. I generally correct them gently, by saying that a man with no blood-pressure is dead for all intents with circulation have "blood-pressure."

The condition—high or low—is but a symptom; and high arterial tension may be a very serious symptom, if its cause is found in the kidneys. It will relax with the cure of the diseased organs. And cure is in some cases impossible, when the renal disease is too far advanced to correct.

So, if blood-pressure is far above normal, I immediately look after the kidneys; you should do the same. The "change of life" in middle-aged women is sometimes accompanied by a very high arterial tension, but I regard this sort of manifestation curable, if taken in time—that is, before a brain hemorrhage, or another only thing has set up. This possibility means, keep close to your physician in such crises—it will pay.

Certain nervous states cause high blood-pressure; others bring low tension. Weakness, relaxed muscles usually induce low pressure. Both phases of human existence usually respond to treatment, and should not cause alarm. The hardened arteries of the aged cause what may be termed normal high tension, which rarely does harm or produces alarming symptoms.

Diet, it seems to me, has been considerably overworked in the matter of high tension. I recommend eating moderately, rather than to cut out food that the patient really needs. The heat bugaboo is passing, as I believe it properly should, except in cases of severe kidney disorder. Meats are of too much importance in the human economy to condemn in a routine way.

You should have your blood-pressure reading recorded at least twice a year, regardless of "your dentist."

FEARS OF THE OPPONENTS OF RUSSIAN RECOGNITION by the United States Government that such action would increase the spread of Communist propaganda in the United States were discounted by Senator Borah (Rep.), of Idaho, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in a radio interview May 20.

The country "could not be more effectively covered" by such material than it is at the present time, he declared, and referring to the growing foreign trade of Russia, he stated that "it seems to me we need that trade, and that the American people are strong enough in mind and character to take a chance on communistic character in order to get it."

IN LINE WITH THE POLICY APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT, THE FOREST SERVICE has ordered temporary restriction of sales of timber from the national forests as a means of relieving the serious depression now confronting the lumber industry.

Chief Forester R. Y. Stuart has issued instructions to all regional offices of the Forest Service, effective immediately, to make no sales of National Forest timber during the present economic situation, where the value of the timber sold is in excess of $500, except under the following conditions:

1. To supply the needs of already existing sawmills which are dependent upon the national forests for their raw material and where such raw material can not be obtained elsewhere.

2. To furnish domestic paper mills with raw material needed to supply the domestic market with newspaper and other wood-pulp products.

3. To dispose of wind-thrown, fire-damaged or fire-killed and bug-infested timber.

These exceptions are designed to avoid causing unnecessary unemployment or unnecessary hazard to the forests.

LEGISLATION TO REMOVE FROM THE WORLD WAR VETERANS' ADJUSTED COMPENSATION ACT, passed by the last session of Congress, the clause requiring the veteran to pay interest on the loans authorized by the act, will be offered at the next session of Congress by Representative Connerly (Dem.), of Lynn, Mass., a member of the World War Veterans' Committee, he stated May 20.

The following additional information was made available by Mr. Connerly:

Although the measure passed during the last session was a step in the right direction, it is not paying the veterans what they deserve. It is not right for the Government to charge them interest on their own money.

The Government can get 1 1/2 per cent on this money while charging the veterans 4 1/2.

Let the veterans have half of the face value of the certificates immediately without charging them interest, and they will then be able to collect the other half in full in 1945. What should be done with the other half could be decided later.

THE THREE LEADING DEMOCRATS now are Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Owen D. Young and Alfred E. Smith. Roosevelt's personal preference is known to be Smith, but the latter's defeat three years ago makes him a risky possibility, Rashkov realizes. It is said Smith does not like Roosevelt any too well, in spite of the amity that appears in all of their public contacts and Rashkov will probably be guided by Smith and oppose Roosevelt. That leaves Owen D. Young as the logical candidate to run against President Hoover in his race for re-election.

Young is considered by many as the party boss of the president's cabinet. He is the possessor of the ablest mind in their ranks and the man best fitted to occupy the presidential office.

He has one handicap, it is felt by those weighing his prospects of becoming a candidate. This is that he is affiliated with the General Electric Company and other power interests, a handicap to carry when asking popular support at the polls.

THE RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS, whose members are usually called "Quakers," has just amended its book of discipline, removing some of the restrictions on the dress and appearance of its members. It still adheres to its fundamental tenet, which is simplicity in external things, as well as in spiritual things.

President Hoover, the most distinguished member of the Society of Friends, habitually wears the plainest and simplest clothes that any President has ever worn, the dark Quaker grey being his favorite color. But Quaker girls are no longer forbidden to dress modishly, although they are still warned against the extremes of fashion.

The vitality of the Quaker sect has been remarkable. Its moral influence has always been very powerful. And we have never heard of a Quaker in need of charity.

PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE NICARAGUA CANAL has been revived by President Hoover's warm commendation of the officers and men of the Army Engineer Battalion, which has just completed the field survey of the proposed route.

Congress will be called upon at the next sitting to appropriate money for the actual digging and work should start soon afterwards. No opposition to the canal is expected to appear in Congress, which has already given the money for the survey, amounting to the sum of $1,000,000 from the Republic of Nicaragua in 1916 for the necessary right of way, and otherwise shown its desire to have a second shipway to Arabs around Damascus have long been amused by American flapper tourists who desire to meet native sheikhs, and find them to be whiskered, fat, greasy old fellows with several wives and many children. The kind of sheikhs the girls were looking for exist only in the movies.

Adolph S. Ochs, owner of the New York Times, was once asked what parallel the present Panama Canal.

The new canal promises to be a boon to a large section of country, chiefly to Gulf ports like Galveston, New Orleans, Pensacola and Tampa, which will benefit by a shortening of the time to California by about three days.

The Nicaragua route is something like 500 miles farther north than Panama, a day and a half's sailing for a "good steamboat."

Not only the Gulf ports, but the entire Mississippi Valley will be benefited by the construction of the second canal. Government work now under way on rivers in the heart of the country will result in nine-foot channels for river steamers that will carry their freight to New Orleans for transshipment on ocean-going vessels to the California coast and far Pacific ports.

Aside from the saving in time and money, the new canal will be an additional insurance against the blocking of the Panama Canal by enemies in time of war, or by one of the many earthquakes that continually occur in Central America. The building of the Nicaragua Canal will benefit nearly everybody in the United States and will not be a drain on the pockets of taxpayers.

The Panama Canal has been in operation long enough to show that it has been a worthwhile project. It takes in about $100,000 a day in tolls, to pay the high charges than to sail around Cape Horn. While the Panama Canal cost around one billion dollars, it is earning more than enough to pay interest and retire the principal, and will eventually give the government a water way for its navy, cost free.

The new canal will probably be built to accommodate ships of greater width and depth than the Panama.

Building Life's Foundation, Elia Seniors Are Told

Student training in high school similar to foundation building, house construction, the Reverend of the Elia township high school, baccalaureate services Sunday night. The speaker stressed the character building and wisdom of a young people to the building of a house, telling them they must have a good foundation on which to build.

The invocation was given by the Reverend Mr. Irion of Lake Zurich. A piano solo was beautifully rendered by Mabel Krueger, a member of the Elia church. The stage was decorated with baskets of garden flowers. The church was filled with a happy and many parents and friends were on hand to see the class and hear the message.

From Friday Night

The Junior-Senior prom was held at the school house Friday evening, May 29. The crowd of upper class students, many of them attending their last school social function, began to gather at 7:30 p. m. and by 8 o'clock had filled the assembly room, which had been transformed into a beautiful dining room. A most beautiful color scheme was carried out in the decorations and menu. The room was decorated with white and red streamers, and the table and chairs were decorated with white and red. The form of an "X" was cut out of the center of the room, and a procession of flowers, danced and a procession of members of the prom class, Harry Brundage, president of the senior class, acted as the master of ceremonies. He gave a welcome to the seniors and Elia Starr, president of the senior class, acted as the emcee. Others on the program were Phyllis Soderberg, Laura Gorman, the senior class, and C. A. Werner, principal of the school. Mr. Werner sponsored the junior class, and was called on for a few remarks and Mr. Richards, former sponsor of the class, gave a short talk urging the juniors to look forward to higher and better things in life. The talk was well received with group singing. Every one joined in the spirit of the occasion.

Presents Gold Key

The last thing on the program was the presentation of a gold key, a symbol of success, prosperity, and happiness, by the senior class to the juniors. The senior class, dressed in white with bouquets of flowers, followed the juniors into the gymnasium. The seniors passed it to the juniors, who were called on for a few remarks and Mr. Richards, former sponsor of the class, gave a short talk urging the juniors to look forward to higher and better things in life. Both Warner Baxter and Joan Bennett are said to rise to new heights of emotionalism in this stirring production.

Marlene Dietrich's gift for portraying a woman who dedicates her life to her country, and, as a spy, pursues her country's enemies in high places. Her ruthlessness in pursuit brings her up against a rival, McLaughlin, a tricky, handsome young officer, who seduces her woman's intelligence but succumbs to her feminine charm.

In spite of herself, in the game of hide and seek, they play over half of Europe. Dietrich is drawn under the influence of this strange lover—until, in the dramatic climax of the picture, she admits defeat and accepts a new victory.

At a short business session conducted by James C. Flagg, president, it was decided to have a picnic Wednesday evening, June 22, at the bird sanctuary and a committee was appointed to make the arrangements.

Mrs. Clifford Stout read a paper on "The Rose-breasted Grosbeak" called in Pennsylvania the potato bug bird, because of its voracious appetite for these insects. The song was described as a joyous carol expressing the bird's happy disposition.

The principal paper was read by Mrs. Charles B. Cox, Sr., of Chicago, president of Illinois Chapter, Will Flower Preservation Society, entitled "My Bird Friends," in which the transformation of an unattractive Chicago backyard into a beautiful flower garden and haven for bird life, was most fascinatingly described.

Seventy-six species of birds were reported in or above this garden while it was maintained.

The next stated meeting will be held Tuesday, July 7 at the S. Hough street home of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Prentice.

Mid-Year Meeting of Scout Council Is Set This Month

As a result of a suggestion made at the regular meeting of the executive board of the Northwest suburban council Monday evening, plans are under way to hold a mid-year meeting of the council.

Not only will the meeting itself be a unique feature in the administrative program of the council but the fact that it will be held at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta where the scouts from the council will be encamped will add to the attractiveness. A tentative date of June 27 has been set for this meeting. Arrangements will be made for a dinner to be served at the camp at seven o'clock after which the meeting will be held. Invitations will be issued to all members of the Northwest suburban council.

Reports Encouraging
The trend of the council committee reports made at the executive board meeting has been shown in practically every phase of council activity. Mr. Pagels reported as chairman of camp committee and told of the recruiting for summer camp and other plans for scout activities. Other chairmen reported favorable work: Rev. A. W. Barwick, cub chairman, R. G. Jones, finance, Rev. O. F. Jordan, good standing, F. O. Proctor, troop organization. Mr. Proctor reported the membership of the council to be twenty-four troops and 550 scouts, an increase of five troops and 85 scouts since the first of the year.

Mr. A. E. Shibley, court of honor chairman, also reported a large increase in the number of awards made this year as compared to corresponding periods of 1930.

How One Woman Lost 102 lbs. of Fat

Almost Unbelievable—Nevertheless True
Dear Friends:
You advertise Kruschen Salts for reducing, so I finally tried them and when I took them for a year and 3 weeks, I lost exactly 102 pounds.

I am 23 years old and I look at least 5 years younger now than I did when I was fat. I have a picture of myself before and after so if you want to see them let me know.

I am always telling my friends about the wonderful salts. I am always advertising them.

I took 2 bottles every month for a year and 3 weeks. It amounted to $25 for reducing 102 pounds but it was worth it.

If I can be of any help to you let me know.
Yours truly, Miss Nellie Simpson,
1003 Wayne Street, Swissvale, Pa.,
Oct. 31, 1930.

The Modern Safe Way—Right Way to Lose Fat
Just take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast.

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria lurking as the reason. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A coated tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—their little vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.
